Know Your Clothes Before You Wear Them

The clothing that finds a place in this store is pedigreed. Every part of its past is familiar to us. We are acquainted with the material from the mill to the maker. We make certain that it is right in quality, color and pattern. Our Mr. A. B. Steinbach supervises the choosing of the style and cutting of the cloth and follows every detail of the making. We insist upon the best linings and the most skillful tailoring.

When we show you a suit we are positive that it is the very best to be had at the price—we are confident that you cannot surpass it anywhere, even at higher prices - because it is our policy to give greater values.

DR. AMBROSE H. JOHNSON IN SPAIN.—
Dr. and Mrs. Ambrose H. Johnson, of Portland, who recently left for a tour in Europe, have reached Spain. Dr. Johnson writes from Gilbraltar under date of May 30. He says that the trip was filled with interest, and especially when the vessel plowed through a school of whales. The ship encountered a heavy storm and they saw a small craft 30 feet long in mid-ocean at the time filled with sallors. Dr. Johnson writes that when his letter reaches Portland they will be cruising on the Mediteranean. SEATTLE, June 18.—The gunboats Wheeling and Petrel sailed from the Bremerton Navy-Yard today for the Atlantic Coast via the Suez Canal. The gunboats will follow the great circle route to the Orient and will stop at Dutch Harbor, Alaska, for coal.
