

LANE COUNTY REPUBLICANS IN HARMONY SELECT STATE DELEGATES.

SESSION ENDS AT BANQUET

Gathering is Attended by 150 Representative Delegates, Listens to Rousing Speeches and Conducts Work Smoothly.

Chairman, Dr. William Kuykendall was chosen without opposition and relieved Mr. Friendly, whose physician had told him that he could not stay for the afternoon session. Dr. Kuykendall called for the report of the committee on credentials, which reported 270 precincts out of 50 represented by 210 out of 356 possible voters.

When the committee on order of business gave its report the recommendations included the nomination of a county ticket. The Springfield delegation had already sent up a resolution proposing to defer action on this matter until after the state convention, and C. W. Rycard asked to have the resolution read and acted upon at this point. Chairman Kuykendall ruled that it could not be called up at this time, but that he would entertain a motion to strike out that clause of the committee's report which referred to the nomination of county officers, which motion was promptly made and a spirited discussion took place at once.

Pipes Turns Tide.
Dr. Paine led the forces favorable to the county ticket choice and was at once opposed by Martin Svarverud, J. M. Williams stood with Dr. Paine on the county ticket controversy and it looked as though in the heat of the debate the committee would carry the assembly, when John M. Pipes, a strong assembly man, stated that while ordinarily he would be favorable to the nomination of a full county ticket, he considered that the assembly today would make expediency its principle, that it was necessary for the interest of the party, which were of much more importance than those of any or all of the candidates, that such matters be acted upon at this time as the assembly was ready and prepared to take up.

This speech seemed to turn the tide, and Pipes was followed by a number of old and influential Republicans, who talked along the same lines. Finally, E. M. Yoran asked the consent of the mover of the original motion to introduce another one stating a specific date for action upon the county ticket, which was granted, and the question was settled. The county officers in favor of recommendations of county officers at this time were Dr. Kuykendall, Dr. Paine, J. M. Williams, S. M. Woodcock, J. W. Hobbs, C. W. Woodcock, C. A. Wintermeier, C. W. Rycard, H. Hall, S. D. Allen and J. E. Hedges.

The committee on resolutions reported a resolution in favor of the selection of a Representative ticket, which would include as candidates for the south end of the county, one from the west and another from the central portion of Lane County.

This was unanimously adopted, as was the one endorsing the National Administration.

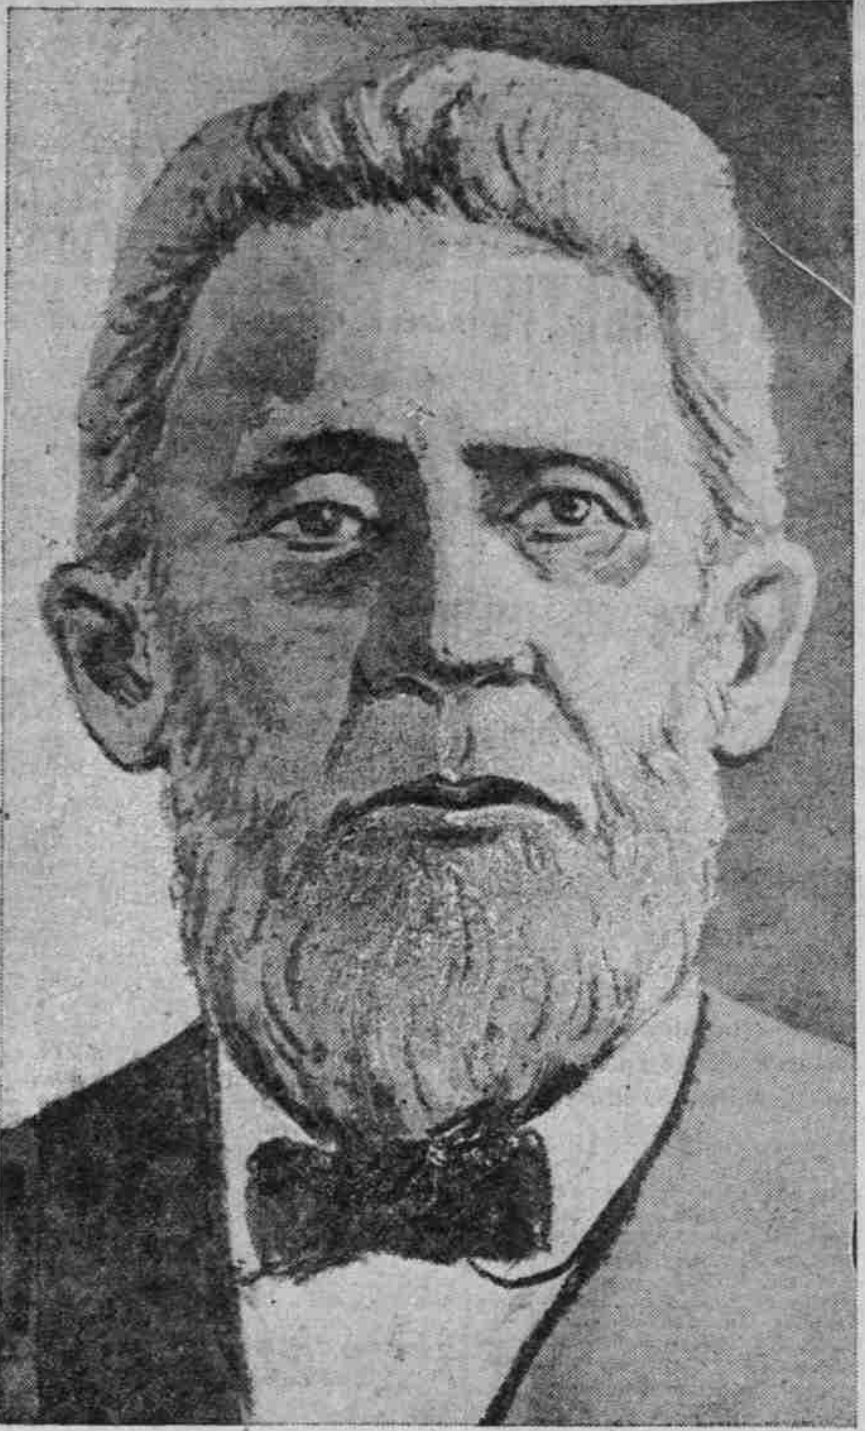

Fifty-six Delegates Chosen.
The following 56 delegates were chosen for the state convention, and the other ten to which Lane County is entitled will be chosen by the executive committee.

Fred Wright, H. Oldeman, W. W. Scott, F. B. Chase, C. W. Rycard, W. M. Sutton, B. A. Washburne, B. F. Russell, F. J. Hall, C. W. Woodcock, F. Colquhoun, R. A. Booth, T. W. Harris, A. H. Eaton, W. G. D. Mercer, J. F. Kolly, L. N. Roney, J. L. Page, Amos Wilkins, J. E. Martin, J. M. Shelly, E. U. Lee, D. A. Paine, C. S. Williams, W. M. Green, J. S. Magliard, J. M. Williams, H. W. Thompson, J. W. Hobbs, C. W. Woodcock, E. M. Pipes, W. C. Farnsworth, W. Willis, E. R. Mummy, M. Svarverud, J. R. Cushman, Charles Behnke, A. L. Roney, S. L. Bond, Emmett Howard, S. J. Moorehead, H. V. Beckman, H. J. Fann, J. J. Winn, George Drury, Thomas Vanduy, C. Cole, Frank Stafford, J. S. Churchill, L. E. Beem, H. C. Wheeler, E. O. Tobey, W. L. Farney, W. W. Calkins, G. W. Griffin, C. J. Dodd.

A feature of the assembly which evoked the greatest applause from all parts of the hall was the denunciation of Jonathan Bourne by S. M. Yoran and by A. C. Woodcock. The latter stated that Bourne had been bribed and bribing the Legislature. This statement was roundly applauded.

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY.

Noting that there is less danger of an entire community after proper consideration, being wrong in its consideration than an individual, do endorse the action of our precinct committee in advancing the nomination of Bradbury as President of this precinct in this assembly.

We also believe that our President is using his best endeavor to carry out the duties of his office as President of the National Assembly and is faithfully and conscientiously devoting himself to the discharge of his duties as President with the single aim to do the greatest good to the greatest number. Therefore, be it Resolved, That we, Republican voters of Ward Number Four, endorse the policies and the administration of President William B. Bradbury, and pledge ourselves, so far as we are able to assist and uphold his principles and doctrines.

It is estimated that nearly 40 per cent of the total number of Republican voters were in attendance at the mass meetings, which is a remarkable record, and shows the splendid enthusiasm which is sweeping over the country for the assembly.

RICH EGGENTRIC'S PRISON TERM ENDS

Millionaire Bradbury Insists on Cheap Suit and Quarrels Over Stamps.

THEN ENDOWS $2500 FUND

Wealthy Prisoner Completes Term of Ten Months in Penitentiary for Perjury—Ex-Convicts Get No Chance, He Says.

Insists on 15 Cents Carfare.
He insisted on the suit of clothes which were his right; he insisted on the $50 general expenses which the state allows, and the 15 cents to San Rafael; he insisted on two postage stamps, not having consumed his monthly allowance, and received them; he quarreled over a small memorandum noted by the warden which he had when entering the prison, and which Warden Hoyle insisted had been turned over to Mrs. Bradbury; and then capped the climax of eccentricity by announcing that he intended to deposit $2500 in a San Francisco bank to the credit of Warden Hoyle to be used as a fund for paroled prisoners.

Fund Left With Warden.
"Too many men and women, too, are sent out of this place," said Bradbury. "Without a chance. I believe in giving them a chance. That's why I will endow this fund. I will place in a trust company's hands in San Francisco $2500 to the credit of Warden Hoyle to be used at his discretion as a fund from which loans are to be made to paroled prisoners. Only first-termers are to be recognized. On these loans 10 per cent interest will be charged, to be paid monthly, the interest being added to the principal, so that the fund will be a constantly increasing one."

Bradbury Famed as Eccentric.
Bradbury was sentenced to one year's imprisonment on September 2, 1909, for perjury committed with reference to proceedings at San Rafael in connection with a suit against James E. McCue, Bradbury having denied making statements against McCue which it was subsequently proved, he had made. As an eccentric he first gained fame by his deliberate violation of the anti-spitting ordinance in San Francisco. After several $50 fines he concluded that it did not pay. He has been in litigation of one kind or another for years.

SECRET OF FIGHT TOLD

secret service should never have been stricken out."

Here the Colonel paused a moment and then like a shot he said: "Would you like to know the secret of that fight? It was just this: A number of members of Congress realized that I was hitting at them. I am mentioning no names."

Bristow's Service Appreciated.
"Senator Bristow rendered a great service to his country in the postal investigation. He found the rascals and I put them out."

Colonel Roosevelt has never said just what he proposed to do in the face of the defeat of the Cobb bill, but those who know him as a fighter look upon his conference with Lloyd C. Griscom, who is spending the night as his guest, as indicating that plans are being discussed that will mean trouble to the Republican organization in this state.

The three insurgents came down off the hill, a little diffident, much impressed with the fact that they were a focal center of news, and rather chary of the situation.

"Now, boys," admonished Victor Murock, "whatever you write, don't say our faces were wrinkled with smiles. Here is what we have to say, with the permission of the Colonel—this statement will stand for all of us, and there is not a word to add to it."

Mr. Murock then dictated the following statement: "All three of us were anxious to see Mr. Roosevelt because we don't believe he had three more staunch supporters of his policies throughout his term of service, and we believe he knows this better than anyone else."

"Bristow was his right hand man in uncovering and punishing the postal frauds, and Madison and I were among the 35 who stood up for him when the fight was made to deprive him of the secret service men in uncovering just such misdeeds as the postal frauds."

"Naturally, we feel much pleased to find him absolutely unshaken."

Mr. Murock's voice rose a little unconsciously, in emphasis as he pronounced the last two words.

"Absolutely," he repeated, "in his attitude toward public questions, and also toward how closely he has kept in touch with what has happened in the last year and a quarter."

Railroad Bill Pleasing.
"Nothing more pleased us than his at once congratulating us and those associated with us on the passage of the railroad bill in the railroad rate bill the provisions vitally necessary in order that it should represent progress along the lines of proper control of interstate common carriers."

"As the train got under way Mr. Murock said impressively: 'You can quote me for one thing; there is a delicious quality about this tea.'"

"Yes," added Mr. Madison with deliberation, "we took that for a compliment to prohibition. Kansas, you know, is a mighty moral state. The Senator never says anything stronger than 'By George!' and when the Colonel said 'By George!' once or twice, the Colonel almost choked. Senator Bristow giggled; they were all immensely pleased."

"My son," broke out the tall Senator from Kansas, with a lean head on his interlocutor. "I can say one thing to you: Theodore Roosevelt is a bigger and broader man today than before he went away. That man is a marvel. Why he says uncles. When he speaks the truth and naked truth, whether truth naked is beautiful or ugly, it comes out like a shot, and like a shot, it goes right to the mark. I never know such a man's decisiveness. His jaw has a new angle of determination. He seems to me not only broader, but more alert."

"Was anything said about the Pinchot-Bullinger controversy?"

"No," answered Mr. Madison, himself a member of the Bullinger-Pinchot committee, "nothing. We thought the Colonel avoided that subject with admirable tact." It was one that would have been difficult for me to talk about with propriety to the Colonel.

Mr. Murock had been listening attentively, checking a phrase here and there that he thought sounded too radical.

"I got an old newspaperman, my error, I suppose I was as radical in the House as the forefront of the insurgents. I do not call myself a 'progressive.' I'm insurgent. And Senator Bristow here kept step with me in the Senate. I don't have to say anything more to you with that preface, after the statement we just gave out."

"Your statement that Colonel Roosevelt praised your attitude toward the railroad rate bill seems especially significant," it was suggested.

"I don't think so," said Senator Bristow. "The whole country knows that the announcement of Mr. Cleveland's acceptance of the position formerly held by Mr. Cleveland. TALKS ON TEETH

By the REX DENTAL CO., Dentists.

WE DO THE BEST

That we do the most beautiful artificial, comfortable and lasting dental work done anywhere on earth. Dentists without actually delivering the goods would not count for much. But we do deliver the goods, and most everybody in this city and state knows that we deliver the goods. We have 11 offices. This one is less than two years old, yet we have treated more than 1000 patients who swear by us and the quality of our work. They came from all sections of this and adjoining states, and pay a good price for the best that is possible in dentistry. Many blacksmiths who call themselves dentists have spent a good deal of their time "knocking" in one way or another. The only criticism we hear from these uneducated, jealous gentlemen of this class nowadays, is that "we are robbers because we charge what all good dentists charge for good work." If this is against us come on with your onslaught, gentlemen. We are busy, always busy. It would seem that the people of the people who have been buying your junk for years like to be robbed. If you have a good price for the very best work it can be called robbery we plead guilty.

suffice it to say all our patients are entirely satisfied with our work and their investments. A lady may have practiced dentistry in this or any other city for 40 years and still be a back number. Alveolar Teeth We can call all our patients are entirely satisfied with our work and their investments.

Alveolar Teeth Where Bridgework Is Impossible.
If only your front teeth are left, say three or four or more, we can replace all those that have been lost on both sides clear back with perfect Alveolar teeth, which our Bridgework would be impossible even if you had eight or ten front teeth to tie to. If you have only two back teeth in one side or say one, we can supply all the front teeth that are missing with beautiful serviceable, lifelike Alveolar teeth. This could not possibly be done by the bridge route. And where bridgework is possible, there is no comparison between the two. A very large percentage of our work is done with Alveolar teeth, and it is by supposedly high-class dentists, and replacing it with the beautiful and artistic Alveolar teeth. And, unlike bridgework in another respect, it is practically painless. No cutting or cutting into the gums, nothing to be dreaded. Now, then, prices being equal, which would you choose?

Curing Pyorrhea (loose teeth), a disease given up by other dentists as incurable, is made of our specialties. We cure it absolutely. It's a beautiful statement of our Bridgework. Alveolar teeth, which is possible in dentistry, and what we do is always of the very highest class. Our Bridgework is of the highest class. Write for one if you cannot call.
