Wesco, to Robert C. McCroskey, son of Senator McCrosky, of Washington.

Miss Wesco was a popular student at the Lincoln High School, graduating there with the class of '05. She is now a student at Syracuse University but is home for her Summer vacation. Mr.

McCrosky is a college, many actions of the McCrosky is a college, many actions. McCrosky is a college man and a mem-ber of the Sigma Nu fraternity. Miss Wesco is a Kappa Alpha Theta. The wedding date has not been definitely set.

Mr. and Mrs. John Duthie, of East Belmont street, were dinner hosts recent-ly in compliment to Rev. Eswald Tay-lor, the new assistant rector at Grace Dpiscopal Church, in Irvington. Other guests were Mrs. F. W. Berry, Rev. George B. Van Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swanton and Miss Leotta Smith.

Mrs. Elliott Habersham is planning to give several affairs this Summer for her house guest, Miss Jesse Buffum. Miss Buffum is here from Boston and will later visit with Miss Lucretia Strong, Who was her classmate at Wellesley. Miss Buffum is a graduate of the class of 1998 of that institution.

Miss Hazel Robb asked a number of Siris Hazer Robb asked a number of girls to meet the Misses King, who have lately returned from a European tour. The guests enjoyed a luncheon at a dalsy-bedecked table and later a game of "500," at which Miss Ruby Crichton and Miss Helen Dobie were the fortunate prizewinners. . . .

Miss Marguerite Boschke will entertain in the near future in compliment to the popular Miss Margaret Bates, who is here for the Summer with her aunt, Miss Nichols, at the Braintree apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Sanborn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turrish, of Duluth, one night last week at the Portland for dinner.

Mrs. Hatch had a few tables of cards at her apartments in the Rose-Friend one day last week. Mrs. R. H. Birdsall was hostess to Mrs.

G. E. Luce and Mrs. A. R. Horn, of Minneapolis, Tuesday, at a bridge tea. After the game, Mrs. E. B. Levy poured, Assisted by Miss Boschke, Miss Louise Williams and Miss Ethelwynne Harris.

Mrs. Charles Eastman was hostess at several tables of "500" at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. William Groh entertained last week with a few tables of bridge whist.

A distinguished visitor in the city last week was Mrs. Eleanor Martin, of San Francisco, who was at the Portland Hotel with her sons, Waiter Martin and Peter Martin. Mrs. Martin, because by her graciousness and charming man-her, is one of the acknowledged social leaders of San Francisco, and knows many people here. Because of their short stay no elaborate affairs were given for the Martins. They leave today for an indefinite trip to Eastern Oregon and will spend some time at The Pedies and will spend some time at The Dallas and in Malhour County. Later they will spend a few days here. Walter Martin was in Portland some weeks in June, and spent much time in the southern part of the state. Mrs. Walter Martin is at her home in Burlingame and Mrs. Peter Martin will leave San Francisco with her mother-in-law, as soon as she returns to California, for Los Angeles. Los Angeles. . . .

Miss Evelyn Carey last night was hostess at a dancing party at her Riverdale home. It was given for the Younger set, of whom a great many are home from college for the Summer. Miss Carey's guests were: Genevieve Haley, Miss Dorothy Huber, Misses Morton and Turrish from Duluth, Miss Claire Wilcox, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Grace Honeyman, Miss Mildred Honeyman, Miss Laura Cumming, Miss Lillian Buehner, Miss Helen Goode, Miss Mildred Josselyn, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Dorothy Newhall, Miss Sally bert, Miss Dorothy Newhall, Miss Saily Hart, Miss Charlotte Laidlaw, Miss Bar-bara Bartlett, Miss Cassle Hiller, Miss Louise Burns and Miss Margaret Hewitt, Messrs. William Wheeler, Berke-ley Snow, Nester Biddle, Benage Josse-lyn, William Howe, Haller Maxwell, Holt Cookingham, Reed Rumelin, Clar-ence Curry, Ferd Smith, Ernest Swigert, Henry B. Buehner, Frank Bell, Joe Lambert, Richard Hiller, Theodore Ed-wards, Anaes McKenzie, John Banks, Ronald Boach, Mr. Davenant, Henry Goode, Stanley, Bacon, Jack, Burns Goode, Stanley Bacon, Jack Burns, Robert Bean, MacCormack Snow and William Heusner.

The Misses Mildred and Grace Honeyan, daughter of Thomas Honeyman, re planning a dance, to be given next hursday evening at the Waverly Golf Club house to the members of the

Miss Margery Hoffman asked Miss Hazleton Williams, Miss Meta Buehner, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Gertrude Robbins, Miss Ilse Koehler, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Evelyn Wilson and the Misses Murray of Pennsylvania to meet the Misses Taylor of New York at a small tea one day last week.

The photograph shown on the society page today is the most recently taken one of Miss Jeanette Thomas. Miss Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, and her absence from Portland last Winter while attending a smart finishing school in the East has been keenly felt among the younger set. Miss Thomas left school a month ago and has been visiting in the East since then. For some time she was with relatives and then went to Pittsburg to be the guest of Miss Portia Keefer, one of her chums at school. Miss Keefer accompanied Miss Thomas when she came West, both arriving a week ago yesterday. It is regretted by her many friends that Miss Jeanette aid not come in time to take part in The Death of Thais" tableaux, as was originally announced.

Miss Keefer will be here all Summer, returning home at the beginning of the school year. Many little affairs will be given for her during her stay and when she is not away with the Thomases at the beaches or mountains.

Miss Dorothy Morrison and Miss Busan Clarke, who have been at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp (Margaret Morrison) near Prineille, Or., have as their guests this seek Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corbett and week Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corbett and little Helen Elizabeth Corbett. Miss Jean Morrison, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison, left for Clatsop Beach Friday, to be at the T. B. London cottage. Miss Winnifred London, who came up to attend Miss Louise Burns' depoint party. Thursday Louise Burns' dancing party Thursday light, went back with her.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shelvin entertained last evening with a large dinner party at the Golf Club, complimentary to Miss Grace Warren, whose engagement has been announced to Donaid Munro. The table was centered with pink and white sweet peas, and covers were jaid for 30. Mr. and Mrs. Shevlin's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Anita
Burns, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Evelyn Wilson, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss
Nan Robertson, Miss Buehner, Miss
Meta Beuhner, Miss Isabella Gauld, Miss
Leslie Smith, Miss Maida Hart, Miss Ellicott, Miss Amelia Putnam, Donald Munro, T. Scott Brooke, Kenneth Beebe,
W. B. Mackay, Tom Robertson, Antoine
Labbe, Jordan Zan, Chester Murpny,
Plowden Stott, Irving Webster, Leiand
Emith and Lieutenant Kingsbury.

A tes was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Huff, 715 East Yamhill, in honor of Mrs. Huff's mother, Mrs. Mary C. Parsons, who celebrated her Sist birthday. The house was decorated with ivy, carnations and roses. Little Louise Teesdale opened the door. Mrs. O. P. Huff, of Salem, received with the hostess. Miss Sarah Bershire served punch, and Miss Della Hagan and Mrs. Clara Thornvyke assisted in serving. In the evening the younger people were invited.

The Rock Island Club, known several years ago as one of the favorite complimentary to A. L. Mills, who was recently appointed one of the overseers of Harvard University, a large dinner was given at the University Club, Friday evening. Covers were laid for 100. B. B. Beekman presided. Chester Murphy was chairman of the entertainment committee. Mr. Beekman wife and family, of Cedar Hill, have made a speeck complimenting Mr. Mills moved to the island for the Summer. on his appointment. A chorus led by Frank B. Rhey enlivened the dinner with a parody on "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly?" being changed to "Has Anybody Here Seen Millsey?" This clever transposition was originated by Chester Murphy, and won numerous encores. The chorus is: cores. The chorus is:

................ OREGON PIONEERS VISITING PORTLAND.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS F. STEPHENS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Stephens, of Baker City, Or., former residents of Portland, are in the city en route to Seaside. Mr. Stephens is a son of the late Thomas F. Stephens, and a nephew of the late James B. Stephens. He was born in 1846 on his father's donation land claim, Fulton, South Portland. The house in which he first saw the light of day was located south of the Terwilliger home. It was shipped around the Horn from Portland. Me. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens are in excellent health and spirits, enjoy the renewal of old friendships with Portland pigneers and of course are assonished to see the great strides Portland pioneers, and, of course, are astonished to see the great strides this city has made in the 14 years since they moved to Baker City.

He forsok old Ell Blue, for he's for Harvard through and through.

Has anybody here seen Millsey? Millsey with the crimson tie."

Kirk Smith gave an impersonation of Harry Lauder which was excellent, and Kurt Koehler gave some Dutch comedy which caused a round of applaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Coursen entertained at dinner on Thursday evening for the pleasure of Miss Anne Swinburne Ditchburn. Other guests were: Miss Coursen, Roy Fields and Arthur Fields.

C. V. Cooper, treasurer of the Portland Motor Club, gave a launch party Monday, taking his guests on his fast motor-boat "Charmalee" to the motorboat races at Vancouver. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Leiter, Miss Frances Tozer, and Messrs Wil-liam Bloch, Milton Werschkul and Ed-ward Sammons. ward Sammons.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sinnott leave to-morrow for the East. Their itinerary in-cludes a trip through Lake Champlain, Lake George and the Thousand Islands on down to Quebec. They will also visit in Montreal and other points of interest, returning by why of the Canadian Rockles. The trip will consume the greater part of two months.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

In honor of Miss Minnle Dabroe, of Ta-coma, Wash., Miss Ida Dingle, of 710 East Everett street, gave one of the most at-Everett street, gave one of the most attractive lawn parties on Wednesday even. Ing of this week. Games were played and the prizes were won by Miss Ruth Van Name, Val Henkel, Miss Helen Galbraith and Dudley Werschul. Music was rendered by Miss Genevieve Dufur on the violin, Miss Edith Dufur at the piano during the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were the Misses Gene Lynch, Ruth Van Name, Helen Galbraith, Leona Harrington, Laura Dingie, Edith Dufur, Veroo Beckett, Jessie Miller, Genevieve Dufur, Genevieve Courtney, Louise Ross, Lois Courtney, Hazel Wright, Doris Ford and Estelle McCarthy, Will Henkle, Dudley Courtney, Hazel Wright, Dorls Ford and Estelle McCarthy, Will Henkle, Dudley Werschul, Val Henkel, Will Laidlaw, Howard Black, Norval Smith, Claude Phipps, Ralph Shomp, Paul Griesel, Earl Baumer, Roy Gaither, Fred Griesel, Horace Steele, George Robinson, Dan Foster, Eugene Hart, Clarence Ashworth, Will Mac Kewil, Howard Woodburn, Claude Clemens, Jack Deegan, Elwyn Marston and Sim Smith. and Sim Smith.

Miss Cis Barclay Pratt entertained five tables at bridge whist and three at five hundred on Saturday evening at the Pratt home, overlooking the Willamette River at Oregon City, honoring Mrs. William Burghardt, of Salem, and Mrs. C. T. Griffith, of California. Both are Oregon City brides of last June. The home was decorated with roses and ocean spray. The guests were: Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Mrs. C. T. Griffith, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. L. B. Jones, Mrs. Neita Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. L. Adams, Miss Marjorle Caufield, Miss Fannie G. Porter, Miss Kate I. Porter, Miss Emily O'Malley, Miss Amy Bollack, Miss Dalton, Miss Bess Kelly, Miss Lou Draper, Mrs. B. T. Mc-Bain, Miss Merle Keck, Mrs. L. L. Por-ter, Miss Mayme Lewthwaite, Miss Dollie Pratt. Miss Cis Barclay Pratt and

Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Bill entertained a number of friends and guests at the new Bill Hotel, near Elk Creek, July 4. They indulged in bathing, boating, claming, crabbing, fishing, hunting for rock oysters and visiting the numerous points the groom entered the parlor, attended by Elwin I. Minar. Next came the maid by Elwin I. Minar. Next came the maid moved to the island for the Summer.

The New York State Society of Ore-The New York State Society of Oregon will have a garden party this month instead of the regular monthly meeting. The party will be held next Tuesday evening, July 12, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Morse, 545 East Twenty-eighth street, corner of Taggart. Either the W. W. or W. R. car can be taken. This will be the first outing of the society this Summer. New York people, either visitors or New York people, either visitors or residents of this city or state, are cordially invited.

An out of doors luncheon was given by Miss Clementina Bradford at her new home at Milwaukie Heights on Saturday evening, from 4 to 7. The guests were: Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. H. B. M. Rinearson, Misses Carrie Hunt, Kate I. Porter, Della Croyle, Roberta Rippe, Irene Ray, Marguerite Ray, Celeste Albin, Ruby Goulet, Alice Ormandy, Charlotte Lucas, Grace Downey, Estelle Robins and Clementina Bradford.

Mrs. Charles K. Sitton gave a luncheon at her home on North Twenty-third street, on Thursday, in honor of three visiting young ladies, Miss Bishop, of Mississippi; Miss Bartholo-mew, of Pendleton, and Miss White, of Chicago. Covers were laid for Miss Bishop, Miss Bartholomew, Miss White, Miss Lineham, Mrs. Rinalda Hall and Mrs. Sitton.

A few friends gathered at the home of Miss Lillian O'Shaugnessey to celebrate the eve of the Fourth. Those brate the eve of the Fourth. Those there were Miss Blanche Mc-

WEDDINGS.

Lang-Kern.

Henry Winfield Lang and Miss Vers Margaret Kern were united in mar-rlage Wednesday evening, June 29, in the First United Evangelical Church in Ladd's Addition. The church was simp-ly but effectively decorated in sword ly but effectively decorated in sword ferns and pink and white roses about the pulpit and choir. Mrs. Adolph Bittner presided at the organ and the four Misses Shaver, cousins of the bride, preceded the bridal party singing the wedding hymn from Lohengrin.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Loyal E. Kern, was attended by Miss Agnes Kelly as maid of honor, and Miss Cora Hansen and Miss Harriet Kern as bridesmaids.

The bride's gown was of ivory white

The bride's gown was of ivory white crepe-de-chine, with trimmings of princess lace and pearls. She wore a full length veil which was caught up with a bunch of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were dainty lingerie frocks with wreaths of tiny pink roses in their hair. They carried pink bridesmaid roses.

Mr. Lang was attended by Alex Halden. James Stram and William Hendricks were the ushers. The service was read by Dr. C. C. Poling, president of read by Dr. C. C. Polling, president of Dallas College. Immediately following the ceremony a supper was given for the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal E.

Kern in Irvington. Mr. and Mrs. Lang will spend the Summer months at Welches, after which they will make their home in

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirby at 480 East Davis street Thursday evening, June 30, when their daughter Florence and Chester Louis Daue were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Black, of St. Francis Church. Only immediate oysters and visiting the numerous points of interest along the beach. In the evening there was an exhibition of fireworks and a clambake and bonfire on the beach. Later selections were rendered, among them a recitation of "The Star Spangled" in a gown of white organdle, made prin-

Monogram Stationery

The Only Exclusive Card Engravers

ESTABLISHED 1889

Embroidered Underwear to Order.

Three Pretty Hand-Embroid-ered Handkerchiefs for 50c.

We Make All Kinds of Waists

Bet. 4th and 5th, Corbett Bldg. LADIES' HABERDASHER.

Parasol Sale

$2.50 and $3 values, sp'1 $1.98. $3.50 and $5 values, sp'1 $2.98. $7.50 values, special $5.00. The parasol season has just

La Tosca Corset Sale

$1.25 value, special 98c. $2.00 value, special $1.48. $2.50 value, special $2.48.

Silk Petticoat Sale

Guarantee not to split within $7.50 value, special $5.98. $10.00 value, special $8.48. $15.00 value, special $12.00.

William Klumpp Company

←ENGRAVERS STATIONERS-PRINTERS ERCHANTS TRUST BLDG. 526% WASHINGTON ST. PHONE MAIN 9252

BUSINESS & CALLING-CARDS MONOGRAM-STATIONERY SOCIETY & COMMERCIAL

SPECIAL PRICES DURING JULY

506 MARQUAM BLDG.

cess style, and wore a full-length veil draped through her mother's wedding ring, and held in place with orange blos-soms. She carried a bouquet of brides' roses. The maid of honor wore pale blue, and carried white sweet peas. The brides-maid was dressed in pink, and carried pink sweet peas.

Farland, Miss Hannah Johnson, Miss Lillian O'Shaughnessy, Mr. Charles Gade, Theodore Gade, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gade, Mrs. Russell and Lrs. O'Shaughnessy.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, and the groom the only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Daue, of Gade, Mrs. Russell and Lrs. O'Shaughnessy.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Daue, of Gade, Mrs. Russell and Lrs. O'Shaughnessy.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Left the same night amid a shower of rice for an extended trip through Califolic Paris and Mrs. fornia. Before starting the brids threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Ruth Minar.

ALL HATS TRIMMED PREE OF CHARGE

When Shapes and Trimmings Are Selected Here.

ALL HATS TRIMMED

FREE OF CHARGE When Shapes and Trimmings Are Selected Here.

Continues on With Increased Value-Giving

EXTRAORDINARY DRESS BARGAINS--SILK DRESSES

$10.75-Values to $20.00 $15.00-Values to $27.50

All the Season's Approved Models in All Shades

$19.50—Values to $35.00

LINGERIE DRESSES

Charming, cool and dainty Lingerie Dresses in every pleasing style. A special lot we have assembled for Monday's selling

$7.50—Dresses worth $12.50 $9.45—Dresses worth $15.00

Stirring Offer From Our Millinery Department

Any trimmed hat in the store, including pattern hats, tailored and trimmed hats, put on sale at half price and below. The entire stock of millinery must be disposed of in this remarkable sale.

1/3 Off On All Shapes

Including Edna May, Vendetta, Maxine, etc.

1/4 Off On All Trimmings

Fancy feathers, flowers, black and colored willow plumes.

Silverfield's Fur Storage Now is the time to think of Furs. The commonest cause of their injury is moths. Let us relieve you of this anxiety of caring properly for your furs. We insure them and place them in our cold storage vaults at very nominal charges. Before storing we give them a thorough examination and scientific cleaning. This alone is worth more than our storage charge.

Summer Prices Big Savings on Remodeling, Repairing The prudent person will have the remodeling and repairing of furs done during the Summer months, as labor is cheaper and attention given that cannot be had in the busiest season. It is also equally advantageous to order new fur garments now. than later on. Buy now and save money.

All Fall Styles Are Here—All Furs at Summer Prices A Small Deposit Will Hold Furs, and Stored Free of Charge wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Ida Becker, 514 Northrup street, bouque was of pink carnations. J. when her daughter, Miss Annie Mudd, Miller attended the bridegroom. The was married to H. C. Simmons, Elder

L. Richards performing the ceremony.
The room was decorated with roses, and suspended from a canopy was a large white bell. The bride was atlarge white bell. The bride was ater bouquet, which was caught by Miss trimmed in embroidery and lace. She tuth Minar.

Simmons-Mudd.

Simmons-Mudd.

On Saturday evening. June 25, a quiet Simmons acted as maid of honor, and the bridge and many street in a white children panama dress roses, with which she made a path for the bridge party.

After the ceremony, refreshments were served by Mrs. Schnetzer, Mrs.

Harris and Mrs. Westergard, followed free from odor.

wore a white embroidered dress. Her by a song from Miss Magnusson. George bouque was of pink carnations. J. Schnetzer acted as usher.

Howatson-Turlay.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Turlay, 625 Hawthorne avenue, June 29, their eldest daughter, Mayme, was married to J. William Howatson, at 8:30 by Rev. W. The bride's dress was a very hand-some one of white with elaborate lace

(Concluded on Page 4.)

Garden ose

Gas Plates

Garland Water Heaters

ONE OT THE PLEASURES OF LIFE IS LOST

To a woman if she fails to use a gas range during the hot days of Summer. Bad tempers are sweetened by using the > GARLAND GAS RANGE We guarantee them. All styles and sizes.

QUICKMEAL OIL STOVES Are perfect substitutes for the gas range, and can be installed by those not having gas in the house.

CHATHAM FIRELESS COOKER Bakes, roasts, fries, boils, steams and stews. It works while you rest and saves 75 per cent of your fuel bill. There is no danger of boiling dry, burning or over-cooking. Aluminum lined, consequently

BOHN SYPHON REFRIGERATORS

"The refrigerator that refrigerates" and preserves everything to perfection. Handsomest, strongest and best ice box ever put on the market.

Special Sale of WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC IRONS 5-lb. size $3.90, regular $5.00. 6-lb. size $4.00. regular $5.25. One iron is all that is required. No stove to bother with-no waste time. With it you can iron on the porch, as well as in the house. Fully warranted in every particular.

HONEYMAN HARDWARE CO.

Fourth and Alder Streets, Portland, Oregon

Lawn Sprinklers

Camp Stoves

Ice Cream Freezers