trimming. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. The bride's sister, Miss Annette Tully, and the groom's brother, T. J. Howatson, attended the couple. The bride's dress was of blue silk and she wore a train of white tulle. The bride's bouquet was of white carnations. The wedding was officiated by Rev. W. B. Hinson. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, 350 Union avenue, by Rev. W. B. Hinson.

Reynolds-Graydon.

A pretty home wedding occurred Thursday, July 7, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Graydon, 422 Benton street, when Miss Vernon Isabelle Graydon and Fred I. Reynolds, of Pacific Grove, Cal., were married. Only relatives and immediate friends of the family were present. Mrs. Kathleen Lawler-Belcher sang "All for You." The bride and groom were led to the altar by the ring-bearer, little Florence Graydon, and the bridesmaid, Miss Helen Wegman. Rev. Dr. George Padlock, of the Hassele Street Congregational Church, officiated. The bride wore a white net gown, over silk, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Hazel Hart. The honeymoon will be spent at Southern California beaches. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will return to Portland early in September.

Bulger-Silcock.

A wedding of interest last week was that of William Bulger and Miss Lucile Silcock. The ceremony was read at St. Lawrence parish house, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in the presence of but the immediate family. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Silcock, was given away by her father and attended by her sister, Miss Mae Silcock. She wore a smart tailored suit of blue gray cloth and turban to match. Miss Silcock was in white with a black hat. Mr. Bulger's best man was Frederick Silcock, Jr. After the wedding service the party went to the Silcock's home on Sixth street for a wedding breakfast. That morning they left for a tour of Yellowstone Park and before coming home about August 1, will visit in Salt Lake.

Reynolds-Graydon.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. R. Graydon, 422 Benton street, Miss Vernon Graydon was married to Fred I. Reynolds Thursday night. The pretty home wedding had a formal appearance for the occasion, and the guests included many friends of the young couple, for each is well known in Portland. Mrs. Graydon was a bridesmaid in the city schools, and Mr. Reynolds is in the real estate department of Hartman & Thompson.

The wedding trip will include a stay of two months in the mountains of California, as Mr. Reynolds' parents reside in that state. After the honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will make Portland their home.

Brookman-Marshall.

One of June's weddings was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, of Middleton, when their daughter, Betty, became the bride of Charles Brookman. The ceremony was read by the Rev. W. B. Hinson. The home was decorated with marguerites and ferns. Many friends and relatives were present, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Brookman and son, Emil; Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Brookman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brookman and daughter, Mrs. Krebbs, of Hood River; Mr. Garrison and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and family. Miss Elizabeth Ode was bridesmaid, and Henry Marshall best man.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS IS GRADUATED AT CASTLE ROCK WITH EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD RECORDS.

CASTLE ROCK HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES, 1910.

CASTLE ROCK, July 8.—(Special.) The graduating class of the Castle Rock High School for 1910 is composed of exceedingly bright young people, and, in view of the excellent record they made in their studies and deportment, it is predicted that they will all make their mark in whatever field of endeavor they may see fit to cast their lot. Reading from left to right in the photograph they are: Standing—Stella Elsie Dean and Virginia Keatley, sitting—Fanny Treasie Huntington, David Lester Crane and Caroline Louise Birkenstock. A brighter and more popular class never claimed the Castle Rock High School for its alma mater. As this is the only accredited school in Clatsop County, the class has a decided advantage over other schools in the county, as the members are entitled to enter the higher state institutions of learning.

A. Johnson were married Thursday, July 7, at the White Temple, by Rev. W. B. Hinson.

Do You Shave Yourself?

If so, you no doubt have shaving troubles, as there isn't one man in fifty who knows how to stop his razor correctly; the most invariable result is a rounded edge instead of a keen, sharp edge so necessary to a clear satisfactory shave.

Brandt's Automatic Razor Stopper

Strops Every Kind of Razor Made

"Makes Every Man an Expert"—Does What No Human Hand Can Do

It automatically sharpens the ordinary old-style razor, any size or make, any style or make Safety Razor, including the "Gillette," and it sharpens them better than the most expert barber can do it. By using the Brandt Automatic Stopper you do not hold the razor while stropping; you cannot round your edge or cut your strop. The Brandt Automatic Stopper stropps your razor for you. It requires no skill or experience.

Owing to the great demand for these goods last week we have induced the representative who comes direct from the factory to stay at our store another week
