

PORTLAND ROWERS WIN THREE FIRTS

Only One Event in North Pacific Amateur Regatta Not Captured.

CONTESTS ARE EXCITING

Intermediate Singles, Junior Fours and Junior Doubles Easily Taken by Oregonians at Vancouver on First Day of Meeting.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 9.—(Special.)—Portland oarsmen this afternoon walked away with three firsts out of four in the first day's events of the North Pacific Amateur Association of Oarsmen regatta held on the Indian River, about 18 miles from here.

The only remaining event of the day, the junior singles, was won by Victoria. In this event, the first on the programme, W. N. Kennedy, of the Victoria Club, had a hard race over the mile and a half course with Fred H. Godfrey and J. Glass, of the Portland Club, but won the event with a scant lead in the time of 19:04.

Race Is Exciting. The junior fours furnished an exciting race for the first part of the mile and half straightaway course, with the Portland crew, J. J. Waite, stroke; W. D. Phillips, No. 2; Halwig, No. 3; A. Fawcett, bow, leading.

Portland led the race all the way in the junior doubles over the same course, the crew rowed, winning in the good time of 2:45 from Victoria, with the Vancouver crew a close third.

The Vancouver men were J. K. Simpson, stroke; A. Black, No. 2; R. B. Bennett, No. 3; A. MacEachern, bow.

Shaw, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. From Mayor W. J. Gaynor, of New York, Secretary Shaw received the following letter: "It is quite impossible for me to understand how it can enter any mind that we are in danger of race riots in the City of New York between blacks and white. I would also remind you that the government of laws and not men and that I have no right at my mere will to prohibit anything."

SCENE OF RIOTS FEARS FILMS

Springfield Council Takes Action Against Fight Pictures. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 9.—That Springfield, the scene of one of the worst race riots in recent years will put a ban on the appearance of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures was indicated by a resolution, signed by the members of the City Council, ordering Mayor Schopp to notify the proprietors that they should not exhibit the pictures before some action has been taken by the Council.

FIGHT FANS WELCOMED

Portland Party Surprised at Greeting Received. While German Band Plays "Home, Sweet Home," Wives and Friends Yank Them Into Parade.

Does it pay to travel all the way to some far-off state to see a fight for the championship of the world and win $6000? Does it pay to try to save a few hours' travel and take a short cut to home and safety? These are the questions being asked by R. F. (Bob) Cox, James McCrea, J. M. Cox, C. E. Ireland, John Cordano and C. E. Wadley, all Portland business men and capitalists, and Charles Baker, Julius McFadden and T. J. Barkely, Corvallis business men.

These men all were spectators of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in Reno, Nev., on the fourth of July. The Oregon men pooled together and bet on the chances of Johnson, and won in the neighborhood of $6000.

Feeling flush and happy over their coup did not want to be confined to the limited accommodations of a train, they concluded to make the trip home by boat. At Astoria last night they were very homesick after an absence of several weeks and telegraphed their wives to meet them at the depot about 10 o'clock.

Now, the wives of the men, to celebrate their home-coming, assembled a crowd of their home-coming associates and friends, and along with "Der liddle Cherman band" went to the depot to meet their spouses. So happy were they to see the poorer halves, they formed a parade, and to the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" they marched through the main streets of Portland to their homes.

The home-comers, suspicious of a kidnaping stunt, showed fight, but when J. E. Johnson, aided by a number of his sturdy henchmen, decided to take them by force they acquiesced and were demurely led through the vast throng gathered to greet them. The strains of "Home, Sweet Home" soothing their rumpled dignity and in two short words they unanimously said: "I'll buy."

The committee on arrangements appointed the spouses of the victors to greet the newcomers consisted of L. E. Bidwell, J. E. Johnson, St. R. Johnson, F. B. McKinley, Fred Peck, M. B. Shea, Bud Brown, Len Barry and M. Frost, all well-known timbermen of Portland.

SIX ARE ENTERED

Great Aviators to Meet in New York-Chicago Race.

HAMILTON HAS NEW CAR

Curtiss and Former Helper Sever Relations—Latter Builds Biplane of Aluminum, With Powerful Engines.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The New York Times announces that it has received six formal entries for the Chicago-New York aeroplane race under the auspices of the Times and the Chicago Evening Post, to start from Chicago on October 8 next and to be completed within seven days. The entrants are Glenn H. Curtiss, Charles K. Hamilton, B. C. Marx, Captain Thomas Baldwin, J. D. McCurdy, the Canadian aviator, and O. P. Hellige, a machinist of Newark, N. J.

Hubert Latham, the French aviator, has cabled that he cannot enter now, but may do so later.

Hamilton, who made the New York-Philadelphia round-trip flight for the New York Times three weeks ago, using a Curtiss biplane, has severed his relations with Curtiss and is having constructed for use in the Chicago-New York race a biplane in which the supporting surfaces will be of aluminum instead of rubber-silk fabric. Aluminum is to be used because rubber and silk will not stand the strain of pounding by the high-powered engine which he proposes to use. The Curtiss is the most powerful ever used in an aeroplane.

CURTISS FLIES OVER WALK

Tex Brookins Also Succeeds in Getting Aloft in Machine.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 9.—Glenn H. Curtiss made a 10-minute exhibition flight here before noon Friday, covering eight miles along the boardwalk. He left the ground at 10:20 o'clock near one of the ocean piers in the central section of the city, swung up to the inlet over the five-mile course and then, after a beautiful turn, shaped his course down the boardwalk to Ventnor. Returning, he made a perfect landing at the starting point.

Signals that Curtiss would go aloft were sent out at 9 o'clock and a great crowd was on the beach and boardwalk to see the flight.

Aviator Brookins, in a Wright biplane, failed in his first attempt to leave the ground a half hour after Curtiss made his flight.

At noon Tex Brookins made another attempt to go aloft, and this time succeeded. He was followed by a number of admirers later by Curtiss in his swift machine and gave an exhibition of flying over the ocean, boardwalk and beach.

Brookins allowed his machine to rise on its end making short circles in little over 100 feet between the two big ocean piers. Curtiss first swung out to sea and then drove in unlit was only a few yards from the beach, where he darted and swung in sharp rises and drops.

Brookins was in the air about five minutes. Both aviators declared the air currents were perfect for flying and announced their intention of making trials for the altitude record later. It is also expected that they will make at least a portion of the circuit of the 50-mile speed racecourse laid out.

GERMAN EYES ON EGYPT

Financiers Seek Advantage in Khedive's Financial Straits.

BERLIN, July 9.—Through the Roosevelt speech on Egypt started and amused the Germans, financiers here, represented by the Deutsch Orient Bank, are not alarmed at Germany's future of the land of the Pharaohs to desert from schemes to get a financial hold on the Khedive's government.

For long enough Germany has been awaiting such an opportunity. Now that Egypt is in hard financial straits, the German group, with the approval of the other financiers, are bent on making of the most of the chance, even if there is risk attached to it.

Already Germany has made wonderful progress in Egyptian trade and the German flag is seen on a large number of the trading ships on the Nile. The Deutsch Orient Bank is a comparatively recent institution, but it has a considerable business in Egypt and special facilities for handling a new loan.

Egypt needs $20,000,000, and needs it badly. As a guarantee it is ready to offer the state domains. These lands, mainly owned by the Khedive's family, are already mortgaged, but they would stand the strain of even this additional loan, if necessary.

An English syndicate is also feeling for the loan, and the competition between the two groups, in the delicate matter of the Egyptian loan, is one of the most interesting spectacles to be seen on this side of the Atlantic.

DERNBURG IS COMING HERE

After Oriental Tour, Noted German to Visit America.

LONDON, July 9.—(Special.)—Events having justified my previous dispatches as to the persistent opposition of the center party to the colonial administration of Herr Dernburg, it is interesting to see what this fine organizer intends to do.

Reports have been circulated abroad that he will become director-general of the Hamburg-American Line or the Norddeutscher-Lloyd, but as a matter of fact he proposes to give himself a year's travel, especially in the Far East, where he realizes the time is crucial for commercial development.

So while Prince Buelow rests in Italy, far from German party strife, here is another outstanding public man seeking repose abroad. Probably he will make his way either outward or homeward, through the United States.

The fact that he used to be an active Radical, as became one of his Hebrew extraction was the main cause of the antagonism of the Catholic Center to him. In a sense, his colonial policy was too good for the nation, and he projected the natives and insured a fair share of the profits from the diamond fields going to the state. So get-rich-quick financiers and speculators are to exploit the natives had no use for him. His successor has a hard row to hoe.

Gypsy Court Ball Musician.

VIENNA, July 9.—(Special.)—Emperor Franz Josef has created a new post, the "court ball musician," and has appointed to it Bela Berkes, leader of a Hungarian Gypsy orchestra. Berkes is a well known Gypsy performer, and has played before the German Emperor and the late King Edward on several occasions. In fact, the Kaiser had often shooting parties.

MISS ZEBU FIGHTS KEEPER

Swapped for 500 Pounds of Wool, Animal Balks; Blindfolded.

Brooklyn, to which place she was removed after a struggle which cost Mr. Snyder, head keeper, and half a dozen of his assistants large sections of their wearing apparel. She was given in exchange for 500 pounds of wool which was to have been disposed of at the market price but which was used by the badly damaged keepers in upholstering their brushes.

A surplus of players on the zebu team in Central Park foreshadowed the departure of one of the band, and Julia has been waiting for her release. She didn't mind going back to a minor league, but when Mr. Snyder tried to tell her that there were some nice people in Brooklyn, but Julia didn't enthuse. She said she was sorry for them, but they couldn't blame her for their predicament.

Mr. Snyder lost all patience with her and directed the keepers to toss her into the crate. Packing an egg in a collar box he easily covered the zebu with a healthy zebu, and for the next 15 minutes Julia was polishing her horns on half a dozen pairs of trousers. Spectators were making bets as to which keeper would go the highest, when Mr. Snyder decided to employ strategy. Waiting for a favorable opportunity he threw a bag over Julia's head. In this way she was backed across the bridge so as to give her the impressions she was coming back to this city. They kept the bag on her last night, and to fool her into the belief that she was still in New York some of the keepers sat up as late as 9 o'clock tooting automobile horns in front of her apartment.

TAFT CALLS ON MOODY

SUBJECT OF SICK JURIST'S RETIREMENT NOT BROACHED.

New York Central President and Editor of Trainmen's Journal on Liability Commission.

BEVERLY, Mass., July 9.—President Taft visited Justice Moody, of the Supreme Court, at Magnolia yesterday afternoon and spent an hour at the bedside of the jurist. Although the call revived gossip as to Supreme Court vacancies, it is authoritatively stated that neither the President nor Justice Moody broached the subject of the latter's intention as to retirement. The visit was purely personal. Now that Justice Moody can see his friends, Mr. Taft will make frequent visits to the Moody cottage.

Mr. Taft yesterday asked W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central Railroad, and Daniel L. Cense, editor of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen's Journal, to serve as members of the commission authorized by Congress to investigate the subject of employers' liability. Senators Warner, of Missouri, and Hughes, of Colorado, and Representatives Denby, of Michigan, members of the commission.

President Taft has been asked to present the royal Newnham cup to the winner of the international yacht race, to be held the week of July 28, under the auspices of the Manchester Yacht Club. If Mr. Taft returns from his 10 days' cruise up the North Coast in time, undoubtedly he will accept.

The authorities of the Unitarian Church here have decided to require tickets from all who attend services when the President is present. This action is to prevent an influx of the curious.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The visit of Miss Katherine Elkins to Rome is regarded by her friends here as very significant.

She went abroad with her mother last month, ostensibly "for baths." Now it appears that the Duke of Abruzzi is visiting her frequently. Close friends of Miss Elkins here know of her expected meeting with the Duke during this trip.

They also know of the planned trip which they would take shortly on a yacht which has been reported a recent purchase of Miss Elkins, but which is now reported to be one of the royal yachts, placed at the disposal of Mrs. Elkins and her daughter for a cruise in Mediterranean waters.

It will be no surprise to anyone if this should even turn out to be their wedding trip.
