

Herman Eberhardt used his nifty launch, Neptune, as a stake boat on the turn five miles up the river from Van-couver. Mr. Eberhardt says it was a grand sight to see the racing craft take the turns while under speed of 30 miles an hour. the mixed doubles. Among them will be such as Miss Pitts, Miss Fox, Mrs. Northrup, Miss Fording, Miss Schne-fer, Andrews, Blair, Humphrey, Gilbert. Wickersham, Emerson and Wakeman

W. Wilbur to Referee. begin tomorrow morning at The schedule for the day Ralph W. Wilbur to Referee. PL:y will begin tomorrow morning at other 3:1914.

Race Even for a Mile. Then it was that the two animals had their great neck and neck struggle around the course, only to end in a dead heat. In this try Howitt drey a dead heat. In this try Howitt drew the pole, but before the quarter mile mark had been reached his opponent had wrested the coveted post from him. Thus the horses raced down the back stretch and to the three-quarter mark with Red Skin a little ahead. Then probably the closest race down the home stretch in all the history of the local track began. It ended with both animals as even as could possi-bly he and another heat was ordered by the judge. by the judge. Not sufficient time for the horses Not sufficient time for the horses to coal off was allowed them between the third and last heats, and as a con-sequence the horses tired more rap-idly than would otherwise have been the case. The two contestants had a good start after scoring but once and were away down the track in a flurry of dust. The race waxed even for the first quarter of a mile. Down the back stretch the animals raced with Dottle Dimple half a length ahead. So they stayed until the final stretch, when the Howitt horse pulled up and despite the game efforts of Red Skin order of things in the second, and proved the faster. The time was an-

The winning pony was ridden by Hugh Balman, a 15-year-old embryo Tod Sloan. Ed Walsh on Babe I was second, while Emimett Garrison on Babe II was third. The last horse held the lead until within a few yards of the wire. All were given prizes.

O'CONNELL DOWNS AL SINGH

Portland Man Wins From Hindu

Attractive added features to each day's and will serve to make this year's show greater than any before held in the Eddie O'Connell, wrestling instructor of the Multhomah Amateur Athletic Club and premier welterweight wrest-ier of the world, added one more vic-tory to his list since coming to Port-land by journeying to Astoria on Fri-day and taking the mesure of Al Singh hest attricts have begun as second and third rate men. It is "Nell's brother, a freshman, who holds the Pacific Coast record of 148 feet, 8 inches in the javelin throw-the best throw made in the United States this year.

HOQUIAM, Wash., July 16 .-- (Spe-

It is possible for San Francisco to jump into the lead tomorrow if they take both games from the Senators. All local fans are rooting hard for Oakland to be suc-cessful against Portland, for a victory for the Oaks means a great boost for the Scals in their fight for the pennant.

Horsethief Only 15 Years Old.

will be given tomorrow morning with the drawings, which will be ready for publication at that time. Ralph W. Wilbur will act as referee and the tournament will be managed by a com-mittee consisting of Alma D. Katz, chairman; Ralph W. Wilbur, P. H. V. Andrews, S. S. Humphrey, James F. Ewing. given tomorrow morning with Ewing.

o'clock.

10

The entries up to 6 o'clock last night

<text><text><text><text>

SMITHS WIN CRICKET MATCH

Fifty-one Not Out Is Top Score of Day Made by Captain.

The cricket match on the Portland Club grounds yesterday was between teams captained by W. G. Smith and P. L. Neame, the former winning by 62 runs. The latter won the toss and elected to bat. E. Fenwick with 34 and J. C. Cummings, with a well played 24 not out, were the only baismen to make much of a stand, the innings clos-ing for 113.

Ing for 113.

Smith, by steady play, materially as-sisted in raising the score to 175 runs his al not out being very valuable to his side, as well as being top score for the day. Following are the scores and bowling analysis. bowling analysis:

P. L. NEAME'S TEAM.

G	Gray, run out	1.00
35.	T. Fenwick, c. Clincksti h. Greaves	24	Ľ
P 21	C. Browne C. Penwick h Smith	1.1	13
4.00	MOONS C. Shipley b. Smith	7.4	E.
5.	C. Cumming, not out	10.21
21.1	towhinshaw b. Coppinger.	100	10
G.	Snickler c. and b. Coppinger.	22.	10
P.	L. Neams b. Coppinger	22	Đ
F.	Fenwick stumped b. Coppinger.	1.4

Club at the Vancouver races M. A. A. C. Gossip

Temporary quarters of the superin-indent, Dow Walker, and the club of-ce, are established in the basement of the Lincoln High School building.

The new club will be bigger, finer and better than ever. It is impossible to down the winged "M" spirit.

Now, in this hour of crying need, is the time for each club member to work for the upbuilding of a finer institu-tion in every way. This can be done, and will be done, by the dint of hard work and the united efforts of the en-tire membership in co-operation with the board of trustees.

Wilkle Duniway is the proud father of a bouncing baby boy which the stork brought last Tuesday night. The youngster will probably be taught to play billiards.

Eddle O'Connell, Arthur Cavill, "Smi-ley" Trainor, Dow Walker, Ed Jeffrey and other members saved the bulk of the furniture on the ground floor of the club. Everything but the safe and the billiard table were taken to safety by the volunieers.

Cavill, single-handed, saved bouses across the street from the club by surmounting the roof of one of them and keeping them wet with the ald of a garden hose. Cavill had his shirt burned from his back but didn't mind that that. · · · ·

On Wednesday night, incidentally the 13th of the month, 13 new senior mem-bers were admited into the ranks of the club. One of the directors remarked that 13 on the 13th was surely bad luck. His prophecy proved true.

Even in the hour of need the indom-itable pride of the club was shown at the monster meeting on Friday night. Rather than break the old-time tradition of net withink night. Rather than break the old-time tradition of not soliciting public aid. by unanimous vote a bond issue of $250,000 was decided upon. With this sum on hand the present indebtedness can be paid off, the work already started on the field can be completed. a new building can be constructed and an emergency fund of $50,000 can be carried en hand.

Many of the members will take blocks of bonds, at 5 per cent. One en-thusiastic member predged himself as willing to take $50,000 worth of them.

The Portland Young Men's Christian Association offered the use of the gym-nasium, swimming pool and shower baths to all those holding Multnomah Club cards. Three long, rousing cheers were given for that institution when the offer was received.

Insurance to the amount of $43,000 was carried on the building and grand-stand. The value of the club was esti-mated at $75,000 land by journeying to Astoria on Fri-day and taking the mesure of Al Singh, the Hindoo who had been beating ev-erybody in that neck of the woods. O'Connell agreed to throw the East Indian three times in 15 minutes of actual wrestling. For the first faw minutes the swarthy-skinned wrestler seemed to have the edge on the Mult-nomah instructor, but by using all of his wrestling ingenuity in gaining the first fall from the Hindoo O'Conpell so bewildered his opponent that in the next two falls he was easily downed. The first fall was won by O'Connell in 10 minutes with a combined scissor and arm lock. The second fall was the result of but a little more than two Maid, the sensation of last year's North-western circuit meets, will appear. Col-lege Maid is credited with a pacing mark of 2:06 without driver or sulky. She is a beautiful animal and is the center of attraction when taken on the track. All week a country fair will be held. Fifty clowns and side shows galore will furnish attractions. An Indian village will also be a feature, for genuine Indi-ans will be on hand with war dances. races and naive games. Eastern Oregon cowboys will also be there with bronchocowhoys will also be there with broncho-busting exhibitions, and other prairie and Wild West sports.

More than 100 concessions will be opened on the "Midway," and among these will be some of the best vaudeville attractions in the country. Three nights there will be fireworks.

there will be fireworks. Professor Darling's educated goat cir-cus will give a performance each after-noon in front of the grand stand, and other vaudeville attractions will be pro-

SOLDIER BASEBALL PLAYERS DEMONSTRATE SUPERIORITY OVER OTHER NINES IN LEAGUE AT FORT STEVENS.

NINETY-THIRD COMPANY'S TEAM.

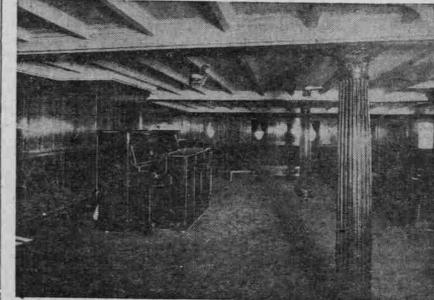

FORT STEVENS, Or., July 16.—(Special.)—In a four-company league organized at Fort Stevens, the Ninety-third Company clearly demonstrated its superiority by winning the majority of the scheduled games. A number of the players will be selected to represent Fort Stevens at the military tournament at Tacoma.

Vancouver to See Game Today.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 16.-(Spe-cial.)-The Catholic Young Men's Asso-ciation baseball team of Portland will play the Camas Blues at Camas tomorow after who was arrested yesterday for ing three horses which he sold for $300 for the purpose of securing enough money to enable him to leave home, was taken to the county seat today. The lad will be sent to the State Re-formatory at Monroe.

SALON OF THE S. S. BEAVER.

When the new steamship Beaver pulled out of Ainsworth Docks, on its third trip to San Francisco, today, the passengers were assured of the great-est musical treat possible, for most of the world's greatest musicians, incluest musical treat possible, for most of the world's greatest musicians, inclu-ding Paderewski, Leschetitisky, Pugn-Gustav Mahler, Busoni and Reisenhaur, were aboard in spirit if not in fact to perform for them during the entire trip. Desiring to afford the passengers of the Beaver whe best musical entertain-ment, Captain Kidston decided that no musicians were too good for his pas-

