bride, roses. The maid of honor wore pale pink and carried sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore pale green and carried pink sweet peas. The house was prettily decorated in roses and carnations and the bride party stood under a floral bell filled with rose petals, which immediately after the ceremony were showered over the bride and groom. The bride and groom left for the house presided at the punch bowl. Miss Auld, Miss Taylor, Miss Amy Baker and Miss Grace Lovell assisted in serving. The bride and groom left for the house for a few days, after which they will return to Portland and then leave for their future home in Vancouver, B. C.

Croucher-Friend.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Friend, Olalla, Or., was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday, June 20, when their eldest daughter, Wanda Gertrude, was married to Henry McAllister Croucher, formerly of Gresham, Rev. William Hampton officiating. The ring service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was used. The wedding march was played by Miss Hester Croucher, and promptly at 12 o'clock the bride party entered the parlor and took the place beneath a bell showered from an arch of ferns and white roses. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried an arm bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Zilpha Croucher, sister of the groom. She was dressed in white and carried lavender sweet peas. The groom was attended by J. Logan Fisher. After the ceremony a dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Croucher will reside at Olalla.

Good-Zillinger.

A pretty wedding took place on Thursday night, July 7, at the new residence of the couple at 785 East Thirty-third street, when Miss Marie Zillinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zillinger, was married to Ernest Good. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Krause. The home was decorated for the occasion with sweet peas and ferns. The bride was gown in cream crepe de chine and carried an arm bouquet of white sweet peas and a parasol. She was attended by Miss Anna Lautenschlager, who wore a gown of pink crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Mr. F. Coates acted as best man. Miss Nellie Daly sang "Bouquet of Roses" and other songs. After congratulations had been extended the new couple, a supper was served in the dining room.

Hodson-Barber.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Barber to Frank Hodson was solemnized at the home of the bride on 532 Belmont street, by Rev. Frank James, last Tuesday evening, in the presence of many friends and relatives. At 8 o'clock Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. William Krassig, and the bride party was led to a beautifully decorated altar, over which hung a floral arch. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Helen Applegate. The bride was in a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Hodson were recipients of many beautiful presents. They left the same evening, mid a shower of rice, for an extended trip through Washington and British Columbia. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Florence Applegate.

McCormick-Bishop.

Miss Nellie Bishop, of West Point, became the bride of William Laird McCormick, of Tacoma, at noon Thursday. The ring service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was used. The wedding was composed of Shasta daisies and palms. The bride wore her traveling suit of blue cloth and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of white roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Catherine L. Johnson in the house filled with flowers. The wedding was particularly attractive with pink sweet peas and Egyptian file. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick will reside in Tacoma and make a trip to Victoria and Lakelse. Many out-of-town guests were present at the ceremony.

Randolph-Renstrom.

A pretty wedding was solemnized last week at the residence of Dr. Anna C. Renstrom, 231 Williams avenue, mother of the bride, when Ray H. Randolph and Miss Lillian V. Renstrom were married by Rev. S. Earl Du Bois. Miss Alice Renstrom, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by J. C. Demila. The house was decorated with evergreens and ferns intermingled with clusters of carnations. After a wedding dinner the bride and groom departed for the Puget Sound, whence they will sail for California for a short honeymoon. Many friends were present at the wedding. They will make Portland their home.
