SEASON AT BEACH RÉSORTS AT HEIGHT

SEASIDE, Or., July 30.-(Special.)close of July marks the prime of the Summer season at Seaside. All cottages are now open and life has taken on a decided social note. House parties are common and all who have beach homes are entertaining friends and relatives. The hotels are crowded and the Saturday night trains never fail to bring in several hundred week-end visitors. At present many preparations are being made for the Elas' convention, which will be held on August 6 and 7 at Holladay Station with the Seaside House as headquarters. Enthusiastic Elks are expecting 10,000 at this gathering and have arranged for a tent which will hold many the Summer season at Seaside. All cotarranged for a tent which will hold many thousand persons at a time. Besides meet-ings held in this tent and on the hotel grounds a clambake and a great bonfire are planned.

Among the young people of Seaside who have been entertaining guests this week is Miss Giadys Sigel. The Glenadys cottage has been thrown open to the Delta Theta Iota girls of St. Helen's Hall and they have all enjoyed a glorious vacation, swimming, canoeing and surf-bathing. The following young ladies made up the party: Hazel Morrow, Jua-nita Matlock, Clarice Biles and Helen Whitney.

nita Matlock, Clarice Biles and Helen Whitney,
A delightful card party was given by Miss Ethel Gordon at the Seaside home of her mother, Mrs. W. A. Gordon, last Friday afternoon. A beach atmosphere prevailed. The girls had been requested to wear "middy blouses" and all looked very pretty and comfortable. On each table were plates of dainty candy, fish and seashells. Sea food played an important part in the refreshments. Five hundred was the game and Miss Lucile Parker won first prize, a silver souvenir spoon. Miss Judith Scott was not so fortunate and was given as consolation spoon. Miss Judith Scott was not so fortunate and was given as consolation an autometic fish. Those present were: Misses Mildred Cullison, Norma Reed, Eva Long, Mary Long, Ethella Stearns, Elizabeth Parker, Lucile Parker, Marion Kirk, Viola Salzman, Dorothy Eichenlaub, Margaret DuBois, Sybil Clopton, Judith Scott, Editif Boswell, Mildred Whittlesey, and Mrs. Katherine Daly, who is spending a few days with Mrs. Gordon; Mrs. T. H. Edwards, and Mrs. Harry Cake. A Sunday evening supper was given at the home of Miss Judith Scott last week by Thomas Dobson, Howard Charlton, by Thomas Dobson, Howard Charlton, Jack Proebstel, George Prescott Wright and Stanley Smith for Miss Judith Scott, Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Margaret Du-Bols and Miss Ethella Stearns. The five Bols and Miss Ethella Stearns. The five boys pride themselves on their ability as chefs and Miss Scott gave them full lib-erty to prepare, in her kitchen, whatever they desired. The supper was very suc-cessful and every one had a delightful evening. Mrs. S. L. Woodward, of Port-land, chaperoned the party. GEARHART, Or., July 30 .- (Special.) -Balmy days have been ours at Gear-hart this week. Splendid surf bathing and excellent fishing, to say nothing of swimming and canceing on the rivers, have given everyone keen enjoyment. With the sunny days many persons congregate on the golf links and sport-loving young people may be seen energetically playing tennis on the courts at the rear of the hotel. Swimming parties in the natatorium are becoming a very popular form of entertainment and every day finds the tank filled.

The cottages at Gearhart are now almost all opened and society has taken a hold on the interests of the com-munity; house parties and afternoon
