GEARHART HAS COOL WEATHER

Swimming Parties at Natatorium Are Popular Pastime.

GEARHART, Or., Aug. 18.—(Special.)—Owing to the cool weather, the life at Gearhart has been rather quiet this week, though several swimming parties have visited the natatorium, of which this beach may be justly proud. The following young persons from Portland had luncheon at the hotel and a swim in the tank last Wednesday: Misses Mildred and Grace Honeyman, Ella Millis, Helen Ladd, Mary Brownley, Winifred London and Helen Goode.

Beside the swimming tank, the driftwood on the beach invites the younger seaside visitors to enjoy the warmth of a roaring, crackling bonfire, and Miss Mildred Morgan was the successful hostess at such an occasion last Thursday evening. Her guests follow: Misses Lucille Dunne, Josephine Cronan, Mary Cronan, Margaret Webber and Inez Stockton; Bruce McLain, Frank Kenworthy, Sidney Eberle, Will Eastman and Bert Latz.

Dr. Ernest Tucker is among the August cottagers at Gearhart. Dr. Tucker is occupying the Livingston cottage.

Mrs. A. E. Smith is now domiciled in the Cartwright cottage and will remain through the month.

The Eliot cottage is occupied by A. B. Simmons and family.

Among the many persons camping in and about Gearhart are: Mrs. G. O. Miller, M. J. Owens and C. A. Lindell. They all have attractive camps in the grove just over the ridge, and are prepared to enjoy life in a truly rustic fashion.

Mrs. William Cake and family have the Miller cottage for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. John Kiernan is entertaining Mrs. J. H. Murphy at her Gearhart home for a few weeks.

Mrs. J. S. Hutchinson and family are domiciled in "Triwold" for August.

Victor Hibbard is a guest at the Dresser cottage for a few days this week.

Jordan Zan is visiting the W. J. Burns family at Gearhart.

Mrs. W. D. Van Schuyver and family are spending the rest of the Summer at this beach.

Julius Meier recently entertained the Hon. Louis Black at Hotel Gearhart-by-the-Sea.

J. Wesley Ladd spent the week-end with his family at Gearhart Park.

Cecil Miller has been a guest of Mrs. William Cake this week.

Mrs. Emil Schacht and Rose Schacht often spend the week-end at the hotel.

Those registered at Hotel Gearhart-by-the-Sea, are: Portland—H. A. Thompson, W. A. Corgeshell, D. C. Riebes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rothchild, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Rees, E. C. Sammons, C. H. Morehiur, Ed. COMPROMISE IS FAILURE

Sensations Are Expected in Woman's Suit Against Caruso.

MILAN, Italy, Aug. 20.—All efforts have failed to arrange privately the difficulties between Enrico Caruso and Mme. Giachetti, who was known for some years as Mme. Caruso.

Mme. Giachetti finally has entered suit against the tenor and another suit against Sig. Cariotta Carignani, who keeps a boarding house for operatic artists here—The Pension Excelsior—and who is an intimate friend of Caruso.

Mme. Giachetti accuses Signora Carignani of tampering with and withholding her private correspondence. Mme. Giachetti, who is a soprano, charges that she lost a contract at $3,000 a month with Oscar Hammerstein of the Manhattan Opera House, New York, which was mailed to her in care of Signora Carignani. She avers that her agent and representative, Gaetano Loria, secured the contract and mailed it to her.

The date for hearing the suit has not been fixed. Extraordinary revelations are anticipated should the suit come to trial. The general opinion is that Caruso would have done wisely if he had settled the matter out of court. It is said that the tenor has reduced to almost nothing the allowance of $1000 a month ing care of the youngest child by her union with Caruso. He is providing for he made to Mme. Giachetti. She is takthe two other children.

Sneak-Thieves Loot Seaside Store.

SEASIDE, Or., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Sneak thieves last night broke into the confectionery store of L. J. Wright, at the entrance to Pacific Pier, and looted the place thoroughly. Mr. Wright was unable to determine his loss, as everything is in such a deplorable condition.

THE VERY BEST PIANO OFFER OF THE YEAR

Tomorrow morning we will offer, until sold, nearly 50 pianos and player-pianos at prices far below their market value.

1st. All 65-note player pianos.
2d. All slightly used 88-note player pianos.
3d. All new sample pianos.
4th. All slightly used pianos.
5th. All second-hand pianos taken in exchange on A. B. Chase, Cecilian and Inner players.

This is your opportunity to save a substantial sum upon reliable instruments. Every instrument will be sold under a binding guarantee that it must be satisfactory. We give below, for your convenience, a partial list, with prices. No matter what make you have always wanted or how little you wish to invest, it will pay you well to secure one of these, for they are priced so low that we will take them back again toward a new piano any time within two years, and give you credit for every dollar paid.

UPRIGHT PIANOS

Cable & Sons . . . $148 — Walnut case—fair tone and action.
Willard . . . . . $155 — Large size—powerful tone. Splendid value.
Ivers & Pond . . . $175 — Rosewood case—thoroughly repaired; good tone and action.
Harrington . . . . $180 — First-class condition; used very little.
Wing & Son . . . . $128 — Mahogany case.
Singer . . . . . $210 — Mahogany case.
Schmidt . . . . . $122 — Ebony case. Has been thoroughly overhauled.
Kimball . . . . . $170 — Interior partly reconstructed; should give several years of service.
Tennyson . . . . . $175 — Handsome mahogany case; full metal plate; ivory keys.
Schaeffer . . . . . $190 — Hungarian ash case; beautiful finish.
Wesley & Sons . . $195 — Oak case.
Richmond . . . . . $220 — Walnut case.

PLAYER PIANOS

Emerson Angelus . $485 — Fine walnut case; received in exchange; a fine bargain.
Estey Player . . . $595 — Beautiful mahogany case; perfect in every way.
Kurtzman Player . $635 — Sample—88 note.
Gabler Cecilian . . $650 — 65 note; new; a fine old standard make in a beautiful satin finish mahogany case.
A. B. Chase Player . $725 — Satin finish mahogany; a standard 65-note player for a little more than the same piano without a player.

Your choice of all Grand square second-hand pianos in the store for $50

There are many very fine pianos included in this stock — Packard, Ludwig, Estey, Emerson, Kingsbury, Everett, Hardman, Wellington, etc.; some higher in price, to be sure, but very exceptional quality for our price tomorrow. It costs no more to buy one of these good pianos now than is often asked for worthless pianos, pianos upon which the maker in many cases is ashamed to place his name.
