YOUNG LAWYER ARRESTED

Bundle of Bloody Clothing May Lead to Murder Charge.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Robert A. King, 28 years old, a graduate of the Northwestern University has achool, and until recently employed in the law office of Edward E. Litzinger, is detained at the Englewood police station suspected of having knowledge of the killing of Dr. William F. Michaelis, a dentist, who was shot on the night of August 5. The arrest of King was due to the fact that after the mirder he left a package containing bloodstained clothing at the drugatore of E. E. Schleisser. Since that fime a detective has been on guard at the drugstore and late Thursday when King entered and called for the return of the bundle he was arrested. King denied all connection with the case.
