New Autumn Silks Are Here

Charming Fabrics
Exquisite Shadings

Again Paris, and that means the World, turns to India, Persia and the Orient for new Fall fashions. It means again the reign of the iridescent, cashmere and mosqu: colorings.

In direct contrast to these fascinating Oriental color schemes, fashion has also accepted with enthusiasm the plaids of Bonnie Scotland. We are showing a profusion of these delightful new Fall silks, $1.00 to $2.00 a yard.

New Wool, Fall Dress Fabrics

It's a real "Merry Go Round" of fabrics that bid for your approval the coming season. Like Cheviots? Vienna leather goods are world famous. For once the Frenchman outwitted his Austrian competitor. He foresaw the coming popularity of Paisley silks and Paisley colors. He used his wits and produced these beautiful Paisley bags. They are all the rage in Paris and New York. We also show Mandalay India shawl bags, Japanese brocades and hand crocheted gold bags.

The Hobby Hood—the Sceptle Turban—the Laroix silk beaver hats are now joining the other newcomers from over the seas. We invite you to inspect these early arrivals and take a peep at fashion's new conceits in millinery for Autumn

For the clever woman who has the knack of designing, we have a world of novelties to delight and fascinate her.

There is a charm of novelty and chic to the new untrimmed hats that are now being shown, never before equaled in unique styles.

Then again, we attract the home milliner with a wonderful assortment of novelty feathers, fancy bird effects and Zebra striped Ostrich feather effects, velvets, ribbons and ornaments.

Keen Wits Produced These Bags

The Viennese are recognized as the shrewdest leatherworkers. Vienna leather goods are world famous. For once the Frenchman outwitted his Austrian competitor. He foresaw the coming popularity of Paisley silks and Paisley colors.

He used his wits and produced these beautiful Paisley bags. They are all the rage in Paris and New York. We also show Mandalay India shawl bags, Japanese brocades and hand crocheted gold bags.

First Glimpse of the New Veils

Delicate hand-run tracteries of leaves, winged insects, flowers, spider webs and feathery ferns beautifully some, while the airy lightness of others suggest crystals. Hexagon mesh with round and square woven dots, chenille, Russian, magpie and new aeroplane veilings show how broad the choosing is.

Every day new examples of French ingenuity in veilings are being shown.

You are always pretty certain to find the newest in veilings here first.
