It is not for the to ex-plain. It is for them." The Colonel alightly medified his definition of "new Nationalsm" today. He called it "the efficient application to new conditions of certain col-time and fundamental meralities." The and fundamental moralities." The word "efficient" he inserted today. He then proceeded with a defense of his stitude, an exposition of "new Na-tionalism" and repetition of his declara-tion of war on crooks and bosses.""

"New Nationalism" Not New.

"The new nationalism," said Colo-nel Theodere Rosswelt in Lise speech, "means nothing but an application to new conditions of certain old and fundaw conditions of certain old and through entail moralities. Lincoln Quoted Again.

"Now, gentlemen, I have made on change in the above quotation. The last words were not "Theodote Roosevelt." The last words were 'Abraham Lincola," and this attack made nearly 53 years ago against Abe. Lincola, is predisely and against Abe Lincoln, is precisely and exactly the kind of attack mode at this moment upon me. Abe Lincoln feit and professed throughout his life, the same professed throughout his life, the same professed respect for the Supremé Court that, of course, I feet, and that I have again and again in public speeches and messages, as President of the United States, expressed. To his critics, he put this issue: "Is ar party willing to take the other side f the propositions of which complaint is and? If so, it would be a good thing a have the fame before the people, to the end the people would most cer-inly decide in favor of the principles embodied in the new nationalism, bemuse otherwise this country could not continus to be a true republic, a true

The speaker followed this with a jus-tification of his attacks on the Suprome Court of the United States. He chose two arguments—one, that in his criticizes he had merely school the minority opin-lons of the court itself, the other that he had illustroous precedent-the example of Abraham Lincoln, who, he said, had been far more outspeken than he himself had ever been, and the example of President Taft, from where utterance is years ago in favor of public criticismu of the courts he quoted.

Dissenting Opinion Quoted.

"Take for instance." he continued; "Take for instance." he continued, "what I said in perference to late decis-ions of the Supreme Court. One decision, was in the Knight angar case, is which, according to the diagenting optime of Justice Hariaa, the court placed the publ-lle, so far as National power is concerned (the only power which could be effective), entirely at the mercy of the combina-tions which arbitrarily control the places of articles purchased to be transported from one shate into another state. from one state into unother state.
