NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(Special).—Mexico is celebrating this month the centennial of the foundation of the republic. Members of the Cabinet of President Diaz are taking an active part in the ceremonies, which include the dedication of public buildings and the opening of new works of many kinds. The cornerstone of a new legislative palace will be laid, a Pedagogical Congress will be held. There will be banquets and other festivities, at all of which President Diaz will be a conspicuous figure. The members of the Diaz Cabinet are: Ramon Corral, Secretary of the Interior (who is also Vice-President); Sierra, the Secretary of Education, who is intensely unpopular; Senor E. C. Creel, Secretary of Foreign Relations; Senor Leandro Fernandez, Secretary of Communications and Public Works; Senor Molina, Secretary of Encouragement; Senor Limantour, Secretary of Finance; Senor Fernandez, Secretary of Justice, and General Manuel Cosio, Secretary of War and Marine. There is a big representation of Americans in the City of Mexico in attendance on these festivities. The chief among them are Curtis Guild, Jr., and his associates on the American Commission appointed by President Taft.

FRENCHMAN LOSES CASH

Exhibition of Bankroll to Strange Women Leads to Downfall.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—(Special).—This is the season when curious country cousins come to Paris, and do strange things. A gentleman just arrived from Lille seems to be of a guileless nature. Having to pay a bill here of $10,000 for agricultural machinery bought by him, he never thought of merely bringing his check book, but brought 50 1000 franc banknotes in his pocketbook, and having reached Paris, went instantly to dine at Montmartre.

LOCKJAW COMES QUICKLY

English Boy Dies Six Days After Injury to Foot With Tack.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—(Special).—A remarkable case of lockjaw was investigated at Southwark this week when an inquest was held on Arthur Pitman, aged 4 years, son of a salesman, living at Deptford.

WOUND IS MYSTERIOUS

French Editor Does Not Find He Is Wounded in Duel for Hours.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—(Special).—Having fought his duel and saved his honor by firing a shot in the air, the editor of a provincial newspaper went back to his desk, and the incident had quite left his mind when he felt something strange at his thigh.

to's thigh, some two inches deep, and required extraction.

Why was this not taken notice of on the spot where the duel took place? he asked. The editor was as much in the dark as the doctor. At the moment of the duel he had fired into the air, and his adversary also took a disreputable sort of aim. There had evidently been no intention of doing the slightest harm on either side.

The editor felt nothing as he left the field, and had shaken hands with his antagonist, as a sign of reconciliation. How a bullet came to be lodged in his thigh was simply one of the mysteries of dueling.

On Monday of the previous week the child was playing in the garden, when he became excited on seeing a worm. His elder brother went to dig the ground where the worm was, and ran the prong of a fork into the boy's foot.
