Portland kept up the shutout record commenced against Sacramento the previous week, for yesterday the Beavers blanked the Angels for the fifth consecutive time, and scored three runs off "Handsome" Bill Tozer while the latter's teammates were hanging up a collection of horse collars against the twirling of "Big Six" Bill Steen.

AS JUDGE GRAHAM SEES IT.

Yesterday's game completes 35 consecutive innings since an opposing team has scored against the Portland team; a most remarkably record, and today Vean Gregg. Portland's great south-Vean Gregg. Portland's great south-paw, will pitch both games against Los Angeles, and the fans ar' hoping he will bring Portland's record to 100 in-nings. Gregg, being a left hander, has an advantage over the Angels, which club is generally weak against south-paw pitchers. This afternoon's games will wind up the season in Portland, and an immense orowd is expected.

Steen Given Grand Support.

Steen, who was in great form, pitched steady ball throughout, and also had the benefit of splendid support by his teammates. Casey, Olson, Ryan, Ort and Rapps contributed to the thrills accorded the fans, for each of these play-corded the fans, for each of these players pulled off a grandstand stunt or two in the matines.

Ryan was especially prominent with two robbery catches in center field which undoubtedly saved Steen from having more than one hit registered off his delivery, while Bill Happs pulled a fielding stunt back of first base which made the fans elt up and take notice. With every player going like a race-horse, it is no wonder that the Portland team has made this remarkable record. Bill Toyer was pitching grand base-ball until the sixth inning when the Beavers bunched three hits in a row. Beavers bunched three hits in a row, and Howard contributed a wild throw which landed two runs for the home guard, and another ace was drawn in the seventh on a pass and George Ort's corking two-bagger.

Fireworks Come in Sixth.

In the sixth Steen was first man up and flew to Kennedy. Buddy Ryan singled over Delmas' head, and Oleon followed suit. Artie Kruegor then "blnged" one to center which tallied Ryan, but Daley threw nicely to Oren-dorff, who relayed the ball to Howard expecting to catch Krueger at the midstation. However, Howard spotted Olister and let Krueger go to return the ball to the plate, but he threw high over Orendorff's head and Olson scored. Krueger tried to score when Casey flew to Daley, but Pete's toss to the catcher was perfect and Krueger was out. In the next inning Sheehan walked and Bill Rapps sacraficed him to sec-ond. Then Ort came through with his two-ply smash and Sheehan tallied the third run of the game.

With Daley on third and Bernard on second in the fourth, through the former's single, a pass to the latter and a sacrifice by Howard, Bill Rapps saved the shutout record by a great stop of Kennedy's hit towards right field after Dillon had gone out, and toseing the ball to Steen, covering the bag, retired the batter and the side. It was a thrilling play and the crowd went wild in appreciation of the great work of the Portland players.

Ryan and Ort Star in Field.

In the third inning Buddy Ryan captured Orendorff's hard drive after a long run, and George Ort robbed Bert Delmas of a possible two-bagger in the same inning.

This afternoon's doubleheader will start promptly at 2 o'clock, and a record crowd is expected in case the weather remains good. Criger and Nagle will probably pitch for Los Angeles, while the mighty Gregg will heave both games for Portland. The score follows: LOS ANGELES.

WHEN the Portland team established the Pacific Coast League record of 54 shutout innings in 1909 the Los Angeles Club lost the first four of the zero games at that time. This year Sacramento started it and the Angels are winding it up.

Tommy Murray is catching grand basebail these days, and even if he does not hit as well as Gus Fisher, the little catcher will help the team just as much as the regular catcher next season.

Eugene Krapp occupied a seat in the press box yesterday and all through the afternoon he was "pulling" for Bill Steen to come through with another shutout. "Gene" proved himself a rabid far by standing up in the "lucky" seventh.

"Roaring Bill" Rapps says he will probably winter in Portland. Bill is a married man and his wife has taken quite a fancy to Portland, hence the first sacker's decision. Bill says Port-land is better than Missouri anyway.

On his first three trips to the plate yesterday Tommy Sheehan negotiated first. He walked in the second and sev-enth, and singled to center in the fifth. Tommy also distinguished himself with two nice throws at third.

In the seventh inning, with George Ort on second, Tommy Murray singled to right field, but Bernard tossed finely to Orendorff and Ort was caught at the Oregon City High School Wins Game by Narrow Margin, 6-5.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Football under the new rules made its debut in this city today in a hotiy contested game between Portland Academy and Oregon City High School, which was won by the latter eleven, 8 to 5. Except for a sprained shoulder, 5. Except for a sprained shoulder, or the state of the state which was won by the latter eleven, 6 to 5. Except for a sprained shoulder, sustained by Moore, Oregon City tackle, in the first quarter, the injuries were of a slight character. Moore was replaced by Andrews.

The Academy's scoring occurred in the first quarter, ten minutes after the ball had been put into play. Graves, in endeavoring to get started with the ball, fumbled behind the line, but before he could regain it, Woodcock, of the Academy, broken through the line, snatched the pigskin, and raced 30 yards down the field for a touchdown. The effort to kick the goal failed.

Five minutes after the ball had been in play in the third quarter, Cross seized a forward pass by the Academy back field on their 25-yard line, and, without interference, he ran through the opposing players, almost the length of the field for a touchdown. As Cross planted the ball-between the posts, Kelly had no difficulty in kicking the goal for the winning point. During the remainder of the quarter, the Academy eleven used the forward pass many times, and to good advantage. When the quarter ended, the pigskin was within 15 yards of the High School goal line.

In the last quarter, by holding their goal line. In the last quarter, by holding their line intact, Oregon City secured the ball, and Sheahan's fine punting kept the ball toward the center of the field. In the last few seconds of the game, an Academy and received the ball on
