

bridal party. Miss Coon and Miss Powell wore pale pink chiffon over satin, Miss Shea and Miss Addison wore in lavender gowns of the same material, and the maid of honor was costumed in pale blue chiffon over satin. They all carried arm bouquets of pink and lavender chrysanthemums and the bride's flowers were formed into a large wedding ring of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Dr. and Mrs. Watson will sail from New York on the Baltic November 21, for England, where their home will be in the future. Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pithian, on Irving street. Among the gowns worn was the handsome embroidered chiffon in pale blue which Mrs. Pithian wore. Other costumes were: a gray chiffon over rose satin, which was worn by Mrs. L. C. Williams, of Los Angeles, and a heavily beaded black marquisette over light blue, which was the attire of Mrs. A. E. Burchfield, of Washington, Pa. Mrs. A. L. Ashbrook, also of Washington, Pa., wore a mode shade of embroidered chiffon. Mrs. A. Hathaway wore peacock blue and black. Mrs. Frank Woods' gown was of yellow chiffon and Mrs. J. T. Moser wore black chiffon over...
