A GREAT SALE OF REAL IRISH CROCHET NECKWEAR

Reductions From One-Quarter to Half Price

—Real Carrickmacross examples of Irish Crochet lace in dainty neckwear, the handiwork of the peasant women of Ireland. Nowhere else in the world can be found in lace such quaint designs, so marked a feature of the real Irish Crochet laces. They are said to be historical in their several forms, having been copied from Escutcheons and Heraldic devices of the ancient kings and noble families of the four great Irish Provinces. We place these laces on exhibition and sale tomorrow, and are confident in the assertion that you never had Real Irish Crochet priced so cheaply before.

Now Is the Time All Women Are Interested in Needlework

—Some people call these gifts "OLD FASHIONED" and so they are. For centuries women have embroidered, crocheted and knit their Christmas gifts. In OLDEN TIMES the greatest affection, sentiment and love were expressed in these tokens—the handicraft of a mother, maid or sweetheart.

—The Samurai fighting men of Japan always wear upon their sleeves a hand embroidered chrysanthemum of Japan, a privilege extended the warriors only. No greater gift or token could be bestowed upon these men than a bit of embroidery of the cherished chrysanthemum.

—The bead bags of today—SO FASHIONABLE NOW—are no more than TOBACCO POUCHES, Gretchen's first gift to her betrothed. A custom in vogue in Germany for centuries.

—And so we could journey from country to country, over the entire face of the earth, exemplifying the customs of the different peoples, who cherish and prize above all gifts, the handiwork of women.

—Today there is a strong preference among many women to depart from the presentation of store made and shop gifts.

—There are thousands of dainty articles in our Art Needlecraft Department that make the prettiest, daintiest and most presentable gifts to any member of the family. Gifts that in themselves cost but little money, yet express the real Christmas sentiment.

—We extend to you an invitation to visit this department, where at present we are exhibiting everything that is new and beautiful in needlework. Classes daily in Art Needlework and Irish Crochet. Welcome.

—Sofa pillows, centerpieces, library table, sideboard, buffet and cabinet scarfs, dresser sets, necktie holders, shirtwaist cases, gowns, corset covers and drawers, tea aprons, baby hoods, baby dresses and kimonos all ready for working. Lamp shades, handkerchief and glove boxes, pyrography and metalography.

Every Garment Reduced

—The magnificent bigness of this sale springs from the determination to give to the organization is behind this Annual Sale. Tremendous effort is exerted to garments reduced in this Annual Sale. Every Garment illustrated is on sale.

—We want this sale to be fully understood. All garments are included. This compromising in its claim as the above—the women of Portland know there is so
