THAT GIFT IDEA

People perpetuate the beautiful spirit of Christmas time by bestowing gifts. They should be the best they can afford. If they love someone well enough to offer gifts that impose personal sacrifice-that's their own private business. A postal card to a non-appreciative person could be an extravagance. But do trumpery, perishable gifts carry out the idea? Select gifts either of utility or adornment, that will last forever. Diamonds for investment, jewelry for adornment; cut glass, silverware for utility. Anticipating the happy rush of gift-givers, we've filled our stock with the latest of all things beautiful in our line, and at appreciable low prices. Whether you want an exclusive jeweled pendant for milady's neck, or just a teething ring for babythe same delightful service is always yours at
