The Meier & Frank Store

Now for the Last Six Busy Days Before Christmas, Open Evenings Until 9:30--News of Great Savings

Red Cross Stamps

Every Christmas letter and parcel should bear Red Cross Stamps. Booth on main aisle. Monday in charge of Mrs. William Biddle, Mrs. Hawley Hoffman, Miss Marguerite Boschke and Miss Mildred Grindstaff. Help the good cause.

SIX short days until Christmas and so much yet to do! The many puzzling gift-problems will turn to pleasure with a few minutes spent at the Big Store. Glance at the many splendid savings on Gift-Things told of below. Come early tomorrow morning and shop unhindered by the big crowds.

Restaurant--7th Fl.

Christmas shoppers, lunch tomorrow at our big, beautiful restaurant on the seventh floor. In charge of W. H. Martlin, formerly of Hotel Portland. Special music from 12 to 2 by the Heilig Theater Orchestra.

FOR the convenience of those who find it impossible to shop during the day, the Big Store will remain open evenings until 9 o'clock this week. We have reinforced our delivery service and sales-force. It will be a big help to the men on the wagons if you carry small packages, when convenient.

Merchandise Bonds

When in doubt give a Merchandise or Glove Order. They are issued in any amount and redeemable in any kind of merchandise in the store. Ask the aisle-manager or salesperson about them.

Men's Gifts in Great Variety And Everything at a Saving

Our big Men's Store is brimful of practical gift suggestions. A variety to choose from that you'll probably not equal in the city, and prices that can't be matched in the "high-rent" single-line stores. See them.
