

Bank Has Many Vicissitudes.

Charles C. Dickinson, whose family still is at litigation with insurance companies periments looking to the transmutation of metals, and his brother, Stanton C. Dick perfiments looking to the transmutation of metals, and his brother, Stanton C. Dick-inson, advanced the theory that he was killed by inhaling poisonous gases in a laboratory test. On this theory the family sought to collect $0,000 accident insur-ance. An autopsy performed by experts for the company showed, however, that death was the immediate result of pneu-mania and Bright's disease. Mr. Dickinson resigned and got Leslie M. Shaw to succeed him. Mr. Shaw proved

M Shaw to succeed him. Mr. Shaw proved a very successful business getter, but he fid not agree with Mr. Dickinson, who still retained a large share in directing the policy of the bank, and resigned. Mr. Dickinson became president sgain, but did not succeed in gaining the confide of infinential banking interests.

Deal With Robin Causes Run.

Dickinson and Robin had been friends Robin was on the first directorate, but resigned. When the Northern Bank was closed and Superintendent Hotchkiss, of the State Department of Insurance, made public his investigation into its affairs, a draft drawn by Robin on the Carnegie, with which he had no account, bobbed French line steamship La Savole today.

From that time there began a steady but continuous withdrawal of funds by depositors who had lost confidence. It could scarcely be called a run, but in ite nation today it proved quite as effec-

With the incoming of the new city administration, the Northern Bank of New York and the Carnegie Trust Company both became city depositories. Controller Prendergast became doubtful of the Carnegie and Insisted that the directors put up their personal bond.

Latest Statement of Bank.

The city had on deposit with the Carnegie Trust at the close of business yesterday $650,000 The financial status of the Carnegie Trust Company, seconding to its last statement, as of November 10, is: Loans, $4.952,500; stocks and bonds in-vestment, $2.254.600; due from trust com-panies, banks and bankers, $1.517,300; cush available, $1.658,000; sggregate deposits, seconds $8,855,700.

The name of Mr. Carnegie was used b

The name of Mr. Carnegie was used by the organizers in order to lend strength io the undertaking, but Mr. Carnegie re-pudiated the use of his name. During the Dickinson regime the Car-negie Trust Company became involved with the Fidelity Funding Company which failed, causing many Catholic institutions become but the country considerable throughout the country considerable financial loss statement this afternoon:

"This depiorable crisis was most unex-pected. It is the result of sudden and heavy withdrawals occasioned by the unsettled conditions brought about by the recent bank failures. The name of the Carnegie Trust Company was unwarrant-edly connected with certain interests involved in that failure. The cash resources immediately available were insufficient to meet the heavy demands."

1907-it had already passed through one divorce, although the records at the in their attacks upon the Administration 1807-it had already passed through one divorce, although the records at the terious period of depression, and had county Courthouse indicate that the di-

CENTANINI SAYS DIVA IS GONE NO ONE KNOWS WHERE.

Ex-Metropolitan Opera Conductor Says Mascagni's Acts Will Bar Him From American Stage.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 .- (Special.)-The mysterious disappearance of Lina Cavalieri and the diagnosis of the case of Pietro Mascagni were some of the topics of Partisian gossip which G. P. Centanini, formerly one of the Metro-politan Opera conductors, and new diracting the Paviova Mordkin Com-

"No one in Paris seems to know where Cavalieri is," said Mr. Centanini. "It is supposed that she is singing in me under an assumed name, and yet Re my wife is positive she saw her in a dressmaker's shop in Paris the other day. Another report has it that she is on her way to America to sing in Victor Maurel's company which will victor Madrie Company which with give opera in English." "Mascagni's trouble," Mr. Centanini continued, "Is procrastination, I think. When he should have been at work on his music it is supposed on the other nide he was busy building a house with the $20,000 advanced him by his Amerlean managers. He will never come here now. The American public would here now. The American public would hiss him off the stage. I think he will go to Buenos Ayres to produce been a breach between Mr. Taft and Mr. "Yaohel."

Ysobel.'			_
CHUR	CH	SCEN	IE O	FBC	XING
					mateut

Bont, Gets "Overheated.

SALEM. Or., Jan. 7 .- (Special.)-O. Miai Dustin, who conducts a local printing establishment, falled to arise from his hed at the accustomed time today following an amateur boxing match at the Unitarian Church last night with Tracey President Howell made the following Lane. It was reported Dustin received a knock-out by a blow in the solar plexus. but this is denied by Rev. Paul S. Bandy, pastor of the church. Rev. Mr. Bandy states Dustin became overheated and going out in the cold proved injurious to him. Dustin was reported as reating easily today and no serious consequences are expected. The boxing was in the clubrooms of the Junior Fraternal Brotherhood and is one of the pastimes among the younger members of (Centinued From First Page.) Although Minnesota's rivers are said to be providing 1.000,000 horsepower, the is the daughter of Major Harry L. She is the daughter of Major Harry L.

among Washington newspaper men. Al-most without exception these writers are "office men" who sit at the desks all day. grinding out copy of their own concoction or suggested by some of the heads of the "movement." They are not men who to their desks and to the daily grind. One of the foremost of these writers, a representative of several Western papers, is notorious in Washington, as he was in the West, for his success as a "touch" artist. He "touched" all his newspaper friends in Washington, then went down the list of Benatorial ac-quaintances, and wound up by borrowing 350 from Secretary Ballinger. He never pays back a loan, and yet within a few weeks of the time when he procured 350 weeks of the time when he procured $50 from Mr. Ballinger he began his news-paper assaults upon him, and has been more virtholic in his writings than any of his associates. Recently he was of his associates. Recently he was dropped from the National Press Club, of Washington, for nonpayment of dues. Another of the writers was manager and director of the Pinchot press bureau while Pinchot was forester. Others are of higher standing as men, but all are on a par as writers. They have passed from the sphere of newspaper correspondents into the realm of press agents.

"Break" Is Pointed Out.

Not long since, these writers discov-Not long ance, these writers discov-ered that President Taft and Secretary Bailinger held views not altogether iden-tical as to the best way of disposing of coal on the public domain. Immediately followed a series of articles pointing out the "break" between the President and the Secretary and the sullible was the "break between the President and the Secretary, and the guilible public was told that Secretary Ballinger could not maintain his dignity and his office at the same time. A mere difference of opinion as to what should be done on a question which Congres alone can determine, and which Congres alone can determine, and linger. hen Theodore Roosevelt was in Wash-

tion recently. Secretary Ballinger, in urely personal way, called upon him had a half-hour talk. The Colonel e Secretary were smiling when arted. That time the Colonel got with Pinchot's fair-baired boys, the parted. no friend of Pinchot's can speak to Ballinger, much less smile at him. Recently the second Assistant Secre-tary of the Interior retired, and President Taft appointed Carmi A. Thomp-son, retiring Secretary of State of Ohio to the vacancy. The President always appoints assistant secretaries of the departments; Cabinet officers never make these appointments. But instant-ly the Pinchot press was on the job; President Taft, anticipating a scathing President fait antenation a second se Interior. Thompson was chosen to get down to the real facts, spy on Secretary Ballinger, and advise the Presi-dent, and Ballinger was to go. More-over, the mere appointment of Thomp-son was intended to be an insult to Ballinger. And some guilible people believed this stuff.

WILLIAM EISEN FORBIDDEN TO PRACTICE HERE.

State Board of Medical Examiners Finds Him Guilty of Procuring Unlawful Operation.

Following a hearing conducted by the Oregon State Board of Medical Examiners, Dr. William Elsen, a prac-ticing physician of Portland, was charged last night with having pro-cured an unlawful operation upon Mrs. Anna Foleen that resulted in her death on October 30, 1910.

on October 30, 1910. The license of Dr. Elsen to practice surgery and medicine was revoked and he is prohibited from practicing his profession in this state. Attorney Duniel Murphy, represent-ing Dr. Elsen, notified the Board that an appeal would be taken immediately. The sum of $500 was fixed upon as a bond to cover the costs of the proceed-ings. Attorney Murphy said that the ings Attorney Murphy said that the arrangements for giving bonds would be made early tomorrow. At the hearing last night Dr. Elsen made absolute denial of the charge. He deciared that Mrs. Foleen was ill with pneumonia at the time he attended her and that if an operation had been performed it was by some other physician.

The Board was represented by Attoney Sam White, who had charge of the examination. The findings were signed by Robert C. Coffey, president of the Board; E. B. McDaniel, secre-tary; Harry F. McKay and Herbert H. Nichols, members of the Board.

McCredie Will Give Address.

Toothache

Gum

Stops toothache whether thre is a carily or not. Never dries up or loses its strength.

Keep it in the house for emergencies. Imi-tations don't do the work.

GET DENT'S TOOTHACHE GUM.

Dent's Corn Gum Cares Corns and C. S. DENT & CO., Detroit, Mich.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 7.-Representative McCredia, of Washington state, is to deliver an address Monday evening before Washington College of Law on practice before Superior Courts in general, and also the organization and purpose of recently organized customs and other courts.

Okanogan Towns Population Given.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-ington, Jan. 7.-The Census Bureau today announced the population of four towns in Okanogan County, Washington, as fol-lows: Brewster, 296; Conconully, 357; Oroville, 455; Twisp. 227.

A Swell Affair.

smoothest mining swindles known to its history, his victims being, it is said. United States Senator Carter, a prominent Helena banker, and others well known in business and commercial cir-Grove was a prospector and came to Helena with reports of a rich discov-ery, and at once investors became inter-ested because of the sterling speci-mens exhibited. Carter and others visited the property, dug out ore with their own tools and stayed over night. During the night Grove changed sacks. substituting rock that had been salted. The fact was discovered later, but Senator Carter passed it off as a good joke at his expense, although it cost him $3000 in an advance payment.

Grove also went East and sold stock by the thousands of shares, bringing a Breaks a Cold in a Day. And Cures any Cough that is Curable. Noted Physician's Formula.

Get from any druggist "Two ounces of Glycerine and half an ounce of Con-centrated Pine compound. Mix these with half a pint of good whiskey. Take one to two tenspoonfuls after each meal and at bed time. Smaller doses to children according to age." Any one can prepare this at home. This is the best formula known to science. There are many cheaper preparations of large quantity, but it don't pay to experiment with a bad, cold. Be sure to get only with a bad, cold. He sure to get only the genuine (Globe) Concentrated Fine. Each half ounce bottle comes in a sealed tin screw-top case. If the druggist does not have in stock he will get it quickly from his wholesale house. Pine has been known for hundreds of years for its curative effects on the mucous membrane, but many extracts contain resins that cause nausea and rash. For a tioned above. For safety get only that men-

Every article in our store (except contract goods) greatly reduced during this sale, in order to reduce our stock before taking inventory. Don't fail to avail yourself of this opportunity to secure a good

Watch, Diamond, Jewelry Silver Tableware, Toiletware Cut Glass, Novelties, Clocks and Umbrellas

AT SALE PRICES

MARX & BLOCH

Largest Diamond Dealers in Oregon.

283 Morrison St.

74 Third St.

