Louisiana Adherents Plan Attempt to Carry Action Over to Next Congress Should They Lose in Initial Skirmish.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 .- (Special.)-Senator Flint gave positive assurance the House, no serious difficulty will be encountered in the Senate over the adoption of the exposition resolution in the Senate.

"There will be some hostility, of course, but we will get the resolution through. New Orleans undoubtedly will try to block us, but before the session is over we shall be able to overcome any effort to postpone action into the next Congress."

It should be understood that if the San Francisco resolution authorizing the President to invite foreign nations is passed by the House on Tuesday, but is not passed by the Senate at this session, it will die and be of no force and effect

Both Houses Must Concur.

California would have to begin all over again at the opening of the new Congress next Winter. Enactment by the one body alone would vest no authority in the President and without the concurrence of the other body before adjournment not a step could be taken by San Francisco toward national invitations to the foreign coun-

It is very apparent that New Orleans has already planned that in the event of defeat in the House it will try to bring about either an opposing result in the Senate, which would as well vitiate the San Francisco resolution, or, failing that, prevent action before March 4.

Flint's assurance, therefore, covers both propositions; one that there will be a majority for California, and the other that any fillbuster or other tactics for delay can be defeated.

Time Will Be Short.

Only four and a half weeks will remain of the session after the vote in the House, and these will be crowded with work for the Senators. The ordinary run of appropriation bills is sufficient of itself to overwhelm the Senators during the closing month, for the work comes to them in a heap after the House has taken weeks to discover the comes to the service weeks to discover the senators were the service weeks to discover the senators were the senators were the senators and the senators were the senators were the senators were the senators and the senators were senators. ter the House has taken weeks to dispose of it.
