Former Midshipman Barrett Is Arrested by Police of San Francisco.

RICH FATHER LIVES HERE

Two Charges of Grand Larceny Are Filed Against Him After He Pawns Costly Rings and Then Sells the Pledges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28—(Special.)
—William N. Barrett, Jr., formerly midshipman on the cruiser Maryland, who was in difficulty with the management of the Hotel St. Francis in regard to checks which he had written without funds for their payment, shortly after its resignation from the Navy on December 12, 1919, was arrested last night after it was discovered that he had pawned jewelry taken from Shreve & Co. and Radke & Co. on approval.

On December 29 Barrett attained from Shreve & Co. a ring with three dismonds valued at $200, saying that he wished to show it to a young woman to whom he was engaged. On the following day he obtained in the same manner a ring valued at $120 from Radke & Co. Later he paid Shreve £50 on account, but the suspicions of the jewelers were aroused.

Police detectives were put on the case and discovered that both rings had been pawned, and that Barrett had obtained from Ranhael $500 on the $2000 ring, and SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28-(Special.)

DETECTIVES ARE JAILED

Seattle Sleuths Employed in Hillman Case in Contempt.

SEATTLE, Jan. 28.-United States District Judge George Donworth today adjudged E. D. Kirk. head of the Kirk Detective Agency, and W. J. Webb, one of Kirk's employes, guilty of contempt of court in attempting to influence jurors called to try Clarence D. Hill-nan, the millionaire real estate dealer accused of using the mails to defraud, and fixed prison sentences.

Kirk and Webb were ordered compitted to the County Jail until Monday, when Kirk will be sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Federal Penitentiary on McNeil's Island, and Webb to four months in the County Jail. Kirk came here a year ago from Kansas City, where he seems to have been prominent, for on the witness stand he offered testimonials from bankers and large employers of labor. Webb was recently dismissed from the Seattle police force.

Two jurors there testified that they had been approached by agents of Hillman. Hillman went on the stand and denied that he had instructed his detectives to corrupt jurors. He swore he had employed them to get evidence to connect George W. Dilling. Public Welfare candidate for Mayor, and other real estate dealers, with the prosecution. Judge Donworth, in his decision, said:

"Among the perils that confront our country the influence of money in the administration of justice is one of the greatest evils we have to fear." The judga held that the testimony of the defendants was false, the testimony of the jurors true. Hillman was convict-
