PUSH CLUBS OPPOSE MALARKEY BILL.—The push club committee which framed the public service commission measure for Portland and filed petitions to have the measure placed on the ballot next June is making a fight against the Malarky bill, which placed the same function with the State Railroad Commission. A circular has been printed setting forth the advantages of the local measure and declaring that Mr. Malarkey's bill is designed to kill off the local measure and also the two supplementary measures taxing the gas and electric power companies 2 per cent of their gross earnings. Several push clubs have adopted resolutions approving of the local measure and condemning the Malarkey bill.

CHANCE TO GET AUTO IS GONE.—Superintendent Donaldson of the Street Cleaning Department has been disappointed about getting an automobile, which it is conceded by the street-cleaning committee of the Executive Board, he is entitled to. The trouble grows out of Mr. Donaldson's failure to urge the purchase of the machine last year, when there were available funds. Now the expenses of his department have increased so much that the superintendent, who must travel 25 miles of streets a day, will have to continue to use a horse and buggy.

OBSTRUCTIONS TO WIDENING REMOVED.—Attorney Frank Schlagel, representing the Rose City Park Improvement League, reported yesterday that all obstructions to the widening of the Sandy boulevard from 60 to 80 feet had been removed by the payment of something more than $200 to a property owner who thought the viewers had not awarded sufficient damages. ## SHORTY BEARS MANY SINS

Thief's Defense, However, Fails to Prevent Rockpile Sentence.

Somewhere in the wide world one "Shorty" is staggering along carrying upon his shoulders the sins of four men. "Poor Shorty," said Deputy District Attorney Hennessy; "he is the goat." Upon the absent head of "Shorty" there were heaped, in Municipal Court yesterday, all the offenses charged against three prisoners, who were arrested several days ago by Police Sergeant Goltz, charged with burglary and attempted highway robbery. First, Robert Ratzman cleared his skirts and volunteered to turn state's evidence against John Peterson and Art Olson. Then Olson shifted the blame to Peterson and Shorty and was discharged for lack of evidence. Peterson was put on trial and was asked to account of the various articles found in his possession.

"Where did you get that gun?" asked Hennessy.

"From Shorty."

"And the watch chain?"

"From Shorty."

"And the cigars?"

"From Shorty."

Here Hennessy indulged in sarcasm about the "mysterious John Doe who hands things to people on the streets."

Judge Tazwell was not impressed by Peterson's defense and sentenced him to a year at the rock pile.

"Shorty, the goat," is still at large.

MONKEY HELD AS HOSTAGE

Animal Ruins Stock of Little Store; Merchant Wants Damages.

Disconsolate and deathly sick, an African monkey sits in captivity, at the cigar store of Stanchef Bros., Third and Everett streets, and contemplates with bitter remorse the havoc of a night of dissipation. Chewing tobacco and candy, masticated simultaneously, are, he finds, a bad diet.

Jocko is one of three simians kept to attract the crowd at a moving picture show run by Fred Nesme at 63½ Third street. He escaped from his cage Friday night, and his vagrant fancy carried him to the candy store. Casually inspecting a rack of picture postals and tearing up such as did not suit his taste, he progressed to the showcase and gorged himself on its contents. First a plug of tobacco and then a fistful of candy found its way to his pouchy jaws, and this was repeated until most of the stock had been ruined.

When Stanchef unlocked his store yesterday morning he found the monkey in possession, his stock strewn about the floor, and damage done which he appraised at $75. He carried his claim to the police station, but was referred to the Justice Court. Nesme offered to settle for $20, but Stanchef refused, and in the meantime holds Jocko as security for his claim.

B. Marcy, Montesano; first vice-president, Mrs. L. R. Lycan, Moclip; second vice-president, Mrs. Connolly, Cosmopolis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. H. Whartman, Montesano; recording secretary, Mrs. A. Wilson, Aberdeen; treasurer, Mrs. S. S. McMillan, Hoquiam; auditor, Mrs. McKee, Hoquiam.

BRAGGART IS IN TROUBLE

"Pull" With Police Fails to Materialize Upon Inquiry.

For boasting that he had a "pull" with the police, Ernest Frost, an expressman, had a narrow escape from being committed to jail in Municipal Court yesterday morning, upon his failure to pay a fine which had been assessed against him.

Frost was arrested for threatening to kill Seid Back, a Chinese merchant, following depredations committed by Frost's horse among the lilies of the Chinese. He was fined $15, but was allowed until yesterday to pay it. It came to the ears of the authorities that he had made boasts of having escaped punishment because he had a "drag," and when he appeared in court yesterday morning he was called upon to say who it was that had favored him.

He denied that he had made such statements and pleaded for more time in which to pay his fine. The request was granted after he had been lectured severely by the court.

Club's Publicity Work Planned.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—The Commercial Club has outlined its publicity plan for 1911. The club's enrollment has reached such a large membership that it has been considered best to have an attorney draw up articles of incorporation. In addition to the regular booklet form separate bulletins and post card folders will be available.

Laborers Sue for Injuries.

We're Not Going Out of the Jewelry Business

Our removal sale was occasioned by enlargement of business. You'll find us in the Yeon building after February 15th., bigger, better, busier than ever. We are sacrificing profits, and not customers; we want an empty store, and will not move anything. It would not be a temptation to us to offer seconds, instead of high-class articles, because we want your future patronage, and expect to win and keep it. Another reason why we are offering you the best, at the price of the inferior. Be a wholesaler, you'll get much at cost price—much, even below cost, possibly the very piece of jewelry, silverware you need most. Come and see.

ARE ALL

SOLID

Our theory is there are never two sides to a question.

There can't be but one right side and prudent men do not bother about any other. Therefore, if you take the opposite view, opposite to ours, of the inferiority of "veneered" or the superiority of "solid" desks and office furniture, the kind we sell, it makes no difference which, your view is wrong. Let us prove it.
