Lincoln's Character Extolled.

"I consider it a great opportunity to be present, as the guest of this as-sociation, at the city which knew Lin-cein intimately.

"Lingoin came up from the soil. He was not only one of the plain people he loved, but lived and dressed and ate and spoke as they did, and in early life seemed to have many of the de-fects and fallings they had. He used and cultivated the art of politics they did and it was difficult for those knew him and who came close to him to realize the greatness of his character and intellect and the other excepthenal qualities that differentiated him from his fellows.

Those traits in him which now place time with Washington alone did not make themselves clearly manifest and were not fully developed until the trials of the four years of our Civil War. In the supreme last he threw off such dross as his early life might have

ELLIS AGAINST RECIPROCITY

Oregon Man Says Lumber and Grain Interests Are Injured.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Feb. 11 .- Representative Ellis oday voted against the bill ratifying the Canadian reciprocity agreement, or the ground that the agreement would operate to the detriment of several Ore-and salmon. Not only, he says, would Canadian products enter into competition with Oregon products in the West, but much of Oregon's trade in the East that is shipped by sea would be destroyed by Canadian competition, as the products of British Columbia could be sent to

New York and other Eastern ports in foreign bottoms and at less rates than are charged by American ships now engaged in the coastwise trade and which handle all Oregon products going There is no real substitute for by sea to Eastern markets. Ellis has received many petitions and telegrams from Oregon urging him to act as he did, and he feels he is justi-field in opposing the agreement. Hawley probably will join Ellis in voting against the McCall bill when it comes before the House, for he is par-ticularly opposed to the lumber and wood pulp features of the agreement.
