NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—(Special.)— Senator Davis, of Arkansas, has had to justify to the people in his state a certain ride in a faxi-cab. It is not note for a statesman from the South or the Far West to Imitate the manners of the Eastern politicisms. It to told of the late Senator Beagen, of Texas, that when he returned to his state from a visit he forgot to lay astde the slik hat which he habitually were in Washington, and his wife, seewore in Washington, and his wife, sealing this when he was driving to his hotel, took the silk hat from his head and thrust it under the seat of the sarriage. If his Teans friends had resulted that Senator Reagen worg a silk hat he would have become the most unpopular man in the state. Senator Davis was caught riding to the White House in a taxleab recently and his enemied circulated the story in Arkansas to his great deiriment.

See Called Hypnotist.

is Evelyn Arthur See, indicted founder of the "absolute life" cult, a hypnotist with sinister designs >

Miss Laura Ebel, officer of the Jurenile Protective Association, is quoted as saying that he is, following an extensive investigation made by her of the happenings in the Racine avenue "temple." She disclaims any powers of hypnosis, declaring that women, girls and boys were attracted to his cult be-cause of the lofty teachings incofcated therein. The grand jury evidently saw only the frail side of the "prophet," basing its indictment on the halling testimony of little girls, who told enough to suggest that See was guilty of conduct the proof of which in court involves a penitentiary sentence ranging from one to 14 years.

Miss Ebel says See is a hypnotist of such ability that he is able to gain gradual control of the susceptible and to bend them to his will. From what she has heard, she concludes that his will is not that usually attributed to a lifter of his race. It is her opinion that See paved the way to mental central over his followers through his Sunday school and his classrooms, where his conduct was exemplary and his influence over the children was

Eyes Have Strange Power.

Having reached a certain stage in acquiring the confidence of his girl pupils, according to Miss Ebel, he then undertook to teach them the more subtle principles of "the absolute life." The steady glance of his eyes are said to exert a peculiar influence on the mind of the person on whom the eyes are focussed. Many who never attended his school or followed his teachings, testify to the penetration and strange power of those eyes. See answers that if there be such magic in his gaze he is unaware of it and that he never knowingly used his eyes for other than the usual purposes.

other than the usual purposes.

Figrence McKeen, 14 years old, furmished most of the evidence on which the indictment of See is based. The child was not asked by the jury to tell all her story, but she recited an incident in which See was represented as putting his arm around her and

On one or two occasions, according to the girl's story, she re-pulsed See when he sought to take privileges which she thought were not consonance with a high spiritual collections the first Sunday amo to 15 cents. The paster paid 4 meals and lodging at a botel. His seemed a hopeless one, but he stuck to little organization. He married a school teacher who worked faithfully with him to promote the church. Then Mrs. Bird died. To the minister the church seemed like his child. His parishioners loved him and never thought of getting another in his place.

Church Is Minister's Child.

Living alone in the tower of the church in South Chicago, which he founded more than 30 years ago, his wife dead, no children to minister to him and many of his old-time friends moved away, Rev. George H. Bird pleuda with tears in his eyes that he may be allowed to stay to the end of his days in his odd home overlooking the suburt When Mr. Bird came to Chicago Massachusetts and established church, it had only two members.

Eight years ago the tower was built. It is 70 feet high and was erected as a memorial to Mrs. Bird, and as a home for her bereft husband. On the top floor is a well-equipped library. Below is the third floor, providing kitchen, din-ing-room and bath. On the second floor is a large sleeping chamber and below this a reception room. Five-sixths of the money for construction was contributed by Mr. Bird. In his home he installed all the things that helped to keep fresh the memory of his wife. There he lives, cooking his own breakfast. His other meals are with members of the congre-gation, by invitation. Some times he misses meals, but only he knows when,

Honor Is Without Income.

With the flight of years the personnel of the church changed. Younger men and women began to take up the reins. The inevitable happened and Mr. Bird became pastor emeritus, an honor with out income. Other ministers have hesi-tated to accept the regular pastorate while Mr. Bird lives in the tower. The younger members have ninted in a kind-ly way it would be better for him and for the church if he would go. "It would break my heart to leave this place," he said, tears confirming his

And so the controversy stands, the tower overlooking the town. Troubles of the Jews in the land of the Czar are not duplicated in Chicago save in a small way, when mischie boys peater an itinerant huckster. Fig-boys poster an interact aucasier. Fig-ures just made public regarding the pop-ulation of the county infirmary at Oak Forest show nearly 1899 inmates. Of this number there are only nine classed as Jews. In round numbers, there are about 100,000 Jews in Chicago. On a purely percentage basis, therefore, there ought to be at least 90 Jews in the infirmary. The exhibit for the Jews is by firmary. The exhibit for the Jewa far the best of the lot. If the same centage were carried out for all national-ities and creeds, there would be only 10 of these county dependents. The figures are proof of two things—that the Jews are the most thrifty and self-reliant class in Chicago, and that they are shead of others in caring for their own.

How to Restore Your Nerve Force

of nerve wires. These nerves convey the power which runs the human machine. This power is called nerve force. Nerve force is nothing but electricity. The reason any organ becomes weak is because the nerves which control it lack electricity, or nerve force, the motive power of your body. This lack of nerve force is shown by weakness of any kind, whether in the stomach, liver, kidneys, heart or other organs.

If your memory is poor, confidence and nerve all gone; sleep restless; if you suffer frequent headaches and your eyes are dull and heavy, it shows that your supply of nerve force is depleted. So many men fry to build up nerve force by doping their stomachs with drugs. It is impossible. What the nerves require is nourishmentnerve food. If there was any nourishment in drugs they might do some good, but you know there is not. Drugs are drugs, stimulants, parcotics, antidotes, poisons, not food. Electricity is nerve food -nerve life. It soaks into the nerves and is tak-

Every dose of drugs that you put into your stomach weakens your nerves. Every time you kill a pain or an ache-by stupefying the nerves with poisonous drugs-you are harting them, and anyone can see that in time, by steady dosing, your nervous system will be completely broken down.

Can a man with whiskers be elected Mayor of Chicago? The question is apropose the candidacy of Andrew J. Graham, who has a full set of hirsute coverings on his face. In all probability there are 20,000 posters and billboards in Chicago carrying what is said to be in Chicago carrying what is said to be a good likeness of Mr. Graham. The pictures look down from the insides of streetears, from panels of the elevated railway cars and from various other sta-tions. About the first thing that strikes one regarding the pictures is the whiskers. They are so ture on candidates in Chicago that they have all the aspec-

The Oregonian correspondent has been interested in the comments of men and women on the Graham presentment. It is generally agreed that Mr. Graham is a clean-looking, sub-stantial citizen, with a face that seems to merit respect and confidence, but the whiskers rarely escape adverse criticism, well-groomed as they are.

With the exception of Senator Cul-lom, Speaker Cannon and the late Gov-ernor Altgeld, Chicago and Illinois have had scarcely any bewhiskered candidates in the last decade. The few there have been, with these note worthy exceptions, have, as a rule, fared badly at the polls. Unless a man is particularly well known before he omes a candidate, there is something about whiskers that the general Illinois public does not like.
