

PEACE IN MEXICO DEPENDS ON ONE

Diaz Government Anxiously Awaits Return of Minister of Finance.

CABINET CHANGES WANTED

With Arrival of Senor Limantour From Paris Radical Concessions Will Be Made and New Governors Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The report from Paris that Senor Jose Limantour, Mexican Minister of Finance, intended to leave there for Mexico next week, it was learned here tonight, means the beginning of a political movement in Mexico that is calculated to restore the republic to complete tranquility.

Changes in the cabinet of President Diaz as well as the appointment of new governors in various states now are made possible, it has been learned. Senor Limantour's detention in Paris on account of his wife's illness has occasioned much speculation in Mexico.

Seldon, it is said, has the welfare of the republic been so dependent upon the movements of one man. Senor Limantour, it was explained, is regarded by all Mexicans as a person of great tact and ability and is known to have the confidence of all parties as well as President Diaz. It has not yet been determined whether Senor Limantour will replace Enrique C. Creel, the Minister of Foreign Relations, but it is known that important changes are intended. Senor Limantour is regarded as the most likely man for the premiership.

With the advent of Senor Limantour into the position of Minister of Foreign Relations, those close to President Diaz believe that changes will occur among the governors of the states, particularly in the northern part of Mexico.

The appointment of Senor Ahumada as governor of Chihuahua recently to succeed Senor Alberto Terrazas is regarded as the first move of the Diaz administration to appease opposition to the federal government in that state. Prior to the election of Terrazas, Senor Creel was governor of Chihuahua and advised from time to time have reached here that the insurrection movement received many supporters in that state because of supposed grievances against Governor Creel before he became Minister of Foreign Affairs.

REBELS SEEK VEGA'S TREASURE

Victors Pursue Governor in Hope of Capturing $100,000.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 18.—A special to the Union from Campo says: It is reported tonight that a portion of the victorious rebel forces has been sent out from Mexico and is marching after Governor Vega for the purpose of capturing his supply train and incidentally the treasure Vega is believed to have with him. It is said when Vega left Ensenada he carried a suitcase filled with Mexican currency and gold amounting to $100,000.

MANN WINS IN FILIBUSTER

bill. The House was in an uproar as the debate ran along after midnight and many speeches, some of them fiery, were heard. At 12:30 a. m. President Sherman, Speaker Cannon and several members arrived shortly after midnight.

Saturday Is Declared Friday.

As soon as the House met Friday, Tennessee moved that the House go into committee of the whole to resume consideration of the bill.

Weeks of Massachusetts took the position that the only way to get rid of the legislative day of yesterday was to adjourn.

Norris of Nebraska held that when two orders of the House came into direct conflict the last order should prevail. The last order in this case was the recess.

Speaker Cannon sustained the view that the session of yesterday was still in effect.

Four of Illinois complicated matters by moving to take up the naval appropriation bill. On a standing vote this motion was defeated 129 to 124.

The year and says were then ordered. On this vote the House decided 180 to 95, against taking up the naval bill.

The question then came up on a renewed motion to consider the claims bill. On a standing vote the motion was agreed to, 127 to 61.

Mann demanded the year and says as a means of delay. They were ordered. This time the House voted to take up the claims bill, 181 to 94.

Absentees Gathered In.

About 100 of the 158 pages of the bill were read last night. Sims moved to dispense with the further first reading and to begin the second reading. For amendments under the five-minute rule, Mann objected. The reading of the bill proceeded for a time.

At 12:15 o'clock Sims suggested that a quorum was not present. Bennett of New York, acting as chairman, counted the House and found considerably less than a quorum and a rollcall was begun, the third of the day.

The House broke into an uproar at the conclusion of the rollcall, which showed a quorum. Sims of Tennessee warned the members who had been brought into the House by the sergeant that they had better stay, but, as the reading of the bill proceeded, the members again began to slip out.

As the reading clerk approached the closing paragraph of the bill Mann resorted to new tactics to delay action. But at least the reading of the bill was reported.

Mann promptly asked for a re-reading of the committee amendments, covering 23 pages.

Prince Vainly Demands Action.

When the clerk had finished reading the amendments, Prince of Bliedna, chairman of the committee on claims, read an extract from President Taft's message urging Congress to pay claims, read the bill acted upon favorably by the Court of Claims. Prince said he personally favored putting the French spoliation claims back in the bill. In conclusion, Prince said, said appear to that Congress should either carry out the decision of the Court of Claims or abolish that tribunal.

Mann moved to adjourn. On a standing vote the motion was lost, 41 to 96.

Mann raised the point of no quorum. A rollcall followed. It disclosed a quorum and the House by a vote of 129 to 73

Proceedings Are Burlesqued.

By a motion of Carlin, adopted 41 to 26, the sergeant-at-arms was directed to arrest absentees and bring them to the bar of the House. Meantime, there were many burlesque parliamentary moves, with frequent uproarious laughter.

Heflin of Alabama, in the absence of a quorum, said he would yield himself in minutes. He characterized the filibuster as the most shameful performance he had experienced in his public career. He said the Republicans dared not to let the measure come to a vote.

A quorum was secured shortly before 10 P. M. Clayton of Alabama fought to have the House instruct the committee on rules to bring in by next Monday a special rule for immediate consideration of the omnibus claims bill, and for its continuous consideration until disposed of. This was a crucial moment in the fight.

The chair overruled the motion and Heflin appealed, the House sustaining the appeal and overruling the chair. The eyes and noses were demanded and another rollcall followed.

AMENDMENT TO BE WEAPON

Proposed Pure Food Act Intended to Protect Home Trade.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Senator Curtis will press for passage at the present session an amendment to the pure food act which he introduced last week. The ground that it would be in the hands of President Taft a weapon which he might use in dealing with the German government in respect to the potato and other disturbing questions.

The proposed amendment would enable the President to exclude from importation the products of any foreign country when he is satisfied that such country, in violation of treaty obligations with the United States, seeks by "representative, discriminatory or confiscatory measures to jeopardize, impair or destroy the capital of citizens of the United States legitimately invested in such foreign state."

INDIANS GET ANOTHER

JOE COHN LANDS RIGHT-HANDER FROM LOUISVILLE.

Rudy Schwenck, With Good Middle West Record, Ready to Report to Spokane Now.

SPokane, Wash., Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Joe Cohn grabbed another pitcher today for the Indian team in 1911 in Rudy Schwenck, a right-hander. The deal was made with the Louisville club by purchase.

Schwenck was with the Columbus team in 1907 and went to Memphis in 1908. He remained in the South for the year or 1909, but early last year he was hurt and did not get into the game again during that season. He is a big fellow and comes well recommended and with a good record behind him in the Middle West.

Cohn closed the deal today and sent the contract to the new pitcher with orders to report in Spokane next month to join the big squad that will work out here before the opening of the regular scheduled games in April.

"Schwenck was not in the game last year, but he was able to play toward the end of the season and preferred to rest up and be ready to report in prime shape this Spring. I am practically ready to stand pat now, and unless something good turns up that can't be passed up I will start the training season with the bunch signed up," said Cohn.

COLUMBUS CLUB TAKES GAME

Allen Preparatory School Loses by Score of 32 to 23.

Columbus Club defeated the Allen Preparatory School basketball team last night at the gymnasium of the former organization, the score being 32 to 23. It was a fast game, full of vigor and steady playing.

Although slightly handicapped by the absence of Mehus, a guard, and the shifting of a forward to a guard position and the playing of a substitute, the Columbus Club's superiority was questioned but few times. Allen played hard for the game, but Nelson and Murphy's work at guard was too strong for the Allen forwards.

By tossing five baskets and strong guarding Murphy took the credit of being Columbus Club's star player, while the tall Harr, center, starred for Allen Preparatory School. Following is the lineup:

Columbus Club: Allen P. E. Dalrymple, F. J. ... Pike Williams, F. ... Lasswell Johnson, C. ... Harr Nelson, G. ... Murphy, F. ... Meterefs—Ed Sheekley.

RUSSIANS SEEK LIBERTY

FOUR MONTHS CONSUMED IN FLIGHT ACROSS SIBERIA.

Partly Pursued, Tramps Over Lake Balkal on Ice and Almost Perishes From Cold.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 18.—Twelve Russian natives of Kishar Province, Europe, between the Black and Caspian seas, arrived here last night on the Japanese steamer Kamakura Maru, after a perilous journey across Asia, through desert and flood, and are now being detained by the United States Immigration Service.

In their little village in Kishar many of their relatives had been beaten and killed by the Czar's soldiers and 40 men decided to leave Russia and go to America by crossing Asia. They set out on foot and walked in Astrakhan. There they embarked on a flat-bottomed boat that took them up the Volga River to Dubooka and Kamrischin.

At Kamrischin soldiers and peasants fired into the boat, sinking the craft and wounding two of its occupants. Officials harassed the refugees continually and when they reached the foot of the Ural Mountains only 14 men were left.

At Ufa, where they intended to take a train on the Siberian Railroad, the Russian officials threw them into jail for 10 days. Four months were consumed in crossing Siberia, sometimes afoot and sometimes by train. The men crossed Lake Balkal on the ice and almost perished from cold.

At Vladivostok two of the party died from their hardships. The others took passage to Yokohama and embarked for Seattle.

BAR BULK OF PEOPLE'S POWER

Hughes Says Supreme Court Is to Safeguard Their Rights.

WICKERSHAM IS SPEAKER

Attorney-General Says Bar Is Obstacle to Pure Democracy and Federal Judiciary Check National Places on Impulse.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Charles E. Hughes, ex-Governor of New York, made his first public address tonight since his appointment as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Eight hundred lawyers, including eight women, gathered at the Hotel Astor with their friends and guests to do him honor at a dinner under the auspices of the New York County Lawyers' Association. A. B. Parker presided and the speakers besides Justice Hughes were George W. Wickersham, United States Attorney-General; Joseph Choate and a number of the members of the Federal and state bench.

Court Speaks for Self.

"The Supreme Court of the United States is peculiarly the people's tribunal, for it is its function to safeguard the fundamental rights expressed in the people's Constitution. And I assure you that in the conference of the judges of the Supreme Court of the United States there is exhibited a candor and comprehensiveness and sincerity of complete devotion to the cause of peace that will be most gratifying to the entire people of the Union who they know more intimately what actually takes place."

Bar Promotes Peace.

Speaking to the toast, "The Bar and the Nation," Attorney-General Wickersham said the bar of the Nation is doing more for the cause of peace than can be accomplished by any times Andrew Carnegie's $10,000,000 endowment to promote international peace. He said in part:

"The keen interest which the professional man takes in the law secures many acute and competent critics of the interpretation put upon the law by the judges. Such men form a tribunal to whose opinion the judges are sensitive.

"There is much current advocacy of change in our Constitution. But no radical change in our Government has ever been made in the face of the opposition of a considerable majority of the American bar.

"The greatest obstacle in the way of sudden accomplishment of purely democratic government is undoubtedly the bar. And the greatest protection of the individual from the tyranny of the crowd is the bench.

"Protected from the momentary rage of disappointed social reformers by the life tenure of office, the Federal Judiciary is the most conservative power in our Government.

"Out of this self-imposed restraint, which the American people have placed upon their own impulses, has come more sovereign power which has exalted this Nation to its leadership among the people of the world.

"Let us uncover and punish all corruption in office; let us remedy all breach of power; let us mould our laws to protect the oppressed and defend the truth; but let us ponder long and deeply before we lay our hands upon that vital principle of free government—a fearless and independent judiciary."

'WORKERS' HIKE IN HILLS

MARCHERS ON FRESNO NOT BEGGING FOOD AT ALL.

Keeper of Grocery Says Men Bought and Paid for Supplies—Crowd Goes Into Camp at Holt.

REDDING, Cal., Feb. 18.—The 170 Industrial Workers of the World marching from Ashland, Or., to Fresno, made 12 miles today, going into camp tonight at Holt, just this side of the Oregon-California line. They are neither appropriating nor begging food and their conduct has been good.

The keeper of the grocery at Holt reported that the committee from camp bought and paid for supplies. Two of them bought tickets to Hornbrook and went ahead as scouts. The men have been badly in need of food. All trains go by at full speed, giving the workers no opportunity to board them.

Last night they gathered around camp fires in the open. The weather was bitterly cold, with snow on the ground. Ten railroad policemen arrived early today at Hornbrook, the first important Southern Pacific station in California, south of the Oregon boundary.

RAILROADS READY FOR VAGS

Any Attempt to Seize Trains Will Be Met by Armed Force.

SPokane, Wash., Feb. 18.—Railroad officials in Spokane are stated to be preparing to resist with armed force any attempt by members of the Industrial Workers of the World to seize trains, as was done at Ashland, Or., in the attempt to join the encampment at Fresno, Cal.

Officers of the O. W. R. & N. and Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railroads, it is stated, are daily adding to their forces of special agents. The warlike in further trouble with vagrants. In addition, it was said today, in case a concerted attack is made a special train of armed guards will be rushed to Spokane.

Arthur Rosenfeld Gets Position.

Arthur Rosenfeld, of Portland, who will finish his course at the Johns Hopkins Medical School this Spring, has received an appointment at the Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City, having passed third among 65 applicants for the position. In order to avail himself of this opportunity in a larger field of work in his profession he has resigned his appointment at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, which he recently received.

Joakin Miller Is Improving.

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 18.—Joakin Miller, the poet, who is seriously ill at a local hospital, showed much improvement today. His condition, however, is still considered critical.
