

field and Lutzen, as well as much of the surrounding country and studied the places carefully. She has consulted historical material thoroughly, and has seen many representative pictures of the war scene of Adolphus. She will tell of these wars in a popular manner, not attempting a strictly historical or scientific portrayal. Miss Frances Sheehy will illustrate the address with appropriate music, including the battle hymn of Gustavus Adolphus, the words of which were written by him, the March of the Swedish Cavalry at the time of the war, Luther's hymn, "Ein feste Burg," Handel's Patriotic Symphony, the March of the Swedish, Beethoven's Funeral March in A flat, and the Hallelujah chorus.

Mrs. Carrie Louise Dunning, who has passed the last four months in New York is now in Seattle, on her way home to Portland. She is receiving many social compliments in the Northern city, and was recently formally introduced to the social world by Mrs. John L. Wilson, wife of ex-Senator Wilson, who gave a large tea and musical in her honor. Mrs. Dunning expects to return to Portland within the next two weeks.

Miss Dorothy Eichenlaub, of Vancouver, entertained a number of her Portland and Vancouver friends last week with a large dancing party given in the Columbia Hotel. Large American flags draped from wall and ceiling while Oregon grape, massed with ferns and golden jonquils, formed the decoration of the ballroom. Following the dance supper was served in the dining-room of the hotel. Receiving with Miss Eichenlaub were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eichenlaub, and others who assisted were Mrs. Leo McGuire and Mrs. J. M. Reeves. The guests were Miss Helen Snyder, Miss Fay Bouton, Miss Henrietta Rothchild, Miss Leontine Fleury, Miss Vera Patterson, Miss Edna Patterson, Miss Laura Korrell, Miss Max Otten, Miss Ethel Gordon, Miss Frances Laskauff, Miss Carrie Neer, Miss Estie Moore, Miss Pearl Payne, Miss Bernice Eddings, Miss Ette Stuart, Miss Louise Chalmers, Miss Alice Pooley, Miss Bessie Briggs, Miss Beatrice Hilden, Miss Mary O'Connor, Miss Blanche Schott, Guntber, Miss Esther Cohen, Miss Alice Dougherty, Miss Helen Kavanagh, Miss Georgia, Miss Blanche Schott, Mr. Roy F. Waring, Mrs. Harold Forbes, Wallace Eastham, Frank G. Eichenlaub, Lieutenant Albert Bishop, Frank O'Connor, Roy Getz, Reginald Rankin, Lieutenant Budd, Benjamin Chambers, Max Cohen, Harry Van Dyke, James Clancy, Lieutenant Robert, Dr. C. E. Trevin, Marshall Jordan, W. R. Koser, R. C. Sugg, Lieutenant Roy F. Waring, Claude Crawford, Ned Briggs, Clyde Collins, Harry Sparks, Gustav Eilers, J. M. Withers, Dr. J. Riederich, Walter Verlan, William Pease, William Marshall, Lieutenant Perkins, Lieutenant Goodale, Julius Cohen, Harold Forbes, Leo McGuire and J. M. Reeves.

Quinn and Miss Grace Whitney. First and second prizes were won by Miss Pearl Jennings and Miss Flora Jessop.

Mrs. Royal K. Warren entertained a few friends Tuesday evening when the features of the evening's programme was music by the Warren Mandolin Club, under the leadership of Miss Ethel O'Brien.

Charles Grizmachner returned from the South Wednesday evening after a 10 days' trip through the southern part of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. London are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, born February 25.

Lieutenant Anton H. Shroeter, of the First Cavalry, United States Army, stationed at Boise, Idaho, is at present visiting at Vancouver barracks.

One of the first fraternity dances of the season to be given at the University of Oregon took place a week ago Saturday night, when the Delta Sigma fraternity gave its initial "hop." The party was held in the college gymnasium, which was gay in its dress of college pennants and Spring flowers. About 200 invitations had been issued and a large number of guests were assembled. Among the patrons of the evening were Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. W. C. Barbour, Professor and Mrs. E.

ASTORIA MAN WEDS DAUGHTER OF SOLDIER STATIONED AT PRESIDIO.

Frederick Joseph Brown.

Frederick Joseph Brown, a cigar dealer of Astoria, formerly circulation manager for the Telegram at the "City by the Sea," was married by Archbishop Christie at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to Elizabeth H. Leonard, of San Francisco. Attorney John C. McCue and Mrs. A. T. Stevart, Brown's sister, acted as witnesses.

Mr. Brown is 25 years old and his bride is 23. A few years ago he gained some distinction as a runner. His bride is well known in San Francisco, Sergeant Hermann Hofmeister, stationed at the Presidio, being her father.

Stiles; "The Early Schools of America," by Mrs. Henry Berger, Jr., and the "Writings of Anne Bradstreet," by Mrs. A. A. Bailey. Selections from Anne Bradstreet's poetry were read by Mrs. W. F. Amos. During the social hour served refreshments. This week Mrs. A. J. Stiles, 827 Gantenben avenue, will entertain the club at 12 o'clock luncheon, after which the usual programme will be given.

A jolly group of young people passed a delightful evening recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gelinsky, 180 East Fifteenth street, the occasion being a surprise to the Gelinsky. Among those present were Miss Clara Brander, Miss Celeste I. Albin, Miss Vera Albin, Miss Julia Brandes, Miss Lottie C. Scharpf, Miss Alma Hayseth, Miss Mary Alice Koch, Miss Jennie Boehm, Miss Anna Zinger, Miss Nellie Neavold, Miss Gretchen Scharpf, Miss Margaret Neavold, Miss Fern Church, Miss Tesse Bergerson, Miss Corinne Bergerson, Miss Bea Hayseth, Mrs. E. Gelinsky, Mrs. A. B. Gelinsky, Harry Brandes, Alfred Blankholm, Paul Boehmer, Roy C. Barth, Charles Ostensen, Franklin C. Koch and George W. Holmes.

Miss Lillian Holsten was a delightful hostess on Thursday of last week when she entertained at her home on Broadway. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were: Mrs. Hoffman, Miss Hilda Esh-

ELIZABETH H. LEONARD.

Elizabeth H. Leonard.

Frederick Joseph Brown, a cigar dealer of Astoria, formerly circulation manager for the Telegram at the "City by the Sea," was married by Archbishop Christie at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to Elizabeth H. Leonard, of San Francisco. Attorney John C. McCue and Mrs. A. T. Stevart, Brown's sister, acted as witnesses.

Mr. Brown is 25 years old and his bride is 23. A few years ago he gained some distinction as a runner. His bride is well known in San Francisco, Sergeant Hermann Hofmeister, stationed at the Presidio, being her father.

CRANE'S LINEN LAW THE CORRECT WRITING PAPER FOR MONOGRAM STATIONERY FOR SALE BY W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Bldg., 4th and Washington. ONLY EXCLUSIVE WEBBING AND VISITING CARD ENGRAVERS IN NORTHWEST

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR Combination suits, $1.50 values, 85c each. Ladies' muslin night gowns, 75c each and up. Ladies' drawers, 50c each and up. A special line of white tailored and lingerie waists, 85c each. LADIES' HOSIERY Ladies' black lace hose, 75c pair. Ladies' black lace hose, 75c pair. MEN'S UNDERWEAR In blue, pink and gray; regular 75c values, now only 45c each garment. MEN'S SOCKS - Regular 25c grades, only, pair, 15c. MEN'S SHIRTS - $1.50 and $1.75 values, only, each, $1.00. Bargains in handkerchiefs, veiling, gloves and ribbons. THOMSON'S & WARNER'S CORSETS.

Becker, McLoughlin & Sweeney 441 Washington St.

Paltzsch, George Schafer and Waldemar Spillid.

Chester Potter invited Miss Essie Gray, Miss Lela Barber, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Lou Meyer, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Arthur Landis, William Montgomery, Samuel Song, Robert Huffnuth, Edward Gaynor, Jack Parnum and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howatson to a "hard times" party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howatson, East Sixteenth street and Hawthorne avenue, Wednesday evening, March 1.

The Portland Shakespeare Club enjoyed one of the best meetings of the season at the home of Mrs. J. G. Hare last Monday afternoon. Miss Marion Lowell of Boston, who was guest of honor, entertained the guests with several readings from Shakespeare. She has particular charm and skill, most pleasing. Following her readings she gave a short talk on "expression" that was highly interesting. A dainty luncheon completed the programme.

The Laurelwood Rebekah lodge held a "60c" social in the Odd Fellow's hall Thursday evening, for the benefit of sick members. The hall was decorated with greens and light colored flowers and a large number attended. Mrs. H. S. Hewitt, Mrs. Pascal Hill, and Mrs. S. Gray had charge of the evening.

A pleasant evening was passed at the

The Oregon Dingy Club held a dance at the Oregon Yacht Club Wednesday evening, when the members and their guests were arranged in artistic array. The officer in charge of the affair was Captain L. V. Woodward, of the club. Eighty couples took part in the grand march and for those not caring to dance cards were played above stairs. George Shepherd, commander of the Oregon Naval Militia, was present in uniform, as was also Vice-Commodore Bennett, of the Vancouver Yacht Club. A large number of guests were present from Vancouver.

Two dinghys ordered by the club are promised by the first of April and then some excellent racing in that class of boat is expected.

The kindergarten department of Piedmont Presbyterian Sunday School gave a very successful concert on Friday evening. The church was filled by an admiring company of parents, relatives and neighborhood friends. Over 20 children took part and their solos, choruses and recitations reflected great credit to their teacher, Miss Isabella C. Bourhill, who, assisted by other women of the congregation, has spent much time and thought in preparing the children for their appearance in public.

Miss Anna Hachell entertained at her home, 274 Hall street, last Wednesday evening for Miss Kathryn Stein, who will be married to Bernard Buck on March 28. Decorations of yellow and white predominated with large baskets of daffodils, and a number of tall candles adding to the effect. The guests were: Miss Hachell, Miss Nellie Habekost, Miss Lenamacher, Miss Lena Wilhelm, Miss Anna Reich, Miss Rose Farschmann, Miss Clara Habekost, Miss Hilda Schotter, Miss Kathryn Stein, Miss Hanna Buck, Miss Alice Hesse, Miss Jessie Tobyn and Miss Gertrude Elfers.

A group of Portland people assisted Miss Claire G. Oakes celebrate her birthday, February 25, in her apartment at 49 Inman street, Cambridge. Among those present were Miss Alice Brong, Miss Isabel Clark, Miss Leonard, Miss Tessa Dent, Miss Margaret White and Miss Dorothy White, of Baker; all students at the New England Conservatory and Carl and Emmanuel Landerholm, Harvard students. A bunch of Oregon grape and holly received that morning from Portland and greatly welcomed and a true Western spirit prevailed in the entertainment.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church at the home of Mrs. C. A. Dolph, Friday afternoon, the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. H. D. Gates; vice-presidents, Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison and Mrs. A. L. Veale; secretary, Mrs. W. H. Litzner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. A. Townsend; treasurer, Mrs. L. C. Tobias; auditor, Mrs. Grant Phegley. Following the election Mrs. James E. Failing gave an address on mission work among the negroes of the South.

The dramatic expression department of the Portland Dramatic Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Anton Giebisch next Thursday, March 16th, at 2 o'clock, by Miss Marion Lowell, of Boston and Washington, D. C.; Miss Lowell, who has the distinction of being a pupil of Steele McKaye, is a woman who has won for herself success as a dramatic reader. Her lecture will be upon "Expression as an Art and a Science," and will be illustrated with selections from Browning, Shakespeare, and other prominent classic writers.

Miss Nellie Shepard entertained for her sister, Miss Wills Shepard, recently at her home in East Portland. "50c" was played and Miss Gladys Gage and Theodore Paltzsch won the prizes. The guests were Miss Kate Schafar, Miss Olga Selmon, Miss Margaret Paltzsch, Miss Gladys Gage, Miss Clara Weist, Miss Reta Snook, Miss Emily Woods, Miss Esper Hanson, Walter Shepard, Alfred Hanson, Clifford Harrison, Oscar Spillid, Theodore

Grand Spring Fashion Exposition Monday and Week A Showing of Beautiful Millinery and Gowns for the Coming Season

MORRISON AND FOURTH Silverfield's MORRISON AND FOURTH

EXIDE, IRONCLAD OR EDISON BATTERIES MOTZ CUSHION OR PNEUMATIC TIRES

WOMAN'S EXCLUSIVE CAR The Rauch & Lang Electric is the car that any woman can drive with comfort and pleasure. No dirt. No grease. No cranking. No punctures. Just push the lever and go. Pull back the lever and stop. The control is simplicity itself. A child can drive it. The carriage work is the result of 57 years' painstaking care producing the best. Mechanically the same result has been achieved. ALL MODELS Victoria Stanhope Roadster Coupe

Fraley Bros. TWO COMPLETE Millinery Stores

GOWNS I beg to announce the arrival of the latest novelties and styles in Spring Fabrics. A. De Blanche, LADIES' TAILOR 345 1/2 Washington St. at Seventh.

An interesting gathering of Astoria folk took place at the home of Mrs. E. A. Noyes Wednesday evening, when she was assisted in receiving by Miss Sadie Noyes, Miss Mabel Weed, Miss Hazel Hobbs and Miss Noyes. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Geer, Mrs. and Mrs. Walter L. Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Hryie, Mr. and Mrs. Troyer and Mr. and Mrs. Howell.

Mrs. E. J. Raley, of Irvington, is expecting her sister, Mrs. D. E. Fields, from her home in Cottage Grove tomorrow.

Mrs. Oliver King Jeffery will leave Portland next Thursday for Cincinnati, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. C. C. Carpenter. On the way she will make short stops with friends at San Francisco, Los Angeles, St. Louis and New Orleans. Yesterday afternoon Miss Alice Dougherty entertained for her at military whist and among the affairs to take place this week will be a bridge Tuesday, given by Mrs. W. H. Scott, and a bridge party Wednesday, when Miss Hazel Tichner will be a hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman recently arrived home from California.

Mrs. George Cherry spent a few days with friends and relatives in Astoria last week.

Among the many people returning from California is Ion Lewis, after an absence of three weeks.

For Mrs. C. Allen Reed (Miss Gladys Loochow), whose wedding took place last Friday evening, and for Miss Nellie Fluke, who will also be married in the near future, Miss Nona Lawler entertained at dancing Tuesday evening at her home in Irvington. The decorations of yellow and green festooned the stairways and rooms. Ivy and Oregon grape were twined about the railings and chandeliers, while daffodils made dainty clusters of brightness in vases and bowls about the house. The entertainment was divided, about stairs cards engrossed the interest of those not caring to dance downstairs. Guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Lawler were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lutz, Miss Fluke, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Reed, Miss Ruby Critchton, Miss Maude Helen Flynn, Miss Irene Flynn, Miss Blanche Schott, Miss Nellie Stewart, Miss Elizabeth Hammond, Miss Lillian Johnson, Miss Isabelle Beckwith, Miss Zola Hitchcock, Miss Edna Johnston, Miss Maude Helcher, Miss Mary Cronan, Miss Florence Murphy, Miss Loretta Hogan, Miss Emelle Donohoe, George F. Schott, Edward Anderson, Elmer Young, Adrian Miles, Edward Morris, Albert McCalland, Barge Leonard, Robert Hitch, Bert Beckwith, R. Russell Johnson and R. M. Noonan.

Passing a few days last week at the Portland Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peterson were entertained on several occasions by their friends in this city. Prior to their marriage a fortnight ago in San Diego, Mrs. Peterson was Miss Helen Sumner, who formerly lived in Portland and attended school here. The young persons are on their way to Toledo, Ohio. Among the dinners given for them was one at the Commercial Club, when Frank Butler was host, and other guests were Miss Margaret Weber, Miss Inez Stockton and Elmer Young.

Back from the South came Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman the first part of the week, after passing a month in the Southern towns and cities of interest.

Miss Inez Stockton will leave tonight for Seattle with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mann, whose guest she will be for the coming month.

Dividing their time between San Diego and Coronado Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hoyt and Miss Katherine and Miss Louise Hoyt are in the South. They left Portland Wednesday evening and expect to remain until the latter part of April.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Simon, of this city, are passing a few days in San Francisco prior to a trip through Southern California. They will also stop there on their return trip.

Mrs. Balduz Gildner entertained last Saturday afternoon with five tables of "50c," complimenting Miss Agnes Corcoran. The rooms were attractively decorated with carnations, daffodils and Spring-time greens. Mrs. Gildner's guests were: Miss Agnes Corcoran, Miss Mary Corcoran, Mrs. Comerford, Mrs. Brannin, Miss Nancy Beale, Mrs. H. Behrendson, Miss Ruth Hansen, Miss Flora Jessop, Miss Mary Jessop, Miss Pearl Jennings, Miss Grace Jennings, Miss Margaret Monka, Miss Mary Monka, Miss Grace Noyes, Miss Lillian Post, Miss Lorette

Dr. Emil Enna was host Thursday evening at the Portland Grill at supper, following the performance at the Grand Theater, where his honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, are playing. Others who enjoyed the doctor's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey B. Smith, Miss Lucille Dunne and H. J. Eilers.

Decorated with college pennants and red carnations, the Portland Heights Club was the scene of a dancing party given by the George H. Williams chapter of the Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity Wednesday evening. In honor of the honorary and graduate members. The grand march was led by Judge and Mrs. Robert G. Morrow and the patrons were Judge and Mrs. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Strayer, Miss Strahan, Miss Allen, Miss Kierman, Miss Lavelle Florence, Miss Grace Florence, Miss Tooley, of Vancouver, Wash., Miss Norma Curran, Miss Florence, Miss Geisler, Miss Agnes Beach, Miss Johnson, Miss Harriette Jellison, Miss Hart, Miss Beckwith, Miss Hageman, Miss Hageman, Miss Bradley, Miss Hirsch, H. R. Salmarsah, F. R. Miller, John G. Schroeder, C. W. Platt, E. A. Johnson, F. M. Deneffe, F. C. Hunt, R. F. Peters, H. C. Merriman, A. B. Ridgway, J. R. Turner, J. F. Alexander, Robert Hitch, Roscoe Hunt, E. L. McDougal, V. R. Crum, E. J. Chapman, F. L. Brown, F. E. Sever and C. Michele.

Among the pleasant affairs of the week was a birthday surprise party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Huggins, 6419 Fifty-eighth street. Mrs. Huggins, for whom the occasion took place, was the recipient of many gifts, and the entertainment consisted of games, charades, music and old-fashioned spelling matches. Those taking part in the evening's festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrow, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Doran, Mrs. J. W. Wines, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Miss Ida Patterson, Miss Bernice Frelberg, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Doran, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Seward E. Allen, Miss Cora Allen, Miss Fern Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shears, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Miss Alice Johnson, Miss Ruth Harrow, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crofts, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dunbar, Mrs. J. E. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Acklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooper.

A pleasant surprise party was given for Miss Ruth and Miss Emmalita Zanello at their residence in Ladd's Addition, Saturday evening, March 4. Decorations of pink and white carnations had been placed in the parlors and the entertainment of the evening consisted of games and music. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. McCann, Mr. and Mrs. E. Zanello, Miss Delta Chamberau, Miss Calla Chamberau, Miss Anna Hasler, Miss Hazel Blakney, Miss Eva Graves, Miss Agnes Fries, Miss Carol Hand, Miss Rosa Wickham, Miss Edith Carr, Miss Rosa Lenz, Miss Ida Lenz, Edward Noyes, Julius Newberger, Arch Van Cleve, H. C. Moore, C. Larsen, C. Messing Clark, A. Mount, H. M. Bouvy, W. J. Spencer, G. A. Marrotte, J. Martin and Bred E. Clark.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club was invited to meet last week with the Whitmer, a former member of the club. The study of American literature was begun and the following papers were read: "Characteristics of Colonial Literature," by Mrs. L. M. Davis; "The Great Theologians," by Mrs. A. J.