

PEACE MOVEMENT WAITS RESPONSE

Current in Britain Is Strong but Grey Says America Now Must Speak.

VETO BATTLE APPROACHES

Tories Offer New Compromise but Riddell Kills It and Radicals Cause Asquith to Fix Day for Closing Struggle.

BY T. P. O'CONNOR, M. P. (Special Cable to the Chicago Tribune, Copyright 1911 by the Tribune Company.) LONDON, March 25.—The tide of our Anglo-American entente is following steadily and uninterruptedly, but not in such a fierce current. The agitation passed this week from the politicians to the clergymen.

A certain pause is suggested by some cautious observers, especially by Sir Edward Grey. This doubtless is inspired by the idea that it is wise to await a corresponding response from America to the wild welcome of the idea by English public opinion, but the feeling undoubtedly still is strong and unanimous and no voice dares to raise itself against it.

Home affairs still are in the lull caused by the interposition of voting appropriations. This pause is accountable for some of the rumors circulated this week that the Tories are preparing to out their speculations of a possible compromise and still engage in weaving new scenes for meeting the attack on the House of Lords by projects of self reform.

New Scheme Launched Out.

Lord Selbourne, lately governor-general of the Transvaal, started his stumping campaign with a great flourish of trumpets and in three speeches in different parts of the country he brought forward a brand new scheme of reform.

The Tory journals announced ostentatiously the new scheme and prophesied that it would knock the bottom out of the Liberal programme and the veto bill, but opposite results followed and the new scheme is bound to be merely the same as the old tinkering schemes already proposed. Lord Rosebery and Lord Lansdowne like the new scheme to retain carefully the hereditary principle and also to secure domination in the new second chamber by the Tory majority.

The scheme, therefore, already has been laughed out of court and the situation remains the same, only more so. That is to say, the conviction of the Liberals is deepened that self-reform by the Lords is quite as hopeless now as before the last election.

Veto Bill to Be Driven Through.

This leads to a greater and even fiercer determination to push on the veto bill without delay and without compromise. Two or three half-hearted Liberals are reported to have approached the Labor leaders with a scheme of compromise, but all such offers are dismissed with contempt and anger.

Indeed, so strong is the feeling of the radicals that the battle must go to the bitter end that they held a meeting to condemn Premier Asquith because he seemed to yield more time to the obstructive Tory tactics than was safe.

Another rumor started by the Tories with the view of suggesting that Asquith was weakening and that a compromise still was possible was that Parliament would separate for a full month at coronation time. At once the Tory newspapers announced that this long vacation was given for an opportunity to hold a conference and new proposals of compromise.

Battle Renewed April 3.

Asquith replied strenuously, denying any such idea caused the long vacation. He then reduced the Eastern vacation to four days and gave notice that next Monday in order to meet the obstinate Tory filibustering intended to delay the veto bill, he would propose the most drastic form of closure. Doubtless the Tories next Monday, when the closure is proposed, will raise a big howl and perhaps they will force an all-night sitting, but the Liberal bloc will be thoroughly up and Asquith's resolution will be carried at any cost. Thus the cry is cleared for the veto bill and on Monday, April 3, we shall be once more in the full fury of the veto fight.

Cabinet Weakened by Illness.

The only weakness of the ministry at the present moment is the number of its members on the sick list. This necessitates another shuffling of the ministerial cards. Secretary Haldane's removal to the House of Peers was the first step in this reconstruction, but others are expected. Lloyd-George still is absent, the majority of his throat proving obstinate and the bad weather of the last few days bringing back the old symptoms, but all of the reports that he was struck down by a malignant disease are false.

His absence weakens the ministry, especially as the debates of the last two weeks have been mainly on his budget, but the ministry ploughs its way along with the subordinates and whenever the obstruction becomes too palpable, the closure is immediately applied.

The situation in Ireland is quite satisfactory. The annual subscription for the parliamentary party has just started with a big boom, largely helped by gigantic gatherings in every English and Scotch railway station, which threatened their good relations for years, approaches an amicable settlement. A wave of peaceful feeling is passing over Europe and many are visions already of international and universal peace, all of which helps the cause of home rule as the necessary and first point of departure in relieving England from the danger and shame of an unreconciled and unliberated Ireland.

Relations With Germany Improve.

One indirect but prompt effect of the campaign for an Anglo-American entente is that England's relations with Germany have entered into a new and friendlier stage and even the difficult Bagdad railway question, which threatened their good relations for years, approaches an amicable settlement. A wave of peaceful feeling is passing over Europe and many are visions already of international and universal peace, all of which helps the cause of home rule as the necessary and first point of departure in relieving England from the danger and shame of an unreconciled and unliberated Ireland.

FOE ANGRERS CAMORRISTS

Prisoners Prepare Fierce Attack on Evidence.

VITERBO, Italy, March 25.—The attorneys for the defense hocked to the Santa Maria in Gradi today to consult with their clients on the counter attacks to be made on the informer, Gennaro Abbatemaggio, when the trial of the 36 Camorrista is resumed next Tuesday.

With a fine show of indignation the accused declared that when permitted to speak they would refute their former associate's "inventions." During the trial they said they had composed themselves with great discretion, in order not to disturb the serenity of the court, which "certainly must eventually acknowledge their innocence."

Abbatemaggio's cleverness in telling his story yesterday filled the Camorrista with rage. Posing as a penitent, prepared if need be to give his full explanation of his crimes, the informer made a deep impression, and the lawyers for the defense today decided on a long list of questions to be put to him during his examination, in the hope of discrediting his testimony.

The priest, Ciro Vitozzi, during the conference with his lawyers delivered the conference with memoirs which he has been occupied in preparing during his

PIONEER WOMAN OF ROSEBURG, CALLED "GRANDMA," IS NO MORE.

Mrs. Melinda Kuykendall, 87, ROSEBURG, Or., March 25.—Special.—Mrs. Melinda Kuykendall, 87 years old, a pioneer resident of Douglas County, died at the home of her son, E. W. Kuykendall, in this city, yesterday of pneumonia. "Grandma" Kuykendall, as she was familiarly known here, was born in Vigo County, Indiana, in 1824, where she resided during the early part of her life. When a young woman she married John Kuykendall. The couple crossed the plains in search of a home in Oregon, arriving in this state in 1853. They located in Tualatin Plains, where they remained for a year, thence moving to the Umpqua Valley and settling near Wilbur, eight miles north of Roseburg. Her husband, John Kuykendall, died 18 years ago, the widow making her home with her sons. Mrs. Kuykendall is survived by four sons, Dr. G. B. Kuykendall, of Pomeroy, Wash.; Dr. William Kuykendall, of Eugene; H. C. Kuykendall, of California; E. W. Kuykendall, of Roseburg; and one daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Pickering, wife of Colonel Albert Pickering, U. S. A., who is stationed in the Philippine Islands. The remains will be sent to Eugene for burial.

AMERICAN WINS RECORD

PUTNAM THROWS HAMMER MORE THAN 153 FEET.

Oklahoma Man Beaten in Fast 100-Yard Dash—Oxford Loses to Cambridge by Two Points.

LONDON, March 25.—Cambridge won the annual intervarsity sports with Oxford at Queen's Club today, with six points to four.

The annual intervarsity sports of Oxford and Cambridge were held at Queen's Club, O. S. Putnam, a Rhodes scholar at Oxford, from Kansas, was an easy winner in the hammer throw, beating the variety record with a mark of 153 feet 3 inches.

W. A. Zeigler, from Iowa, also of the Oxford team, was second, with a throw of 134 feet 1 inch. R. L. Lange, of Oklahoma, a third Rhodes scholar, who was expected to credit Oxford with the 100-yard dash, was beaten by M. McMillan of Cambridge, by half a yard. MacMillan's time was 19 seconds.

A year ago Putnam won the hammer throw, making 145 feet 8 inches. Zeigler captured the weight event today with 39 feet 6 1/2 inches. Putnam was second with 37 feet 7 1/2 inches. Lange was third with 35 feet 10 inches, but was out of form and soon gave up.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save 22 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix a pint of granulated sugar with 3/4 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in gualitol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully.
