PLANS FOR UNION United Evangelical Conference Pledges Co-operation to Bring Result. LARGE COLLEGE INDORSED Presiding Elder in Address Warns Members That Moving-Picture Shows Are Becoming Competitor of Churches. Federation at once and organic union with the Evangelical Association as soon as it can be brought about was the ous sentiment expressed yesterday by the Oregon conference of the United Evangelical Church. Approval of the action taken by the general conferences of the two branches of the Evanelical denomination was voted in the doption of the following expression by

the conference: The conference: "It is with thankfulness that we note the growing sentiment in favor of or-ganic unlog of the United Evangelical Church and the Evangelical Association. which has crystallized into the appointand federation by the last two general and reservices of the denominations, and we rejuice to note the successful and brotherly spirit which characterized the first meeting of the joint commission held recently in Chicago.

Co-operation Pledged:

We are glad to note that we are in full accord with the action of our com-mission on the question of federation and erganic union of these two bodies. We are ready to co-operate in every pos-ships may with the commission to not only foster this semiment of federation and brotherly interest, but to assist in carrying out the purpose of all these interests and prayers, to besten the organic union of all the descendants of Jacob Albright.

"In order that we may assist in carry-ing out the action of the joint commis-mion on federation and organic union we recommend that a committee of not less than five ministers and two laymen be appointed to co-operate with a like com-mittee from the Oregon conference of Thus they are being educated, the boys and girls of the light, trashy stage performance and likerature of the day. It is my condition that trashy stage performance and literature of the day. It is my candid opinion that the cheap nickelodeon is a greater evil than the regular theater. It creates a tasts for the performance of the stage. The iendency of it all is downward and not upward. I believe it a curse and not a bleasing. It is not satisfied with six days, but is taking the Lord's day whereon it is allowed and becomes a competitor of the church." Have you ever been out to the southeast part of the city where the new Reed Institute is to be and where millions are to be expended in improvements in the near future? It is a beautiful trip out past the Golf Links and the Institute to Errol Heights. You will enjoy the ride, the magnificent view and the few hours spent in the open.

The South Half of Errol Heights is on the crest of the hill, only one block from Errol Station. It is an ideal picnic ground, with grass and fine evergreen trees and is the most sightly property ever offered in Portland and the best bargain to be found today.

Bring your family with you-they will all enjoy it. Come to our office for free tickets or get them from our representative with the badge at the northeast corner of First and Alder streets. There is no obligation on your part. We like to advertise and want you to see this beautiful locality.
