

FIGHT ABOUT VETO BITTER, BUT SHAM

Tories Filibuster in Defense of Lords to Save Face With People.

CONCLUSION IS FOREGONE

After Giving Ample Rope, Asquith Will Impose Closure and Force Vote—Home Rule Coming to Front as Live Issue.

BY T. P. O'CONNOR, M. P. (By cable to the Chicago Tribune; copyright, 1911, by the Tribune Co.) LONDON, April 8.—(Special.)—The fight over the veto bill began in earnest in the Commons this week and, though it was bitter and prolonged, it never lost the appearance of being a sham fight, which will end in the complete surrender of the Tories to the demands of the Liberal government.

COAST HAS GAINED 50,000

for location in Oregon and Washington during previous years, we have had three such queries this year. Thousands of persons have come through Chicago on their way to the Pacific Northwest as a result of the colonist rates that have been offered and it has been necessary for us to add extra cars to our trains very frequently in order to accommodate patrons of this class.

Or. The fact that passenger business into Oregon and Washington is increasing during each colonist period is convincing evidence of the fact that wonderful opportunities are there for those who wish to take advantage of them.

Travel Grows Year by Year.

Statistics compiled by the officers of the Harriman roads show that during the two colonist rate periods in 1910 44,000 passengers took advantage of these fares to reach California points alone. In 1909 the total was 50,000.

An impetus to the colonist travel to California and the Pacific Northwest has been given by the Union Pacific road, which began operating a special train yesterday west from Omaha to cities on the ocean's edge.

According to figures prepared by E. E. Wade, assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, 2437 more persons went to California from the East on colonist tickets in the first 13 days the rates were in effect this Spring than took advantage of similar rates during the same period last year.
