For the Woman Who Has Beautiful Hair
(New York Theatrical News).
The hair in the Anna Held chorus are famous for their pluckitude. Their coiffures add a great deal to their charms. How they can stand day in and day out, keeping always the same well-groomed appearance, is beyond the ken of the average woman.
While I whisper, these girls depend almost entirely upon dry shampooing to keep the hair fine and glossy.
They mix 4 ounces of powdered orris root with 1 ounce of thyme, and they are prepared for a season's shampooing. Once or twice a week they sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the head and then brush the powder well to it, and they have escaped the bother and discomfort that accompany washing, rinsing and drying the hair, together with the danger of catching cold.
The wonderful results they achieve with therox convince me that it is the only thing that can grow hair, for their hair is long and abundant in addition to being fluffy and lustrous.—Adv.
