

WE NEED NOT SHOW BANK BOOKS

Secrets of Lorimer "Slush" Protected by Decision of Judge Petit.

INQUIRY IS HELD ILLEGAL

Alleged Treasurer of Fund and His Bankers Released From Order to Testify About Source of Cash Used as Bribes.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Hope of the Helm committee of the Illinois Senate that it might learn from the private bank account of Edward Tilden the source of the $100,000 alleged to have been entrusted to him as a fund to secure the election of William Lorimer as United States Senator was dimmed today by a decision of the Circuit Court.

The decision took nearly an hour to read and included a quantity of the verbatim testimony taken before the Helm committee at Springfield. It was seen from the report that the committee was inclined to uphold the contention of the defendant's attorney, Nathaniel C. Sears, that the Senate had not the right to inquire into the private accounts of a person named as indirectly as Sears avowed Tilden was, especially when that person, under oath, declared that his accounts would throw any light on the subject at issue.

Tilden was named by Clarence Funk, of the International Harvester Company, as a person to whom he was directed to send a check for $10,000 to make up a fund of $100,000 alleged to have been used in securing United States Senator William J. Lorimer.
