WOODMEN TO BUILD CABIN.—A Woodman of the World cabin upon the state fairgrounds at Salem, will be erected by 200 members of the order from Portland, so that visiting Woodmen at the fair may be entertained. Such is the scheme of the 200 men who will take a special car over the Oregon Electric road today. A feature of the gathering will be the initiation into the order of Governor West and Secretary of State Olcott. Nearly 500 Sunday will be taken by the fraternity for their deliberations.

DR. OTIS AKIN TO SPEAK.—In these days of extreme styles and shoe knowledge of the normal foot and its proper clothing is of real importance, especially to mothers. The Young Women's Christian Association is fortunate in having an address on the subject by Dr. Otis Akin today at 4 o'clock, in the auditorium of the building, Seventh and Taylor streets. All women are cordially invited. The music for the afternoon will be given by Miss Carmel Sullivan and Misses Myrtle and Eva Thompson.

ROSE ORGANOGRAPHS GRATITUDE.—The management of the flower booth of the Kirmess wish to thank William L. Sison for his gift of several hundreds of beautiful roses, which they extended to the assistance which they gave. The management is also indebted to Oida, Wortman & King, to J. K. Gill Co. and to the Portland Seed Company.

SOME WAYS TO "MORE AUTO PARTIES."—Some ways to "more auto parties" drive out Hawthorne avenue past East Nor Hill—Now how is that? He calls Buchanan's "Addition" to the Hill—not bad either. It is a sunny place to live and has a fine view. Then, there are first-class improvements and large lawns. Mount Tabor is coming up the scale in class of buildings.

ROSE CARNIVAL.—Our 400 satisfied owners of "Duntley Vacuum Cleaners" is the best evidence we have of their efficiency and durability. Names and addresses on application. DRUGGIST FINED FOR SELLING BEER.—For selling six quart bottles of beer on Sunday, L. Benninghoff, a druggist of Kenton, paid a fine of $100 in Municipal Court yesterday. He was arrested upon information of Patrolman Niles, who witnessed the transaction. Benninghoff made defense by showing the prescription slip, signed by Dr. Hall, but the physician testified that he meant to order malt extract, an innocuous compound, within the liquor law.

MISS JESSIE PAULINE HAMILTON DIES.—Miss Jessie Pauline Hamilton died at the home of her parents, 1624 1/2 Hawthorne avenue, yesterday, at the age of 16 years and 10 months. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton. The funeral will be held from the parlors of the East Side Funeral Directors this afternoon and interment will be in Multnomah Cemetery.

PEAS LAID IN CHEAPER.—Frank L. Smith has put the price of absolutely pure lard to 60c for a five-pound pail. He has cut the price of fancy sugar-cured hams to 15c. Ask for Smith's ham for the same price, 15c; Smith's sliced ham is 20c and 25c; Frank L. Smith's sugar-cured bacon is 15c and 20c, and his sliced bacon is reduced to 20c and 25c; all his markets sell shoulder roast pork, cut out, for 12 1/2c, and the center cuts are 15c; shoulder pork chops are 15c and loin pork chops are 15c and 20c; eat Smith's pork sausage, it is only 12 1/2c a pound; the link sausage is 15c; that peer of all butters, Smith's Oregon Norway creamery butter is only 50c for two pounds; it is the best butter in the state and the cheapest. The above prices prevail at every one of Frank L. Smith's 24 markets.

A DIVIDEND OF 20 PER CENT ON CLAIMS filed and approved, having been ordered by the United States Circuit Court for the District of Oregon. Creditors are notified to present their books, certificates of deposit, or other evidence of indebtedness, for the payment of the above dividend, at the office of the receiver, corner of Second and Washington streets, Portland, Or. R. S. Howard, Jr., receiver of the Title Guaranty & Trust Company, Portland, Or., May 6, 1911.

BURROUGHS ADDING MACHINES USEFUL.—The Oregonian is able to give early and correct returns from the election due to the fact that six Burroughs adding and listing machines were used for that purpose. These machines were loaned us through the courtesy of the local office of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company in the Commercial Club building.

WASHINGTON PIONEER DIES AT 83.—George McDonald died at the home of M. McDonald, 430 Oregon street, Thursday. He was a pioneer resident of Washington and was 83 years old. The funeral will be held from Lerch's chapel, East Sixth and East Alder streets, today at 2 P. M. and the interment will be at the Lower Cascades.

PROTECTION FOR PLUMBER
 Strikers Accused of Assault on Employee of Contractor.

First trouble in connection with the strike of the plumbers, which began a week ago, was reported to the police yesterday by Thomas Hulme, a contractor working at Front and Columbia streets. Hulme appealed for protection, saying that a party of the strikers had visited the scene of his work yesterday morning and had threatened his workmen. He said they threatened to return and "clean up" the rest of the gang.

H. Heiser was accused of committing the assault and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

PRESS CLUB PROSPERS

WOMEN WRITERS OF OREGON HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

Novelist, Playwright and Writer of Songs Among New Members. Officers Are Elected.

The annual meeting of the State Woman's Press Club of Oregon was held Wednesday night in a committee room in the City Hall, and was the occasion for much enthusiasm among the large number of members present. The report of the treasurer showed the financial condition of the club to be most satisfactory, while the secretary recorded a series of very interesting programmes as well as one or two social functions, which have made the year one of pleasure and profit. Several new members, including the author of a successful novel, a playwright and a writer of verses and songs, were enrolled during the year. The club mourns the death of the faithful and talented worker, Mrs. Catherine C. Chapman.

The president, Mrs. M. L. T. Hadden, in her annual address, spoke feelingly of the ideal conditions existing in the club and the good-fellowship among the members. The election of officers illustrated the harmonious spirit. Mrs. L. B. Bartlett made a short speech in appreciation of the work of the officers, and upon motion of Mrs. Bartlett, Miss Helen Sayr Gray cast the unanimous vote of the club for the re-election of Mrs. Hadden for president, also for the re-election of Miss L. G. Richardson for treasurer and Mrs. Evelyn Allen Atchison for recording secretary. Mrs. W. L. LaBarre, who has been corresponding secretary, was unanimously elected vice-president, to take the place of Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, now in England. Mrs. Blanch Rafalsky was unanimously chosen corresponding secretary. The county vice-presidents include Mrs. Lucia Faxon Addison, who was the founder and first president of the club.

SPECIAL CAR

COMPOSERS TO BE HEARD

Original Productions Will Be Feature of Teachers' Convention.

One of the unique features of the coming Pacific Northwest Music Teachers' Association meeting to be held in Portland June 7, 8 and 9, will be the "original manuscript concert." Musical compositions by many members of the association will be produced by the composers themselves. Among the features of this original programme will be:

Songs written by Miss Ethel Abbott, director of music at St. Paul street, south of Third, of her own songs, by Mrs. Carr Moore, of Seattle.

Two piano compositions by Mrs. Francis Richter.

Mrs. Chandler Sloan, of Tacoma, will sing "Spring Has Come," by Miss Drusilla S. Perceval, of Seattle.

Mrs. Gerard Tonding, pianiste, of Seattle, will present a song cycle for four solo voices.

Walter G. Reynolds, of Tacoma, assisted by another pianist, will give his composition, "Overture to the Music Drama, 'Nimrod'."

Overture, "America," for orchestra, arranged for two pianos, composed by Father Dominic, of St. Mary's Church, Mount Angel, and played by himself and a former pupil, Mrs. Alice Brown Marshall, who has charge of the details of the convention, is pleased with the meritorious standard of the musical manuscripts that have been pouring in as a result of her request for original productions. W. H. Boyer's big Portland chorus will sing on the opening night.

Income-Bearing Property.

We have for sale a piece of property, 30 by 100 feet, on Fourth street, south of Davis. It is leased for two years at $200 per month. Price of this is $30,000, and is well worth your inspection. For particulars apply to

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Nina Larowe wishes to offer her heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who honored her with letters and cards of condolence and beautiful flowers in the hour of her great bereavement, the death of her brother, the late Dr. J. H. Churchman. Especial thanks are tendered to the Masons, the Grand Army members and the Flax and Game Association for their beautiful ceremonies and loving words at the funeral chapel and crematorium.
