The following account of the Sutton-Wilson wedding, which took place in San Francisco Wednesday, May 17, will interest Portland folk, as Miss Wilson is known here and as Mr. Sutton is a nephew of Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, and also as Kenneth Beebe was best man at the affair:

Pink roses in profusion, in all their shades, from the full pink of the American Beauty to the palest pink of the Bridesmaid, formed the floral setting in Trinity Church for the wedding at noon yesterday of Miss Maude Wilson and Effingham Sutton.

The altar was banked with the roses, and at every third pew in the main aisle of the church a great cluster was fastened with wedding tulle.

Through the aisle of roses the bridal procession was led by the ushers, Herbert Gallagher, Eyre Pinckard, Temple Bridgman, Robert Van Sant, Arthur Brown and Ward Maillard. The sextet of bridesmaids in their gowns of pink and white, and the two maids of honor with a touch of blue in their pretty gowns made an attractive group before the advance of the bride in her gown of white satin.

She was given in marriage by her father, Edgar M. Wilson, and the impressive service was read by Rev. Frederick Clampett.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white duchesse satin and lace with an elaboration of pearls on the bodice, and the costume was finished with the conventional tulle veil and coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley.

The two maids of honor were Miss Anita Maillard and Miss Louise McCormick, who wore similar gowns of white chiffon embellished with blue satin trimming in bands on the bodice. They wore picturesque flat hats trimmed with the blue.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel McAllister, Miss Mildred Whitney, Miss Lealie Page, Miss Agnes Tillmann, Miss Lillian Whitney and Miss Barbara Sutton.

Their gowns were of white marquisette with a bodice of rose pink satin and an applique of lace that was extended to the sleeve and finished the Dutch neck. The bodice had a lacing of pink satin bands at the corsage and each bridesmaid carried pink roses. Their hats were trimmed with the pink that was so effective in the gowns.

Kenneth Beebe filled the office of best man.

After the ceremony in the church, where several hundred guests assembled, there was an informal reception at the home of the bride's parents, but less than 100 friends were bidden there.

The breakfast was a delightful occasion. The tables were decorated with the same varieties of pink roses that adorned the church. The bride's table was decorated with roses and lilies of the valley, with maidenhair fern as the touch of green in the color scheme.

Miss Leslie Page became possessed of the ring in the bride's cake. Miss Constance McLaren caught the bride's bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton have gone for a brief wedding trip, but will return to reside in San Francisco.

Festivities of the week just past had their origin Monday night with the subscription ball at Murlark given by the joint patronage of the married folks' Monday Evening Club and the Young People's Subscription Club. Pink shaded lights with streamers to the sides of the hall combined with the blossoms of dogwood to make most effective decorations. Patronesses were Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mrs. David C. Lewis and Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman. Unusually attractive gowns marked the occasion and the attendance was more than is usually the case at these subscription dances.

The following is from a Tacoma paper. The persons mentioned are well known in Portland:

"Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hurley entertained Monday evening at the Union Club at a dinner for 30 in honor of President Elliott, of the Northern Pacific Railroad. The affair brought together a group of people especially interested in the construction of the new Union Station, one of the finest in the West. President Elliott, Mr. Stem, of the celebrated firm of architects in charge; Mr. Hurley and Mr. Mason, of Portland, representing the Hurley-Mason Company, general contractors, in charge of building operations. The appointments were handsome and a wealth of Spring flowers glowed under shaded lights on the table and about the rooms. The official party were: President Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Stem, James Woodworth, of St. Paul; Henry C. Nutt, of Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason, of Portland. The Tacoma guests invited to meet them were Major and Mrs. Everett G. Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius R. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Softly shaded lights, the perfume of flowers, bright music and handsomely gowned women marked the very successful annual tea given for the Patton Home at the home of Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Thursday afternoon. The drawing-rooms were decorated with quantities of Scotch broom whose golden tints harmonized admirably with the browns of the walls and hangings. In the dining-room, Scotch broom was combined with large clusters of snowballs. Receiving were: Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. John H. Burgard, Mrs. D. H. Rand, Mrs. R. F. Weaver, Mrs. Oscar Ballow, Mrs. Lang, and Mrs. C. C. Newcastle. Young Miss Gertrude Harris was mistress of the door. In the dining-room was a bevy of attractive young matrons serving tea assisted by a number of young matrons in dainty white frocks.

Mrs. William Gadsby entertained the Monday Bridge Club, of which she is a member, at luncheon May 15. The dining-room was decorated with sweet peas in delicate pastel tones and maiden hair ferns. After luncheon cards were played and Mrs. G. W. Simpson won first honors.

BRIDEGROOM TRAVELS FAR TO MAKE PORTLAND GIRL HIS BRIDE

ENSIGN RUCHIN R. SMITH AND MRS. SMITH.

After a voyage of 9000 miles Ensign Ruchin Robert Smith won Miss Hilda Helen Gumbert for his bride Thursday evening at the home, in this city, of the young woman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Gumbert, 668 Kearney street, where Rabbit Jonah B. Wise performed the ceremony. The romance had its beginning four years ago when Miss Gumbert was a student at the University of Washington, and Ensign Smith was with the battleship Nebraska, then in the Bremerton Navy-Yard. Mr. Smith, who is a Salt Lake City man, is at present with the monitor Monterey, stationed at Manila as headquarters. On their honeymoon these young persons will travel extensively through Japan, sailing from San Francisco June 6, China and the Islands of the Pacific Ocean until early Autumn, when Mr. Smith's leave will expire. Pink roses and sweet peas were combined as house decorations for the wedding and white satin in long simple empire lines touched with rose point and pearl was the gown of the bride, who also wore a full-length veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Her attendants were: Maid-of-honor, Mrs. Edna Smith, a sister of the bridegroom, who wore pink marquisette over satin and carried bridemaid's roses. Showers of pink sweet peas were the flowers of the bridesmaids, Miss Madelline Stone and Miss Olive Rosenthal, whose frocks were dainty lingerie affairs over pink. M. L. Gumbert, a brother of the bride, was best man.

GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST

There were few social activities at the Post last week. What with the "hike" of the First Infantry to the range and the coming of Battery F, Second Field Artillery, there has been little time for anything but the actual business life. True, duty must precede pleasure always. No little excitement has been caused by the news that much more of the tract reserved for the Army post may be cleared and Vancouver Barracks used as a place to assemble all troops in the Department of the Columbia, with the exception of the Coast Artillery.

* * *

Though the entire First Infantry was ordered to the range, 16 miles from the Post, the rain made maneuvers impossible and after a day or two of tiresome tramping and heavy downpouring rain the regiment returned to the Post.

* * *

Receiving Colonel Sidney Taylor of the Second Field Artillery, who arrived at the Post last Monday by special train from San Francisco, were Colonel George K. McGunnegle, Captain John R. Thomas and Captain Clyffard Game. It was found that Colonel Taylor outranks both Colonel Cornelius Gardener, who has had charge of the Department of the Columbia in the absence of General Marion P. Maus on the Mexican border, and Colonel McGunnegle of the Post, so he has assumed both positions. Colonel Taylor has brought to the post his wife and his daughter.

* * *

Colonel Gardener, who was in command at Fort Seward, Alaska, before coming to Vancouver, may go to California before returning north.

* * *

Other officers who arrived at the Post Monday with the new battery are: Captain W. S. Guignard, Captain Henry W. Butner, First Lieutenants William T. Jones and William F. Morrison, and Second Lieutenants Charles P. George, Jr., and Regert S. Parrott. Lieutenants Morrison and Parrott are married and their wives will take an active part in the Post life.

* * *

Battery E, Second Field Artillery, ordered to the Post, left Manila last Monday and will arrive in Vancouver about June 15 under command of Captain Charles C. Pulis.

* * *

Friends of Major George E. Pickett were grieved to learn of his death on the transport from Manila to San Francisco recently. He was ill before leaving the islands. His body has been sent to Washington, D. C., for burial.

* * *

Mrs. Fales entertained informally with two tables of bridge Saturday night.

* * *

Mrs. Maus, wife of General Marion P. Maus, who has been absent from the Post since the early part of the month, is expected to return about June 1.

* * *

Among the nominations sent to the Senate May 9 were the following of local interest: Captain Francis E. Lacey, First Infantry to be Major, and Second Lieutenants Arthur J. Davis and Arthur D. Budd, First Infantry, to be promoted to First Lieutenants. Captain Lacey will go on duty with the Connecticut National Guard. Lieutenant Davis, who is at present on leave, will go to the Fourth Infantry, and Lieutenant Budd will be with the Twenty-fifth Infantry.

* * *

Second Lieutenant Kenneth Perkins, of the Second Field Artillery which was stationed at the post last Winter, was nominated at the same time for promotion to the First Field Artillery as First Lieutenant.

* * *

Recent orders from the War Department announce the transfer of Major Robert H. Noble of the First Infantry to the Twelfth Infantry. He is to remain with the "First" until his new regiment returns from the Islands. Major Noble is in San Francisco renewing his old friendships.

* * *

Lieutenant Dana Crissy, of the Sixty-fourth Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Miley, and Miss Beatrice Guittard, of San Francisco, were married in St. Francis' Church, San Francisco, a week ago last evening. A few friends witnessed the ceremony. There had been no engagement announced and the reception which followed the ceremony was very small. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Etienne Guittard, and is a pretty brunette. She is a great favorite at the Presidio, where she has often been charmingly conspicuous at the hops. At present Lieutenant and Mrs. Crissy are honeymooning in Southern California, but will go soon to Fort Miley.

* * *

News comes from New York of the wedding which will take place soon of Lieutenant Arthur Frances Carter, U. S. N., and Miss Augusta Heacock, of that city, though previously of California. Miss Heacock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellsworth Heacock, who for many years filled an important place in the social world of San Francisco.

* * *

Miss Elizabeth Sears was hostess of the Afternoon Bridge Club last Monday afternoon.

* * *

Among those who went over from Portland for the hop at the post recently were Miss Isabella Gauld, Miss Marguerite Hume, Miss Alice Hiller, Miss Barbara Crocker, Miss Cornelia Cook, Miss Cully Cook, Miss Louise Williams, Seaton Taylor and Dennis Pillsbury.

* * *

Miss Isabel McGunnegle passed several days in Portland last week, a guest at the home of the Misses Wilson.

Freckles

How to remove them—avoid strong bleaching preparations

The only known cause of your freckles is the sun. Heat of any kind is supposed to have some influence, but the causes of freckles are still a subject of investigation.

Beyond being disfiguring, they give rise to no serious trouble, pain or suffering and for this reason are in nine cases out of ten neglected.

Woodbury's Facial Soap used in the following manner is successful and you should start at once as freckles are conspicuous for months after Summer has gone.

Wash your face thoroughly with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. After thoroughly rinsing in warm water, apply a lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap for fully five minutes. As soon as your face begins to smart, remove all the soap with warm water, followed by an abundance of cold water. Repeat this procedure night and morning or oftener until your face shows signs of peeling.

Freckles being a discoloration of the skin, can be removed only by "forcing" the removal of the outer layer of your skin.

Woodbury's Facial Soap softens the skin so that it gradually comes off. When the skin begins to peel, rub it thoroughly with Woodbury's Facial Cream. After the dryness and redness have passed away, begin the soap and water treatment again.

In two or three weeks, the greater number of your freckles will have gone and the new skin that forms will be clear and smooth, a skin you can be proud of.
