DEMOCRATS HAVE FLECTION HOPES

Washington Contingent Feels Encouraged by Split in Republican Party.

WILSON IS VERY STRONG

Candidates for Governor Lining Up in Expectation That Presidential Nominee Will Be Able to Puli the Ticket Through.

SEATTLE, Wash. June 17.—(Special.)
—From the disruption and chaotic condition of Republican politics in the State of Washington, the Democrats hope to make material gains during the campaign of 1912. For that reason they are keeping a watchful eye on National politics, with the question of leaderable always in mind, and the confident expectation that the right man at the head of the Presidential ticket will swing great numbers of disaffected Republicans temporarily at least into the bourbon ranks. This is one of the motives that is influencing Chairman Helfner, of the state committee, and probably explains why he is so ardently supporting Governor Wilson as the National standard-bearer.

Helfner, who has always worshipped at the shrine of Bryaniam, remains in the Elast after attending the conference in St. Paul, and is understood to be actively engaged in shaping the lines for the New Jersey executive. In the bellef of the state chairman the nomination of Wilson would go further toward making Washington a Democratic state than would the naming of any other aspirant, for the obvious reason, as he contends, that the Governor of New Jersey was received most enthusiatically, regardless of party affiliations, during his recent visit to this state.

On the other hand, Democrats like

On the other hand, Democrats like On the other hand, Democrats like George Murphy, who also attended the Si. Paul conference, are inclined to differ from Helfner. Murphy would like to have a hand in bringing about the nomination of Governor Harmon, of Oillo. It is the contention of this wing of the Democracy that Harmon represents the principles of the party as they spring almon-pure and undefiled from the fount of Jeffersonianism, and that the particitic course is to stand that the parietic course is to stand by Harmon to the last ditch. As if in favor of Harmon, through a negative process, are supporters of Champ Clark. Like Heifner, they are supposed to be Bryanites originally, and therefore pre-sumptively followers of Wilson; but simplively followers of wilson, but since they choose to favor Clark, it is clear that the strength assembled by the Speaker of the House will be drawn the forces that logically ought to

All Eyes Are on State Ticket.

It is not such a long jump from the National ticket to the state ticket, and accordingly the Democracy, which is always hopeful in the face of over-whelming Republican odds, is casting about with a number of state offices in mind and the determination to take a long shot at the Covernorship. This mind and the determination to take a long shot at the Governorship. This is where a popular naminee for President would add strength to the local licket; and these considerations, it is said, explain why Hugh Todd, twice a Democratic member of the lower house from Whitman County and each time the youngest member of the Legislature, has opened law offices in Seattle, with the expectation of becoming attle, with the expectation of be a radical candidate for Governor next year. While at present his only avowed rival is W. H. Dunphy, of Walla Walla. other possibilities will come to light before the end of the year. These as-plyants for Democratic nominations, backed by the arguments of such leaders as Helfner and Murphy may do a great deal toward influencing the state delegation to the Democratic National

While the Democrats are juggling with the names of Wilson and Harmon. the Republicans do not find much in-spiration in the topic of National lead-ership. The situation seems to point to Gevernor Hay against the field. One of the minor points, which after all may have its influence on the Gubernatorial situation, is the effect of the statute passed by the last Legislature provid-ing for a State Board of Accountancy with authority to supervise and check up state, county, municipal and district accounts, compensation of 18 per day for each member of the board to be paid respectively by the body politic

New Law Starts Aspirations.

This law, which is credited to the collidest accured of State Auditor W. lausen, has been attacked in court on the ground that it illegally authorizes special taxation, but it has been upheld in the Superior Court for King County, and probably will not be tested in the Supreme Court. Inasmuch as It has a chance to go into effect, there is con-siderable interest in it among politiclans who would like to serve the state In return for $8 a day. More than that, there is not a little speculation as to how powerful an effect it might have in tending to upbuild a machine, since its members will go into every part of the state and will have ample time and olitical connubiation.

A newspaper account states that time, Clausen appointments on the Board of Accountancy will work to the Auditor's advantage and how far they will aid Covernor Hay in his ambition to succeed himself. For two years there has been a covert understanding that the Auditor's appointees, inspecting accounts throughout the state, have been a covert understanding that the counts throughout the state, have been and the work of this convention: ertending the influence of Hay, and hence that Gubernatorial politics will enter into the work of the new board. There are now at least three dozen active examiners in the field, the list including Stewart E. Smith. Thad L. Hughes, Willard W. Clark, E. D. Manning. Matt H. Gormley, J. W. McConnaughey, Ben Levy, Fred D. Chesnut. Roberts, George A. Liebes, Charles M. Veight and Frank L. Mitten, Seat-tle; O. U. Tatro, C. W. Karner and E. Tennant, Spokane; N. M. Hawkins and W. W. Payne, Port Angeles; L. D. Brown and Pred Pratt. Bellingham; Charles Watson and De Lancey Wallace. Walla Walla: W. S. Darrow and Ben R. Fish, Olympia; Arthur E. Morse and Fred L. Mills, Puyaliup; W. W. Reed, Smahomish; Arthur Osborne, H. G. Bundrem and W. H. Richards, Tacoma; Rundrem and W. H. Richards, Lacollar, T. Reed Jones, Chehalifs; C. F. Heemer, Lind; George H. Wallace, Klesling; P. H. Wilson, Hailard; J. L. Dittemore, Dayton. The list is instructive, as showing that practically every corner of the state can be drawn upon for the talent required in this kind of work.

SALEM, Or., June 17 .- (Special) .-Declaring that the State of Oregon is ming approximately from $10,000 to $25,000 annually because of foreign corporations entering this state to transact business without complying with Oregon laws requiring the filing of certain papers and the payment of declaration and annual license fees, Secretary of State Olcott is sending out letters to all District Attorneys in the state requesting them to advise him of all such corporations in his district that the fines and license fees may be recovered by actions at law. "It does not seem to be generally known," said Secretary Olcott in a known," said Secretary Olcott in a statement issued today, "that there is any penalty attached to the failure of foreign corporations to comply with laws of this state in regard to the faws of this state in teach of the filing of declarations, power of the filing of declarations of the artiattorney and certified copy of the arti-cles of incorporation. However, I have concluded that section 6707 of Lord's Oregon laws applies to for-eign corporations that enter this state and commence the transaction of business without first filing the above papers and paying the declaration and annual license fees. The section above cited provides that 'every such corperation, joint stock company or ass ciation, foreign as well as domestic, shall pay an annual license fee in proportion to the amount of its authorized capital stock, and 'any corporation, joint stock company or association dobusiness in this state contrary this act shall be liable to a fine of $100, to be recovered, together with any license fee due, by an action at law in the name of the state.

Secretary Olcott also called attention to the fact that in addition to the
