AIRSHIP CRASHES TAILLESS KITE

Aviator Walsh Escapes Injury at La Grande as Machine Takes Dart.

TREE IS BIRDMAN'S SAVER

Downward Flight of Aeroplane a Slight Angle in Which Walsh Had No Control Except for Instant He Dodged Roof.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 8 - (Special.)-Freaks in air currents, or, more correctly stated, lack of air currents, sumbled Charles F. Walsh, well-known aviator, to the ground with his machine here today, and while the air craft is torn and twisted, the aviator is the most active of those striving to repair the broken machine in time for a flight to-

It was a sensational dive from a 50-foot altitude that "froze" the large assemblage in its tracks and instantly hushed a shout of approval instigated a moment before by a beautiful ascent from the

The machine was tilted upwards and skimming at a spiendid rate of speed when, without a moment's warning, it started downward, careening and swerving like a falliess kite. Walsh says he struck a seeming vacuum in the air.

The downward flight was at a slight angle in which the birdman had no control except for an instant when he trol except for an instant when he dedged the roof of a house only to tip the right plane and secondary lateral the right plane and secondary lateral balance into a tree. The next moment the machine turned end for end and came down with a crash that left it a twisted mass of innk. The engines were unfurt, but the propellor broke. The frightened crowd found the swiator stunned but without a scratch, thrown from his seat by the jerk of the tree. The start was particularly successful, and what looked like a sensational flight was abruptly ended before the machine had gone two blocks. But for the fortunate twist that hit a tall lawn shade tree, Walsh would undoubtedly have been killed or at least bidly injured, but he attributes his lucky escape to the he attributes his lucky escape to the fact that the tree lessened the shock. The accident happened in time to get telegraphic orders filled in Portland for parts which will be here in time for a late flight tomorrow.

SEATTLE PAVING BID LOW

Price of $1.45 Yard Made for Proposed Street Improvement.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8 .- (Special.) SEATTLES, Wash, July S. Special,

—A bid of $1.45 a square yard for, asphalt paving, the lowest ever made in this city, will probably result in the awarding of a contract to the Barber Asphalt Paving Company for the improvement of Twenty-first Avenue between Madison and Roy streets, and other streets in Local Improvement other streets in Local Improvement District No. 297. The company also was the lowest of five bidders on vit-was the lowest of five bidders on virrified brick paving at $2.40 a yard.

The prevailing price for asphalt paving has been from $1.70 to $1.80 a square yard. Trouble among the contractors is the cause of price cutting.

It was said that protest against the improvement would be laid before the the heart of town.

For a few preceding days gangs of men were hard at work grading and laying the ateel from the end of the road just outside the town to a point on the waterfront touching the business district, that trains might be run pard today, but none was offered.

WIFE DROWNS NEAR HOME

Man Waits Preparation of Meal Interrupted by Death.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.-(Special)-Stepping down to the water's edge to dip out a pail of water, Mrs. Ida Mahann El years old and one of the pioneer set-tiers of Fall City, fell into the Snoqualmie River within a few feet of her hom yesterday afternoon and was drowned. A neighbor found the body floating in the water several minutes later.

The husband of the drowned woman, a timekeeper at the lumber mill at Fall City, had just returned home for dinner and stepped out of the house for a half hour pending the preparation of the meal when his wife went down to the river and met her death. Coroner J. C. Snyder investigated the drowning this

FOWL POISONER IS FINED

Officers Start Crusade Against Potion Distributors.

SEATTLE. July 8.—(Special.)—One hundred dollars fine for mixing strych-nine with a liberal hand in the feed of his neighbor's chickens and causing the his neighbor's chickens and causing the death of 25 of them, is the sentence passed upon W. R. Impett, an elderly resident of Ballard, by Justice John B. Gordon this morning.

This is the first conviction for poisoning animals since the humane department of the city's official family took up the work of ferreting out mysterious poisoning. Many valuable dogs terious poisoning. Many valuable dogs have been killed within the last two

WOMAN LANDS BIG TROUT

Mrs. Don McKay Catches 21-Pound Fish in Upper Klamath Lake.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 8 - (Special.) To a woman belongs the distinc-tion of having caught the largest trout in Klamath waters in 29 years or more. The woman is Mrs. Don McKay, whose husband is a cruisér living near Pelican

The trout, a rainbow, was landed Mon-The trout, a rainbow, was landed Mon-day by Mrs. McKay in Upper Klamath Lake. It weighed an even 21 pounds, measured 36 inches in length and 21 inches in girth. Mrs. McKay and three others caught rainbow trout weighing 35 pounds in less than an hour.

OREGON CITY MAN PASSES

Son of Late William Buckles Dies at Phoenix, Ariz.

OREGON CITY, Or., July 8.—(Special.) CREGON CITY, Or. July A Specially

C. B. Buckles, son of Mrs. Ellen

Huckles, of this city, and of the inte

William Buckles, died at Phoenix, Ariz.

on Friday, July 7, after an illness of saveral months of catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. Buckles, who left here about two months ago, went to Kansas, thinking the change would be of benefit to his health, and from there to Colorado. He remained in that state for several weeks, and decided to go, to Phaenix, where he gradually falled until his death. His mother hastened to his bedside, but did not arrive until Friday evening after his death. Mrs. Buckles will bring his body to this city, where the burial will take piace in the family plot in Mountain View Cemetery, and the body laid beside that of his father, who died at Willamette about two years ago. Mr. Buckles had, for the past year, made his home in this city with his sister. Mrs. George Griffith, of 16s Thirteenth atreet. He was born at Mulzan. Kan., January 25, 1884, and at the time of his death he was 27 years of age. He came to Oregon with his parents about seven years ago, settling at Willamette, where he remained until one year ago, when he came to this city to make his home with his sister. He was a member of Multinomah Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M., and it is probable that this lodge

Favor of Youngsters at Salem Fair.

Bewildered Judges Make Awards to Tots After Considerable Difficulty-Thousands Admire Pretty Children.

SALEM, Or., July 8 .- (Special.) which consisted of scores of beautifully decorated baby carriages, perambula-tors, tricyles, tiny automobiles and numerous small wagons.

The judges were bewildered by the brilliant array of tiny carriages and beautiful infants and considerable time beautiful infants and considerable time was consumed in making the awards. Little Robert Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, was given first place as being drawn in the best decorated conveyance. The little child of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dick was in the best decorated doll cart and Miss Alice Wheelock, daughter of Mrs. Grace Wheelock, superintendent of music in the public schools here, was in the best decorated cart drawn by a goat or a dog. The children of Mrs. Harry Moyer were the prize winners in the best decwere the prize winners in the best dec-orated perambulator and the son of Mrs. C. C. Settlemeier was in the best oln Nels, Whose Identity as King Ring Was Revealed at Salem Cherry Fair Last Even-will have charge of the funeral serv-ices, which have not yet been arranged two brothers, A. F. Buckles, of Dyers-burg, Tenn., and A. B. Buckles, of Ore-

EXCURSION ON P. R. & N. EN-

JOYS TRIP INTO TOWN.

Beginning This Week Regular

Schedule Will Be Inaugurated

for Distance of 25 Miles.

Three flatcars, two boxcars and a passenger coach were fitted up and were thronged to overtlowing with gay excursioniats. Many got off at Bay City and bay points, but as many more city and bay points, but as many more got on again, for it was the first oppor-tunity given Tiliamookers to view the line to the end of steel on the Tilia-mook end. C. E. Lytle, general man-ager of the road, personally supervised

Only the morning trip was to the end of the road. In the afternoon and evening one trip was made to a point in the Nehalem Valley, 25 miles and an-other to Garabaldi, to take care of the said the condition of John W. Gates showed considerable improvement.

John W. Gates Improving. PARIS, July 9 .- Dr. Gros at midnight

distant.

ices, which ha by the family.

Parade Draws Blg Crowd.

bables were removed from their carts and were distributed among their monthers and a contest for the best-looking children was held on the Court-TILLAMOOK, Or., July 8.—(Special.)

—An excursion on the Pacific Railroad & Navigation as far as the completed track at the mouth of the Salmonberry River, 40 miles from Tillamook, was the big feature of the Independence day celebration in Tillamook County. Incidentally, on this day, the first railroad locomotive or train ever within the limits of Tillamook City rolled into the heart of town.

For a few preceding days gangs of follow:

Under one year (bey or girl)—First prize.
Herbert Palmer; second prize. James Ailen Norwood.

Between 1 and 2 years—First prize, girl.
Conell Thomasen: second prize girl. Ailee Westberg; first prize, boy. Clyde Anderson.
Between 2 and 3 years—First prize, girl.
Pauline Johnson; second prize, girl.
Moyer; first prize, boy. Gordon Bennet; second prize, boy. Adrian Loomis.
Between 2 and 4 years—First prize, girl.
Helen Magers; second prize, girl, Helen Ailen; first prize, boy. Paul Mack; second prize, boy. Glenn Drager.
Between 4 and 5 years—First prize, girl.

excursionists who were celebrating the Early next week a regular schedule will be inaugurated between Tillamook and a point opposite Nehalem, 25 miles

Gray's Special Sale of

Chesterfield Clothes

A splendid opportunity to buy fine clothes at greatly reduced prices. Chesterfield Clothes are handsome in design and fabric-the best tailored clothes made. A clean stock of this season's patterns to select from

10% Reduction on Blacks and Blues Terms of Sale Strictly Cash

Trout Likely to Be Established on Spring Creek.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 8.—(5pecial.)—The State Fish and Game Commission, including C. K. Cranston, of Pendleton, George H. Kelley, of Oregon City; W. E. Kinney, of Portland; J. F. Hughes, of Oregon City, and William L. Finley, State Game Warden; R. E. Clanton, Master Fish Warden, and State Superintendent of Hatcheries Wisner, are now in Klamath investigating the proposed site for a central trout hatchery on Spring Creek.

The members of the commission were joined here by Commissioner Stone, of Klamath Fails. As the sentiment of the Commission seems to be unanimous for establishing the hatchery, Klamsth folk are confident that work on it will begin in a few months.

The fish and game officials were met with autos and received a warm welcome from the citizens. Thursday morning they were taken in charge by committees from the Klamath Chamber of Commerce and Klamath Rod and Gun Club and whisked away to Upper Klamath Lake where a layouth was welling.

HATCHERY SITE FAVORED

to take them to the proposed hatchery site. Late in the evening they went in autos to Fort Klamath, and Friday morning the machines brought them back to the Agency landing, 12 miles from the Fort. On the return to Klamath Falls the members of the Commission visited Rocky Point, Odessa, the late E. H. Harriman's famous Pelcan Lake lodge, and Eagle Ridge Tavern. Friday night Mr. Finley delivered his famous lecture on birds in the opera-house.

$35.00 Suits, $26.50

$40.00 Suits, $29.50

$45.00 Suits, $34.50

$50.00 Suits, $39.50

birds in the opera-house. The Commission will remain until Monday, when a business meeting will

ELK CREEK GETS SALOON Summer Visitors Win Over Opposition of Permanent Residents.

ASTORIA, Or., July 8.—(Special.)—The County Court at its session today granted a license to G. M. Brown for a saloon at Elk Creek. This is the first time there has been a saloon at that Summer resort, and there was considerable opposition, principally from people who make their Summer homes there, but the matter the summer homes there, but the matter than the summer homes there is the first marriage ceremony Judge Ross has been called upon to perform. Police Court business has been light since Mayor Wood took office and began to enforce his policy of a "closed town." Mayor Wood has adopted the plan of calling for bids on city work, and hopes thereby to reduce expenses. ASTORIA, Or., July &-(Special.)-The jority of the voters of the precinct signed the petition asking that it be allowed.

25 %

Discount

Trousers

At a meeting to be held on July 15, the court will appoint a County Fire Warden to assist the State Deputy Warden in preventing forest fires during the Summer seesson.

INDIANS WEDDED BY JUDGE New Official at The Dalles Performs His First Ceremony.

THE DALLES, Or., July &-(Special.)full blood Warm Springs Indians peared at the County Clerk's office this morning and secured a license to wed.
Then they presented themselves before the new Police Judge, George F. Ross, and wers promptly married. This was the first marriage ceremony Judge Ross would not be complete without a few bottles of well-selected Wine and Liquors. Do not take a trip to the shore without a supply of good Wine and Liquors. We are able to supply you with any quantity in bottle, flask or jug. Whatever you buy here, will prove superior to any you have bought at equal prices. A trial order will convince you that our statements are true.

Your Vacation

This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with old Whisky, full quart.....$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Brandy, full quart.....$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Sherry, full quart.....$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Muscatel, full quart.....$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Port, full quart......$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Angelica, full quart.....$1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Apricot Brandy, full quart $1.25 This week, Fancy Cut Bottle, filled with Peach Brandy, full quart......$1.25

Mail orders filled the same day received. Express prepaid on orders of $4 or over. City Delivery Free.

Main 6499, A 4499

Fifth and Stark Streets

KING BING YIELDS

Cherry Royalty Abdicates in

200 "SUNBEAMS" PARADE

King Bing and Queen Anne gave way to King Baby at the Salem Cherry Fair today and the cherry royalty with all of the thousands in the city did homage to hundreds of infants at what proved to be the stellar attraction of the fair. Over 200 babies were in the parade, Decisions Are Difficult.

Mrs. C. C. Settlemeler was in the best decorated gocart.

Little Rosalie Buren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Buren, was in the best decorated express wagon and Spencer Hunt's son in a tricycle was a prizewinner. Milton, the son of Superintendent R. E. Lee Steiner, of the Oregon Asylum for the Insane, captured the prize for the most attractive pony cart and buggy. Little Alice Westberg was the winner in the contest for the best decorated two-wheel cart. by the family.

Mr. Buckles leaves besides his mother,

Mrs. Ellan Buckles, two sisters, Mrs.

George Griffith, of Oregon City; Miss

Jessie Buckles, of Spokane, Wash., and Thousands of people witnessed the parade which circled the Federal building and Courthouse square. The parade was of such length that it practically filled the entire space around the two large squares.

In every respect it was the most distinctively successful feature of the entire fair and the women crowded about the infants enraptured.

Immediately following the parade the

The awards to the bables in arms

Smallest baby under 5 years—One prize, Stella Kliteath.

Baby parade—Beet decorated baby conveyance of any kind, Robert Bishop; best decorated baby buggs or perambulator. Norman and Leo Moywe; best decorated go-cart, George Settlemetr; best decorated go-cart, alloe Westbers; best decorated express wagon, Rosaile Buren; best decerated goal cart or wagon, Alice Wheelock; best decorated pony cart, Prisefilla Fry; most unique baby conveyance of any kind. Cinrence Hamilton.

All bables under the age of 5, who were officially entered with the committee, who appeared in the beauty show or parade and who did not win a prize, will be presented with a savings pass book with a credit of $1 by the United States National Bank of Salem. Thirty-three prizes were awarded.

and mirth and revelry reigned throughout the evening. When the key was turned over the identity of King Bing became known and he proved to be Kola Neis, one of the best-known hep dealers in the Northwest. With the yielding up of the king's identity it also became evident why some noticed a distinctly German accent on the part of the jolly potentate when he responded to the Mayor's address of welcome on the first day of the festival. A free airship ight in the afternoon by D. G. huddlestone, a local aviator, nearly resulted in disaster to Central Plant for Propagating of

$20.00 Suits, $15.00

$22.50 Suits, $16.50

$25.00 Suits, $19.00

$30.00 Suits, $23.50

aviator, nearly resulted in disaster to the adventurous air traveler, when his aeroplane started to make a circle and suddenly turned on its side, dropping to the ground. One of the planes was badly smashed, but the aviator escaped

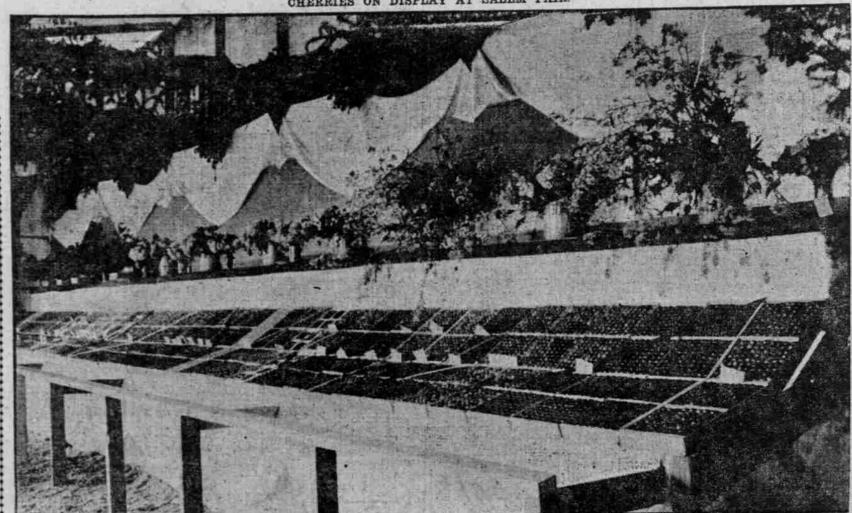

Discount

Fancy Vests

unhurt.
This was also tag day for the women interested in the Boys and Girls' Aid Society. Eighty leading society women aiding in disposal of the tags and several hundreds of dollars were WOMAN DIES ON FAIR VISIT Mrs. Julia Jones Falls Dead as She Enters Sister's Home in Salem.

SALEM. Or. July 8.—(Special.)-Mrs. Julia Jones, who has been living with relatives across the river in Polk Coun-Salem. Thirty-three prizes were awarded. Mirth Reigns in Evening. Jolly King Bing closed his reign tonight, when he turned over the key to the city to the king of the comic parade. Telatives across the river in Polk Countries and received a warfin were come from the citizens. Thursday morning to see the Cherry Falr and visit her ing they were taken in charge by committees from the Klamath Chamber of Commerce and Klamath Rod and Gun Commerce and Klamath Rod and Gun Chib and whisked away to Upper Klambert failure. She was 57 years of age. CHERRIES ON DISPLAY AT SALEM FAIR.

PHOTOGRAPH SHOWS ONE OF THE FOUR SECTIONS.