explained to them are for it with few exceptions. Chairman G A. Lee asserts that 30 per cent of the men who em-ploy labor indorse the law, while Com-missioner Wallace declares 35 per cent of the workers are heartily in favor of it. Not only has the State Federa-tion of Labor approved the measure but the individual workers like it. Under the law, no matter what the accident, the workman will be cared for and his family will not become pub-lic charges. The pension feature ap-peals to many, although a few protest against limiting the number of chil-dren who can draw from the fund, the law "allowing but three children to each family." Some families exceed each family." Some families exceed this number, but get no more. Not having three children is no advantage, for if there are less than three, or none at all, then only the widow or other dependents draw a pension.

POSTAL RECORDS ASKED

was made this afternoon for the $50,-000 prize offered by the London Daily Mall for the 1010-mile flight around England. Nineteen aviators, of 50 entered, essayed the first section of 20 miles to Hendone. Three, however, falled to get outside the secodrome. Lieutenant John C. Porte, of the British navy, fell from a height of 50 feet, wrecking his machine but sus-taining only a few scratches himself. Another Englishman, F. C. Jenkins, had a similar fall, but escaped, unin-jured, white a third Englishman, E. C. Gordon-England, was unable to get his WASHINGTON, July 22 .- Postmaster. General Hitchcock was called on today by the House committee on Postal Ex-Gordon-England, was unable to get his enditures to submit original copies of all records and stenographic notes bearing on the controversy between the department and the Lewis Publishing Company of University City, Mo.

E. G. Lewis, president of the com pany, declared that postoffice officials start, a baiking engine forced him to return, but he soon got away again. The aviators who covered the first leg were A. Beaumont J. D. J. Ashley, C. C. Patterson, J. Vendrines, J. Bian-ohet, Lieutenant R. A. Cammell, E. A. Udemars, J. Valentins, C. P. Hizey, C. H. Piaton, S. F. Cody, G. Hamel, M. Monalent, C. T. Weymann, Lieutenant H. Bier and G. V. Reynolds, The three men who failed to reach Hendon may fly again tomorrow or Monday. The task set for the airmen is conhad plotted to injure his business, and his counsel, Edwin C. Madden, ex-Third Assistant Postmaster-General, declared the department submitted to the Lewis Company a blank form con-taining a long list of questions requiring that they be answered within 24

Lewis said it took him with 40 sistants and at an expense of $10,000, seven weeks to prepare answers ac-curate enough to be sworn to. He said The task set for the airmen is con-sidered very difficult. The track lies north from Brocklands to Edinburgh the department was thus trying to en-trap him by forcing him to give inac-curate answers in the sworn statement.
