

BEACH SEASON NOW IN FULL SWING

With Beginning of August Every Cottage From Seaview to Ocean Park Is Open and Tide of Summer Vacation Activities Is at Its Full.

NORTH BEACH, Wash., Aug. 5.—(Special).—With the coming of August every cottage from Seaview to Ocean Park is open and the beach is the scene of great activity. A good-roads convention, with representatives from the entire state of Washington and a few from Oregon, met yesterday and Friday at Long Beach, and many of them drove along the recently-constructed road, which is the Northern coast is so proud. Hotels are filled and daily people are turned away from inns and hostleries, which have no more room.

The tennis tournament will be held within a few weeks at the Breakers and reservations are coming in rapidly to all the hotels for the week when it will take place.

At the Breakers Hotel the following guests passed last week: From Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gray, G. M. Gray, Jr., Edna, Edith and Pansy Gray, Mrs. George Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Durham, Geo. One week ago yesterday, M. G. Thorsen, his son, Warren Thorsen, T. B. (Teddy) Wilcox, Jr. and Harold John, all of Portland, left the beach and explored the country up Bear River. They went to its source, 30 miles. It is one of the most beautiful and the turquoise stream is a beautiful sight. The trip was a delightful one. The water is of the purest and those who went on the trip remarked upon the wonderful advantage it would be to pipe the supply to that place, giving the resort water equal to that furnished Portland from Bull Run River.

Among the recent arrivals at Long Beach are Mrs. G. M. Taylor and daughter, Louisa, from Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Peterson and son, Willie, and Edwin Hume. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Williams and son, George, have rented the Bell cottage for the season.

Rev. Henry Russell Talbot, Miss Lucy Trevitt and Raymond Cooper Branon were in Seaside last week, clad in clothes distinctly appropriate for "roughing it" en route for the Nehalem country. They had camped on the Washington coast from Shoalwater Bay to Ilwaco, where they took the boat for Astoria last Tuesday.

The seven days just passed have been crowded with activities and social doings. Excitement waxed high Wednesday afternoon when a four-masted sailing vessel, loaded with lumber, drifted perilously near shore and was threatened with destruction in the breakers. Spyglasses were brought out and the board walk was lined with interested throngs which could clearly distinguish those on board.

But not alone to the incoming ship did interest at Seaside direct itself last week for along the trail-like main street merry games of young women, one another to games of box ball, Harriette, and roller skates as well as parties at the dancing pavilions were pastimes that did not lack devotees.

At the R. E. Rummelinn cottage "Rhodaly" situated well back in the attractive grove at Seaside on the bank of the gently winding Necanicum River, Reed Rummelinn was host last week, entertaining a number of his schoolmates and associates at one large house party. Walker Kamm, Collin Livingston, Harry Myrtle, Hallet Maxwell and Henry Goode were in the party. Miss Rhoda Rummelinn is down for the season and expects soon to entertain a house party of young women.
