Two Carloads of Famous "Lifetime" Mission Furniture Third Off

FOR YEARS Barber Brothers, of Grand Rapids, have been building Mission Furniture that gained and held a reputation the country over for its splendid sturdiness and artistic designs. The name "Lifetime" was adopted a short time ago, when the Barber Brothers' factory consolidated with the Grand Rapids Bookcase & Chair Company. Our Furniture chief knew that a factory surplus of "Lifetime" Furniture was awaiting the concern that could handle immense quantities for ready cash. He bought two solid carloads, in the latest different patterns in Rockers, Chairs, Settees, Bookcases, Library Tables, English Breakfast Tables, etc.—a showing of Mission Furniture without equal in the Northwest.
