

Extract From Oregonian, Friday, August 11

—Among other new fashion ideas wired from Chicago to The Daily Oregonian there appear some notes from the National Milliners' organization:—"that hats are small, fit snugly, and that the latest fad is a satchel, of the same material and shade as the hat, must be carried with this new chapeau."

Autumn Millinery Novelties

—For the past few days we have been displaying these charming new fads in Autumn millinery—fetching little hats with the bags to match. Hats with a puff crown of silk and a band of braided chenille. Little high crown hats with small, tight-fitting brims—hats trimmed with small fancy feathers. These are some of the new millinery notes. You will find them all displayed in our hat section and a partial display in the window. As usual, we are the first in the city to show these lovely novelties.

Advance Showing of the New Fall Styles

The New Suits

—In the new suits for the coming season you will notice that the coats are longer than the very abbreviated jacket of Spring; these Autumn tailor-mades have 28-inch coats coming well down the hips.

—The fabrics are heavier, of course. Heavy twilled serges and a beautiful rough woven suiting.

—The sleeves are put in as smoothly and roundly as a man's coat sleeves. With not the sign of a gather.

—While many of the collars and cuffs are plain, others are of velvet or satin, and fasten to one side with a fancy braid frog or large buttons.

—The skirts are wider, but look no wider, being cut on straight and graceful lines. Just as smart and maybe a bit more comfortable to walk in.

—In colors you have your choice of the rich browns, the popular navy blue, dark grays and fancy combination mixtures.

—All these fine tailored garments are sold exclusively at this store, and cannot be found in any other store in the city.

New Dresses

—This illustration will give you some idea of the new one-piece dresses.

—They are designed in serges in navy, brown, black and gray, pencil stripe gray and violet.

—All the new models show the empire waist line, and are very plainly but smartly trimmed with fancy braids, velvets or satin.

The New Coats

—The very first showing of the late models in long, full-length coats.

—Very simple and plain they are, designed especially for all around about wear.

—They are perfectly tailored in every detail.

—Materials are chevots, double-faced mixtures and imported materials.

—Built on long clinging lines, some are fitted, others are semi-fitting.

—One novelty style is made with a yoke across the back.

—While many are perfectly plain with not a hint of trimming, there are many with the new broadcloth cuffs and collars.

—Also a full line of the new broadcloth coats in navy and black, and lined throughout. Semi or tight fitting.

New Sweaters

—The new midgy sweater that is taking the place of the ordinary style, as it buttons close up around the neck, so comfy on a cold Winter's day.

—We just received this new shipment and they are all placed on sale. Can be had in all the new lovely brown, Autumn shades, as well as other popular colors.

The First Arrivals and Display of the New Fashions for Milady's Coiffure

—Many charming new novelties for the coiffure have just been received in our hair store.

—This season extra puffs and curls will be more in favor than formerly, for the new style of hats makes it necessary that little curls peep out from under the hat or bonnet.

—Clusters of lovely little side curls mounted on shell pins to be worn over the ears, called the "Aeda" cluster, in all natural shades.

—Coronet Braids, three and six stem. Moderately priced.

—Transformations in many shades of gray as well as light and dark natural colors.

—In fact so many new styles too numerous to mention in this limited space.

—See our elaborate window display.
