WEDDINGS.
Wooster-Magers.
When Lawrence F. Wooster claimed Miss Vera Leis Magers as his bride Saturday evening, the event was the culmination of a three years' romance. Owing to her ill health, the bride was obliged to forego a big wedding and only the immediate family was present. At the ceremony which took place in the high room at the East Side Baptist Church on East Ankeny street, Rev. Albert Ehrig officiated. The bride wore a gown of green tulle with a black picture hat and a corsage bouquet of purple roses completed her toilette. Immediately after the wedding a dinner luncheon was served at the Oregon Grill. Russell Wooster, of Litchfield, Ill., brother of the bridegroom who was best man was the only other guest present besides the parents of the bride. Judge and Mrs. John E. Magers.

The bridegroom came West from Schenectady, N. Y., but formerly lived in Litchfield, Ill. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois and last year was selected to the chair of electrical engineering at the Oregon Agricultural College, where his bride is now studying. Previous to that they will be at home to friends after September 15, at 708 East Ash street at the home of the bride for one week only and then evenings.

Fields-Radke.
Miss Ella Radke and John Fields were married at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. John Russell S. Showers, at East Fifteenth and Morrison street, at 8 P. M. Tuesday, August 1. Attendants were her brother-in-law, William Polivka, and Howard Wilson, only relatives being present. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed. Mordant A. Goodnough playing during the hours of receiving. The bride wore white silk tulle trimmed with satin roses and carried white carnations.

The home was gala with white carnations and pink roses while palms were placed at intervals throughout the rooms. At supper later, the guests assembled around a table where white carnations were used for decorations. At the table were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Radke, the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Fields, Mr. A. Radke, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Faucher, Mrs. Emma Maehler and Mr. and Mrs. William Polivka. The couple left later for a honeymoon at Newport.

After August 15 they will be at home at 589 East Stark street until their new residence at Kenton is completed.

Simpson-Norellius.
Miss Anita Norellius and George B. Simpson were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Norellius, at Vancouver, Wash. Rev. J. M. Cause officiating. The bridal couple was unattended, and they stood under a canopy of white sweet peas, the alcove of the parlor being decked to resemble a chancel, white satin ribbon streamers grouped from the ceiling, and a table where white carnations. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a white gown of crepe meteor and a veil. Her flowers were also carnations. There were 50 guests, among whom were the mother and sister of Mr. Simpson, from Lincoln, Or. The couple left for a honeymoon at the beach, the bride wearing a white suit of light tan. They will be gone a fortnight, and on their return will live at their new bungalow on Kaufman avenue, Extension, Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. Simpson is secretary of the Vancouver Commercial Club. His bride is a graduate of the Vancouver High School, and also attended Whitman College. She has a record of much promise, and studied with Leo Charles Sparks while he was here each Summer. She began her vocal work with Mrs. Fred L. Olson, who encouraged her to develop her voice.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Simpson are very popular at Vancouver.

Gorzell-Duncan.
Charles Hatherly Gorzell, formerly of Oakland, Cal., claimed Miss Agnes Mary Duncan as his bride Thursday evening, August 3, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph Deane, at East Fourteenth street. Rev. E. Nelson Allen officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Frances Duncan, a sister of the bride, and John Jewett, Earl, of Oakland, Cal., was best man. The bride was given away by her elder brother, Charles Duncan. Mrs. Jennie Thompson played the wedding march, as well as solos throughout the evening. About 30 relatives and friends were present.

Mr. Gorzell is a graduate of the University of California, class of '02, and a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He is an engineer with the Pacific Bridge Company. After they return from their honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Gorzell will live in an attractive bungalow on East Fifteenth street.

The Fall Season Opens With a Strong Preference of Plushes and Caraculs
Early Fall Arrivals for Women, Misses and Juniors Show Many Attractive Styles in These Beautiful Fabrics.
Plushes and caraculs are coming into their greatest season—of this there can be no doubt. We are showing these garments much earlier than anticipated. Prices will be much higher later in the season, as all the manufacturers' output have been bought up. Conditions point to a scarcity of materials and corresponding high prices as the season advances.

Tailored Suits and Coats
Will be in great demand this season. Many double-faced materials are used in great profusion in coats of heavier material, while in the light-weight beautiful mannish mixtures and serges will hold their usual place.
Tailored Suits
In a large range of novelty suitings and serges. Browns and wood tans predominate. Every suit we show is of the latest style obtainable, together with the best of workmanship at the lowest possible price.
