State Purple The Color of the Coronation Is the Leading Color Note in Autumn Millinery

—Purple, the leading color of the season today in Paris and London, has taken New York by storm. It is at its best in the pretty hats we show made of taffeta and combinations of taffeta and velvet.
—They are particularly charming with a high crown and upper brim of the purple taffeta and the under brim of a rich black velvet.
—These saucy two-tone tailored hats are becoming to all types with their jaunty bows and loops of silks and drooping brims that partly shade the face, and fit close to the head.
—Prices range from $3.95 to $8.50.

One-Piece Dresses for Autumn With the Charm of Simplicity

—Tailored suits are not the only new things in the women's ready-to-wear store.
—The other day came a flock of new dresses designed of serge, basket weave and soft clinging materials.
—These frocks are so simply finished and yet so delightfully feminine we are sure many women will welcome them at their modest prices.
—In navy and white hair-line stripes, amethyst, new blue, brown, tan, white and black.
—They are becomingly fashioned with their short empire waists and short sleeves, and the ease with which they can be donned makes them doubly attractive.
—Some have high necks, and others with a dainty little yoke of lace or soft net.
—The trimming is very Frenchy in its style, being braid and buttons so cleverly applied that you wonder how anything so attractive and exclusive can be bought for so little.
—Prices range from $20.00 to $30.00.
—The illustration represents one of these new models.
