TALENT IS TIED UP

Australian Promoter Reaches Out and Grabs All Pugnists

10 HEAVIES ON HIS LIST

Fight Followers in Rest of World Must Go to Island to See Any Bout This Winter, or Do Without—Johnson Tied Up.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—What is the rest of the world outside of Australia going to do this winter for boxers? Hugh McIntosh says he has all the best of three nationalities in the pocket of his coat and as he sails for Sydney in a few weeks to stage at least two world championships and many other minor bouts, the immediate future looks dark for fighting fans elsewhere.

At least that is the way it appeared while McIntosh was telling what he intended to do for his followers in the big island. And Hughie backed up his words with several bulky-looking contracts, all signed with the names of big men. To judge from one of them, Jack Johnson will find it hard work to change his suit without running up against McIntosh and one of the clauses of the agreement between the two.

"Yes," said McIntosh yesterday, when the ink on the Johnson contract was hardly dry, "Johnson and I have signed papers which practically tie him to me for the next two years, during which time he can fight for no one without my consent. He agrees to engage in four fights for me. The first will take place on Boxing day at Sydney and will be a world's championship. I have MacVey's sign and seal on a contract to fight Johnson, but I am not sure that I will pull that battle off on Boxing day."

Ten Heavyweights Corralled.

"Bill Lang who really is a much better man than his showing with Langford would seem to prove, may be Jack's first opponent. Then after another fight in Australia, Johnson will come back here and will meet two other men, one of whom I hope will be Langford. Johnson sails early in October. I have already bought his accommodations on the steamer. I go out ahead as I am anxious to get back to Australia as soon as possible."

Besides Johnson and McVey, I will have eight big heavyweights fighting for me in Australia this winter. Al Kaufman has agreed to terms and Charlie Harvey is to see him aboard the steamer, but until I receive a cable word that he has actually sailed, I cannot say for sure. Frank Ryan is coming and possibly Langford. I am trying to get Owen Moran, Jim Driscoll, and Abe Attell to join me, and a fight between Driscoll and Abe Attell would be a summer for the Australians. Jimmy Cribb, who made a big reputation last year in Australia will be out there again.

NEWSPAPERMEN END DUELS

French Writers Find Practice Interferes With Work.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—An effort is being made by the French Association of Provincial Journalists to put a stop to duels between newspaper men. In France duels between journalists are fought so frequently, and for such trivial causes that the fashion has become a real nuisance to the craft.

A duel entails not only a considerable waste of time, both for the seconds and for the principals, but it is also a fairly expensive matter. One of the principals in a duel between journalists which was fought not long ago in Paris was $15 out of pocket by the affair, which resulted in his receiving a scratch on the forearm and his scratching the forehead of his adversary.

The Journalists' Association, therefore, met in congress at Rennes and voted the suppression of all journalistic duels for the future. A circular letter embodying the vote is being sent to all the newspapers in France, and the very practical suggestion is made that all newspapers should henceforth refuse to print accounts, however short, of any duel. By withdrawing these affairs from publicity, the provincial journalists believe that dueling may be prevented altogether, except in cases where the honor of the combatants is really in need of defense by the strong arm.

had in landing Johnson. He has been camping on the trail of the black man ever since the latter landed in England. He has been with him at all hours of the day and most of the night. Johnson is naturally suspicious and McIntosh found it difficult to win his confidence. As matters stand at present the Australian is virtually the black man's manager. He superintended the making of Johnson's agreement with the English syndicate that is bound to drop a pot of money on the coming Johnson-Wells fight.

Champion Has Soft Snap.

The champion actually received $10,000 down, will receive the same amount in a few weeks, and the remaining installment of his $50,000 before he enters the ring. If for any reason the syndicate is unable to go on with the fight Johnson keeps the money he has received. As Wells is to receive $10,000 for his end and the expenses are to be at least the same amount, it is difficult to imagine the backers going through with it. The best opinion in this country is that the fight would not draw $15,000.

All of which makes matters appear very soft for the big negro. Under contracts already signed he is assured of $125,000 from his ring engagements along the next year. With moving-picture rights and theatrical engagements he should have no difficulty in doubling that. Jack says he doesn't want to box in the United States yet awhile. Guess not, when he can do as well as that elsewhere.

CHEHALIS NOSES OUT

SOUTH BEND LOSES AT END BY 7-TO-6 SCORE.

Because of Muddy Grounds Fielding Is Bad and Running Difficult. Wineholt Hits Hard.

Table with names and scores: Centralia 10, Chehalis 6, Raymond 23, South Bend 28.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Chehalis defeated South Bend in the State League today, 7 to 6. The visitors led in the batting and score much of the time, and only by timely hitting did Chehalis pull out of the hole.

Owing to the grounds being muddy from today's rains the fielding was hard and running difficult. The game was well played and the hitting close. Wineholt's batting was a feature.

Summary: R. H. E. R. H. E. Chehalis... 7 4 3 South Bend... 6 5 6 Batteries—Frink and Wineholt; Baker and Packenham. Umpire—Hall. Bases on balls—Off Frink 5, Baker 2. Two-base hits—Wineholt, Murray, Taylor. Three-base hit—Wineholt. Double play—Moore to Taylor to McBride. Struck out—Frink 11, Baker 2.

RAYMOND, Wash., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—The game here today with Centralia was postponed on account of rain.

AUTOS NOW SOLD COMPLETE

Buyer Saved Considerable Expense by 1912 Method of Equipment.

"This is essentially the year of the completely equipped automobile," says Harry L. Keas, president of the Keas Automobile Company. "Season after season it has been customary to charge the buyer extra for tops, windshields, magnetics, demountable rims, tire irons and other accessories, and the owner almost invariably bought these parts later. This meant that, buying them separately, he usually paid a stiff price for them. The manufacturers have eliminated considerable of this expense by providing every necessary detail.

"This is simply an indication of the trend of demand of the buying public. The average American now wants his car complete when he gets it, without the uncertainty of future expense in fitting it up to his taste. A time that has been permitted to run a long time and to accumulate oil, grease and dust, will in time give trouble. These should be cleaned with kerosene and rinsed in gasoline to remove all particles of dirt. Care should be taken to thoroughly evaporate all gasoline before replacing and the motor should be packed with a good quality of grease after it has been cleaned.

One of the most important accessories carried upon a car is a funnel fitted with a gauge strainer. This should always be used when replenishing the gasoline tank for dirt and other foreign matter introduced thereto will sooner or later develop serious trouble, either by choking the gasoline supply by its carburetor.

The National Good Roads Board of the American Automobile Association of America is trying to impress upon the road builders the importance not only of constructing new roads, but mainly that they will be lasting. The board has been paying no little attention to the road systems in France, which are looked upon as a nation of highway builders.

YOUNG ENSIGN IS INSANE

Navy Board Holds Deserting Officer to Be Irresponsible.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Ensign R. S. Young, of Concord, N. C., who recently disappeared from the destroyer "Festung," is reported to have been completely sane, and was later found by his father in New York City, having been declared mentally irresponsible by a naval medical board of inquiry at Norfolk, Va.

The Navy Department has ordered the young officer to be confined in a hospital for the insane at Washington.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—John Gots, a young Greek restaurant man, who was arrested in Portland several weeks ago after a sensational report to that city by a national elevator man, and returned to the Lewis County Jail to face a criminal charge at the next term of court, is reported to have fallen heir to $6000 from an estate in his native country.

CITIZEN ARMY IS WANTED

English Unions Assert Regular Troops Are Menace to Liberty.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—(Special.)—England's congress of trade union workers will open September 2, with a tremendous program for debate. Among the interesting proposals is one sent up by the London glassblowers who "realizing that militarism and the existence of a standing army constitute a menace to popular liberty," are of opinion that "the time has arrived for the institution of a real citizen army, free entirely from military law during times of peace officered entirely by the permanent officials and fit and to be used for defensive purposes only."

Insurance agents will try to secure a royal commission to report on the possibility of the nationalization of industrial life insurance. Others are equally anxious to secure the nationalization of railways and canals. The Lloyd-George's state insurance scheme against sickness and unemployment will be criticized in every clause, with a view of proving that the workman, especially the casual laborer, will not receive his fair share of benefit. The sheet metal workers and brassiers voice the growing fear in England of the permanent officials of the government departments are too powerful in influence with successive governments and are therefore "dangerous to the democratic progress of the nation."

EUROPEAN RAIL ROUTE CUT

Electrical Plant in Switzerland to Supply Alpine Trains.

BERNE, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—An engineering feat has just been accomplished in the canton of Berne in Switzerland, the results of which are of considerable interest to those Americans who year by year visit the Riviera and the Mediterranean coast. A great plant has been erected in the valley of the river Kander to convert the power of the stream into electric current, which will be utilized to run the new Mountain railway, which connects with the Simplon route.

This new undertaking will greatly shorten the journey from North to Northwest Europe to the Mediterranean and also will relieve travelers of the necessity of undergoing the arduous ordeal of the old St. Gotthard tunnel. It is probable that the question of the electrification of the St. Gotthard line will now be hurried forward, otherwise the advantages of the new Loetsch railway are likely to divert the whole of the tourist traffic to itself.

DUKE'S GOLD TEST GOOD

Experiment at Camp in Scotland Gives Hope for Invention.

GLASGOW, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—A tiny leaf of gold glittered in the sunshine of Kildonan Camp when the sluice boxes in the Duke of Sutherland's experimental mining camp were opened for the first time.

Gold, pure and unmistakable, and of fine quality, was there, but William Heath, the Kildonan expert, who is in charge of the operations, was not able to give his official report on the results until it has been submitted to the Duke.

"You can say that I obtained a good sample of gold," said Heath after the "wash-up," which he himself carried out most carefully.
