

BRIDE-GROOM'S FEET CHILL NEAR ALTAR

Detectives Hired by Promised Wife Find Foley Sound Asleep in Bed.

NEW BEAUTIES ALLURING

Spokane Contractor Regrets Rash Pledge of Affections, Made When Lonely—Glass Eye and False Teeth Identify Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Daniel Foley, the wealthy Spokane lumberman, who left his prospective bride waiting at the church two days ago, was found by special detectives who had been placed on his trail in a room at the Palace Hotel this morning, and was immediately taken by them to Oakland to greet his patient, promised wife.

Detectives Gaylord and Teutenberg, who found him, identified the recalcitrant bridegroom-to-be by his left glass eye and his false teeth. These artificial portions of Foley's anatomy were reported on his bureau, while the real part of him, fully clothed, was lying in deep slumber upon the bed.

Beauty Makes Him Fickle.

When aroused, Foley gave no explanation of his extraordinary conduct except to say that he had "seen so many good-looking women since visiting Oakland" that he got "cold feet" and didn't know whom he wanted to marry.

"Lonely" Man Shook Up.

"Dan" made no reply, except to submit meekly to Miss Nagle's embraces. Foley met Miss Nagle three years ago in a lumber camp near Spokane, and became engaged to marry her. He explained that there were no women at the lumber camp and that he was very lonely there, but that after coming to Oakland he was bewildered by the diversity of beauty which smote upon his sight, and grew indecisive as to what he wished to do in the matrimonial line.

AVERAGE ACRE YIELD LESS

Government's Crop Estimate for 1910 Below That of Previous Year.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The average farm value an acre of all field crops grown in 1910 in the United States was approximately $14.47, as just estimated by the Department of Agriculture. This is a decrease of 19 cents from the previous year, when the average was $14.66 an acre.

WARSHIP TO BRING DEAD

President Orders Honors for Victims Recovered From Maine.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Taft today issued orders that the bones of all enlisted men recovered from the battleship Maine be brought from Havana to the United States on a battleship. The President takes the position that the enlisted men who went down with the Maine are entitled to all the honor that the United States can give them.

TRAVEL ALLOWANCE ASKED

Hayburn Proposes Mileage Instead of Extra Pay for Secretaries.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The prospect that Congress will not authorize the "extra month's pay" to Congressional employees this year resulted today in the introduction by Senator Hayburn of a resolution to pay the traveling expenses of Senators' secretaries.

"BORAX KING" IN BIG ROAD

Company With $27,000,000 Capital Files Articles in Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—Articles of incorporation of the Oakland Railway, capitalized at $27,000,000, were filed today with the County Clerk here.

PRETTY LAKE IS STOCKED

Trout Expected to Flourish in Or- chardist's Preserve.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—J. L. Carter, whose ranch is two miles out from this city, on the East Side road, has converted the little lake that lies in the ravine at the rear of his home into a beautiful fish pond. He recently received from the Government 200 brook trout which he placed in the lake.

CUSTOMS HEADS TO FALL

DEPARTMENT WOULD ABOLISH MANY OFFICES.

Redistricting Would Eliminate 51 Collectors by Reducing Posi- tions to Sub-Ports.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—If the Treasury Department's plans for redistricting the customs territory of the United States are approved by Congress, the number of custom-houses will be reduced from 114 to 73, and many collectors who now hold important political offices will find themselves reduced. Albany, N. Y., Syracuse, N. Y., Atlanta, Ga., Wheeling, W. Va., Sioux City, Ia., Burlington, Vt., Dubuque, Ia., St. Joseph, Mo., Chattanooga, Tenn., Dayton, O., Paducah, Ky., Lincoln, Neb., Knoxville, Tenn., and Houston, Tex., are among those which would be reduced to sub-ports in new districts.

Some new ports of entry would be created, among them Springfield, Mass., Cincinnati, Indiana, St. Louis, Memphis, Knoxville, Ohio, Kansas City, Des Moines, Indianapolis, Nashville and Grand Rapids. There are now no ports of entry in Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, Iowa, Utah or Nevada. Maine's 14 custom-houses would be reduced to four; Massachusetts from 11 to 4; New York's from ten to six; Virginia's from seven to two; New Jersey's from six to one; Florida's from eight to four, and California's from four to two.

RACING REPORTER AT SEA

Loss of Trousers Comes Near Delay- ing Man Looping Globe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Andrew Jaeger Schmidt, the French newspaper reporter who is seeking to go around the world in 40 days, notified in the focus of half a dozen moving-picture machines and up the ganplank of the liner Olympic ten minutes before sailing time today, confident he would win his race. The Olympic sailed at 1 o'clock, with the globe girder on board.

Early in the day, the tourist met a setback. He lost his trousers. After a frenzied search, in which every bell boy at his hotel participated, the missing garments were found in time for Jaeger Schmidt to set out for the pier.
