ROADSIDE INNS DOWN FOR PROBE

Grand Jury to Investigate Vice Conditions Said to Be Flagrant.

Complaints Are Made Against Seven Suburban Resorts Where Revelry Reigns Nightly-Sheriff May Be Called to Explain.

Investigation of Multnomah County's roadhouses, taverns and roadside inns is to be made one of the functions of the present grand jury. This is provided the probe into city inquities leaves time. Several of the jurors, in leaves time. Several of the jurors, in fact, are reported to favor an immediate investigation of the county situation, which is said to be serious.

That vice flourishes at the various roadhouses despite the frequently-heard declarations of Sheriff Stevens that he was keeping the places regulated rigorously is a charge heard in many quarters.

night, drunken orgies in which men, women and even young girls partici-pats, poker, black fack and solo games, in which the stakes are often steep, and various other forms of vice are known to flourish at these readhouses. At all of them liquor may be had at all hours. Several of them continue to have hotel accommodations with no questions asked.

Claremont Flagrant Offender.

Complaints cover all the places, Claremont Tavern, Cliff Inn, Lakeview Tavern, the Seven-Mile House, Gresham Tavern and Merrill's Club. At Clare nodations are elim mont, 'notel' accommodations are elim-insted, but despite the claims to respec-tability which the management as-sumes, this is said to be the principal drinking place of the midnight joy-riders. Private poker games flourish there, too, from time to time, the man-agement profiting by the orders of liquor from the players.

Not until the city's ginmills are closed do the throngs begin appearing at the roadhouses. From I A. M. until at the roadhouses. From I A. M. until daybreak auto loads of men and women, in various states of intoxication, ply the roads teading to and from these joints. The volces of the joyriders, especially those returning from orgies, make night hideous for miles, as sleep-less natives along the routes will attest. The speed attained by the joyriders, too, is another feature, ranging all the way from 20 to 60 miles an hour. Liquer Always on Sale.

At any of the roadhouses, taverns and inns liquor is to be had in any quantities desired, no matter how late the hour may be. Some pretext is made of not selling to minors, but it is known that there is a great laxity in this respect, especially so far as young girls accommanied by older nersons are conaccompanied by older persons are con-

McKelvey was asked to resign following complaints by the auditing department of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. that he had been irregular in the sale of tickets. It was reported that he appropriated the unused portions of tourists transportation issued over the O.-W. R. & N. line between Portland and Puget Sound, disposing of it instead of the regular ticket when pairons called for tickets to Tacoma or Seattle. In some cases, it is said, the proceeds were appropriated by McKelvey and other ticket salesmen. Inasmuch as they did not sell tickets from the stock, the practice could not be detected. The conductors gathered the stubs of the tourist tickets and returned them, believing that they had been used by the driginal purchasers.

In this way the O.-W. R. & N. Co. lest money. In the old days, before the Harriman line operated to the Sound, it was required to pay the Northern Pacific in cash for handling this business. The cash outlay on this account was considerable each year.

It is said that the practice has been going on for more than 29 years and that other ticket salesmen at the depot have participated in it. As McKelvey was in charge of the office he alone was held responsible. partment of the O.-W. R. & N. Co. that Awakening Is Assured.

They have not forgotten that it was due to their apathy that the Government contracts for carrying mail to Alaska were transferred from this city to Puget Sound a few years ago. This was done without a protest being offered, although Washington at the time was a territory and this state had representation at Washington. Neither are they unmindful of the fact that a line of steamers that operated between this city and Alaska about the time of the Klondike rush was shortly afterward taken off to the serious curtailment in the volume of trade then carried on between Port-land and the Alaskan gold camps. The business men are determined to awaken from their lethargy and see to it that Portland is placed on an equal footing with other Pacific Coast ports in the enjoyment of natural ad-vantages which will follow the com-pletion of the Panama Canal.

Lewiston has a commission government, but Mr. Erb does not think the city is sufficiently large for undertaking that plan of municipal administration. A Mayor and six Councilmen or Commissioners run the city. The Mayor is elected for two years and receives an annual salary of $300, while the Commissioners are elected, three every year, for a term of two years. They get $3 for each meeting they attend, not exceeding $200 annually. Mr. Erb said he found no fault with the administration of the city's affairs, but maintained that the commissioners a salary proportionate to the services required. He said the Commissioners devote fully two-thirds of their time to the business of the city.

SAN FRANCISCO FANS GET NO HIGH-CLASS CARDS.

Gallagher's Attack on Amateur Clubs Deals Solar Plexus Blow to Them Also.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16 .- (Spe SAN FRANCISCO. Sept. 16.—(Special)—The fight game in San Francisco is practically at a standstill at present. Since the Wolgast-Moran bout of July 4 last, local fans have had no high-class ring sport of any description. Jimmy Cofforth built up hopes somewhat during the week by announcing that he was in the field with a bid for the Ad Wolgast-McFarland bout if it happened to fall through at Milwaukes, but nothing followed the initial announcement.

Milton T. Clark, who holds the permit to stage a boxing show this month, has been so busy with his contracting business that he has turned over the management of the show to Billy Kyne, one of the managers of the so-called amateur shows, and nothing but a third or fourth-class pugilistic card will be offered this month.

The so-called amateur fight clubs offered this month.

The so-called amateur fight clubs were handed a solar-plexus blow during the week by Supervisor Andy Gallagher, who was but recently appointed to the board. Gallagher voted against granting further permits to the so-called amateur clubs which promote shows every Friday night. He based his argument on the ground that the clubs were amateur in name only and that it was a well-known fact that professionals received money for boxing at these shows which were sanctioned as amateur affairs. Gallagher's war on the so-called amateur clubs will likely result in a wholesale investigation which may wipe them out of existence.

Pete McVeigh, the stocky Northwestern lightweight, is in town looking for trouble. He has hurled a challenge at any of the local lightweights and it is likely that he will catch on in one of the special bouts in the so-called amateur shows.

Oregon Legislature in special session to enact the good roads bills drafted and recommended for enactment by a special commission, appeinted by the Governor for that purpose, in this city last week.

Dr. A. C. Smith, chairman of the Good Roads Commission, said yesterday that drafts of the bills prepared by the commission were in the hands of Governor West. He said further more that members of the commission would arrange for a conference with the Governor probably tomorrow or Tuesday and urge upon him the necessity of calling the Legislators together at this time. The members of the commission have the understanding that the measures prepared by their body meet with the wishes of the Governor in the matter of desirable road legislation.

"I understand from others," said Dr. Smith last night, "that if, after a thorough review the bills meet with his approval, Governor West will call a special session of the Legislature if the members will agree to confine themselves to good road legislation."

The special session of 1903, called by Governor Benson to cure defects in an appropriation bill, concluded its work and adjourned within a week. At that time Governor Benson first gained assurances from a majority of the 30 members that they would restrict their work to such legislation as was required to make the appropriations, included in the faulty measure, available. In view of the more or less turbulent session of 1911, however, and the wholesale application by Governor West of his veto as to bills following its adjournment, it remains to be seen to what extent the Governor will be able to tie the hands of the legislators in advance so that the scope of their work will not extend beyond a consideration of good roads legislation. It is known that some of the members of both houses are esgerly awaiting an opportunity to call up for consideration a number of these very bills which fell under West's disapproval.
