

WOOD CAN'T STOP WEDDING, ANYHOW

Lieutenant to Marry Heiress, Even Though He Is Not Permitted to Resign.

BUSINESS CAREER AHEAD

Mrs. Colgate Denies Rumbough Will Be Financially Dependent on Wife's Folks—He Is Well Off, Too, She Says.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(Special)—General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the Army, can prevent the acceptance of the resignation of Lieutenant Rumbough, who is to wed Elizabeth Morse, an heiress, next Wednesday, but he cannot prevent the wedding. Miss Colgate's mother said today that the wedding would not be delayed an hour on account of General Wood's ruling.

"It is absurd to think that merely because it is the edict of General Wood that the Lieutenant must serve out his full term," Mrs. Colgate asserted. "The marriage will take place at Tannersville, N. Y., in the Onteora Church, on September 20, and every arrangement made whereupon it is supposed the Lieutenant's resignation would be accepted will be carried out."

Military Ceremony Planned.

"It will be a military wedding. All of Lieutenant Rumbough's men relatives are in the Army. My daughter, Florence, will be maid of honor. There will be eight bridesmaids and an equal number of ushers. Lieutenant Wright Rumbough, a brother of Stanley, will be best man."

"Of course, we are disappointed that Lieutenant Rumbough's resignation was not accepted, but a six months' leave of absence has been granted him and after the marriage he and my daughter will go to Spain."

"While there the Lieutenant will take up a course of study which he had intended to pursue the next two years had he been permitted to resign from the Army. After his six months' leave is over he will come home and be assigned to one of the Army posts."

Lieutenant Rumbough formerly was one of the junior officers in the regiment but was assigned to posts in the West. Mrs. Colgate was asked where he would likely be assigned on his return home.

Wife Will Travel With Him.

"We prefer Washington, she replied, but we have little hope of this. Whether he is assigned to the East or the West my daughter will go with him. After his furlough is over he will have about 18 months to serve."

Mrs. Colgate was told that Washington dispatcher would make the furlough is for only three months.

"That's a mistake," she laughed. "There have been other mistakes, too. For instance, it was implied that the Lieutenant would live off our family after his marriage. That has been most unfair."

In the first place Lieutenant Rumbough is too much of a man for any arrangement of this kind, and in the second his circumstances are quite as good as ours."

The Lieutenant's idea in getting out of the Army was to fit himself for a business career by hard study. No, I cannot tell what business he plans to go in, but it will require constant study for him to become perfect in it and he proposes to be at the head and front of this business."

CHINOOK JARGON ASKS TAFT

President to Be Guest of Seattle Press Club on Visit.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special)—"Copa tree Taft" was the unusual address on a document mailed here 18 days ago. It was the invitation of the Seattle Press Club, written in chinook jargon to President Taft that he become the guest of the club during his visit here. "For Chief Taft" is the translation. On that slender address the document was taken in charge by Postmaster George F. Russell and was delivered promptly at Beverly, Mass.

The President has accepted the invitation, which was handsomely enclosed. It follows:

"Copa tree Copas neksila illahee, Seattle tsum tillicum copa klaska tyees, dolate ticke milka chaco copa neksila illahee, tsum lale milka mitlile yakawa."

On Day Appointed to Draw $50,000, He fails to Estate Disappears.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Engine troubles brought Aviator Cyril Ward to grief yesterday shortly after 5 o'clock. He was taking wing again to resume his coast-to-coast flight and had just left the ground when without warning the biplane dropped from a height of 20 feet into a fence.

The supports of the front control were smashed and the body balance plane was demolished, while the wheel collapsed. The engine, rear planes and rudder escaped damage.

Ward was thrown from his seat, but was not hurt. He expects that his mechanics can repair the machine in time for him to resume his flight Monday.

He had reached Oswego at 3:30 o'clock and had just started the third lap of a flight from Calicoon when the accident occurred. He made a splendid flight to Susquehanna, Pa., traversing the 56 miles at nearly a mile a minute. At Susquehanna Ward noticed that his motor was not working properly. He made several unsuccessful attempts to resume his trip and the motor had to be doctored before he finally got away shortly after 2 o'clock.

Ward flew 99 miles today and in all has traveled 225 miles from New York.

PHOTOS BEAR OUT STORY

McManigal's Confession Confirmed by Finding of Films.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 16.—(Special)—New evidence on which the prosecution will rely in its effort to show the complicity of John J. McManigal, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, in the Los Angeles and other dynamiting cases has been developed here. This is evidence which goes to confirm a hitherto carefully guarded part of the confession of Orville E. McManigal, that he took photographs of buildings and bridges destroyed by dynamite and that at least one of these pictures was delivered at the office of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers in this city.

This has been brought to light that in October, 1910, on three different occasions, films in the name of O. E. McManigal were developed at the establishment of the Willis-Shores Photographic Supply Company in this city. Entries in that name are found on the books of the company.

Absolute Life Proptet Out on Bail.

postoffice that Pender was for Wehrman's mail and that he gave Pender a newspaper. Pender returned home about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and about half an hour later, he says, he looked in the mailbox and found a package in it. He also positively denies that he asked for Wehrman's mail or that he received it.

MAIL NOT OPENED.

On the other hand, the authorities believe the story of the postoffice clerk and are firm in their conviction that the person who opened the news paper and removed the to Wehrman's newspaper committed the murder, from the fact that the wrappers on the paper and package had not been broken. Both lay where they had evidently been placed on a chair.

(Added from the collection of additional circumstantial evidence yesterday the authorities turned their attention to investigating Pender's character. They do not regard the result of this investigation as favorable to Pender. It is felt that Pender is particularly loquacious in conversation and frequently carries obscene literature and pictures.

Pender is a veteran of the Spanish-American War, having served with the Utah Volunteer Battery in the Philippines until he was discharged on account of disability in 1898. In December, 1901, he married Miss Fonda Turner at Harrisburg, Idaho, and in 1907 he and his wife went to California. There Pender worked as brakeman on the Southern Pacific, running between Sacramento, Stockton and Fresno, until January, 1908, when he came to Portland and took charge of his brother-in-law's ranch, near Scappoose. His father is a city detective of Odgen, Utah.

Contradictions Are Many.

Pender is much worried over his arrest, and his features show the intense strain he is under, but he maintains steadfastly that he is innocent and that the trial is a farce. His mind, however, is confused with the Sheriff's and detectives have been characterized with contradictions concerning details previously recited, but these contradictions, when called to his attention, he sweeps away with the assertion that he was mistaken in his memory. He sweeps away with the assertion that he was mistaken in his memory. The trial of Thomas will remove Pender to Columbia County tomorrow, and by that time it is expected enough evidence will have been collected against him to justify formally charging him with murder.

SNOHOMISH LOSES CASH

COUNTY OFFICERS TAKEN TO TASK FOR VIOLATING LAWS.

Recommendations Made That No Warrants Be Issued Without Funds to Meet Them.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special)—Claims illegally allowed, illegal claims paid and discrepancies of all kinds between January 1, 1905, and December 31, 1910, have cost Snohomish County $1,162,334.78, according to the report of the State Bureau of inspection of that county, which has just been filed with the Attorney-General. The examination, which required from August 19, 1910, to June 17, 1911, has cost $162,334.78.

The report of the bureau states that during the past year the county had disbursed $41,162,334.78, out of which $279,112.73 has been paid for interests on outstanding warrants.

The money, the bureau states, is money probably the amount of the tax levy, but Snohomish County, it is said, like every other county in the state, has ignored the statute and contracted the debts.

The bureau finds that the county still has outstanding warrants against the state of $1,162,334.78, and Snohomish County, it is said, like every other county in the state, has ignored the statute and contracted the debts.

The bureau takes the various officers to task and instructs them that in the future they should observe the laws covering their offices. The County Commissioners are recommended to issue no warrants when there are no funds to meet them; the auditor to see that all are drawn according to law and to prohibit the custom of allowing school districts to run in debt beyond their constitutional limit.

It is true that during the last two weeks the market gardeners have helped to supply some of the demands, but their efforts make little difference.

It probably will be found today that the candidates in favor of reciprocity will make a clean sweep.

Western Canadians, with the exception of Winnipeg and Brandon, both of which are Conservative strongholds,

The Conservatives assert they will gain in both Ontario and Quebec, which they assert, will give them the balance of power. The Liberals estimate their majority in the twelfth Parliament at between 40 and 45, compared with a majority of 43 in the Parliament just dissolved.

States Pay Higher Prices.

Barley, south of the international boundary, usually sells for 30 cents a bushel more than it does on this side, and it is asserted that the Canadian barley is better than that grown in North Dakota and Minnesota. Then there are vegetables and other produce, all of which command better prices in the States than they do here, despite the fact potatoes and other products have been shipped into Winnipeg from Christmas until the new crop was harvested, and the people have literally lived on American products, which paid well in the first place.
