Two Seal Pitchers Treated to Terrific Bombardment for Score of 12 to 4.

PECKINPAUGH HERO AT BAT

Portland Shortstop, Hitting for Ten Bases, Is Responsible for Six Runs — Harkness Holds San Francisco at His Mercy.

After playing nip and tuck games for three weeks straight, the Beavers held a batting rally yesterday at the expense of Pitchers Suter and Browning, of San Francisco, and won a lop-sided game by the score of 12 to 4.

It was a slugfest for the Beavers from the jump, and Harry Suter, the Seal southpaw, lasted just long enough to allow Portland one run with the sacks still loaded, when "Kid" Mohler wigwagged him to cover and substituted Frank "Alexander" Browning, who was anything but effective against Roger Peckinpaugh and Bill Rapps.

A few other Beavers also figured in the swatfest against Browning, but it was the long drives of Peckinpaugh, who slammed out two doubles and a similar number of triples in four trials, and a healthy three-bagger by Rapps that created most of the havoc for the Seals.

Beavers Land Hard on Suter.

The Beavers started after Suter in the first inning when Chadbourne, Rodgers and Lindsay, three left-handed batters, singled successively and filled the bases. A long fly by Bill Rapps, which was cleverly captured by Johnson, proved far enough out to permit Chadbourne to score. Buddy Ryan also filed to Johnson, but no one advanced, and Suter finished his term of pitching by filling up the paths on a pass to Krueger.

Mohler then substituted Browning, and Peckinpaugh promptly scored Rodgers, Lindsay and Krueger with a double, the first of his four ringing hits to the left field portion of the enclosure. Mickey La Longe ended the first inning with a tap to French.

Weaver's single and doubles by Johnson and Tennant gave the Seals two in the second, but after that Harkness was an enigma, for the other Seal runs were accumulated because the Portland pitcher took things easy in the eighth and ninth innings, when the home team had 10 runs to the good. Peckinpaugh's second double and a pass to Chadbourne, combined with an error by Weaver and two double steals, gave Portland two more in the fourth.

Bill Rapps Scores Two.

A single by Rapps and Peckinpaugh's first triple annexed another for the Beavers in the fifth. Chadbourne, Rodgers and Lindsay singled successively in the sixth, but Chadbourne was out after over-running third on Lindsay's infield bingle. This made but two out, and Bill Rapps proved the pinch-hitter by lacing one for three bags that scored Rodgers and Lindsay. Ryan scored Rapps by beating out a slow bounder to Weaver.

Peckinpaugh opened the seventh with his second three-bagger, and his fourth long hit of the day, and scored on a single by La Longe. Harkness sacrificed La Longe to second, and that worthy tallied on a pretty hit to left by Rodgers.

Two games will be played this afternoon, and as both teams are scheduled to depart for the South at 6 o'clock, the first game will be called at 1:30 o'clock, and the final game will be terminated at 5 o'clock, so the players can get their train.

Henderson Held in Reserve.

Tom Seaton and Bill Steen will pitch for Portland, as Ben Henderson has volunteered to pitch three games next week against Vernon. The Seals will depend on Harry Suter or "Doc" Moskiman and "Cack" Henley in the final games of the season here. The score:

Notes of the Game.

Yesterday's victory was the first easy game the Beavers have had in four weeks. Nearly every other game played in that period by Portland has been decided by one run.

"Speck" Harkness had an easy game, and was decidedly thankful for it. His clever twirler has been compelled to shut the opponents out or hold them to one run to win in the past.

Frank Browning was treated to the worst beating the Portland club has ever administered to him, but as he started with the bases full, it was not altogether his fault.

Any time left-handed batters get to Suter for three hits in succession it is time to take him out, for this twirler is one of the best southpaws in the league. He was not right yesterday.

Bill Rapps put up Bob Cain Maxmeyer. The eccentric beaver was sent to the coaching line, and because he wore an odd uniform, Finney ordered him to the bench. Maxmeyer then changed shirts and Finney ordered him out of the grounds.

Bill Rodgers has been the hitting demon of the team since he rejoined the Beavers' regular battle array. Scarcely a day has passed but that he has made one or more bingles.

Roger Peckinpaugh has also been some slugger in the last few games. His feat yesterday of rapping out two doubles and two three-baggers in four times up is a slugging mark surpassed only by Buddy Ryan this season.

Today the fans will bid farewell to the Beavers for 1911, and a record-breaking crowd is expected to attend this afternoon's double-header to give them a royal sendoff for the season.

Hewitt in the infield and Parks in the outfield will be other strong additions. Salem has won one and Woodburn has won one game in the final series of three games to break the percentage tie at the end of the season.

Oregon City Arranges Schedule.

OREGON CITY, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Harry White, manager of the Oregon City football team, is receiving letters from all parts of the Willamette Valley from teams seeking games. It is the intention of the team to play the majority of their games in Oregon City, but they plan a tour later in the season. Combination suits, black jerseys with yellow striped sleeves and black stockings with yellow stripes, will be the uniform of the Oregon City players.

"SPEC" HARKNESS "BACK" WITH VIM

Freckled Pitcher Repairs Reputation Damaged at Cleveland.

NAPS WERE WATERLOO

Big Beaver Is Native Son, Says He Will Make Good in Big Leagues Now—Victim of "Knockers," Is Asserted.

When "Speck" Harkness was returned to the Portland baseball team last Summer by the Cleveland Americans, several wiseacres who think they know all about ballplayers and their ability simply whanged the anvil into pieces in expressing their opinion of the tall young twirler, for whom they predicted all sorts of disaster.

"Speck" had no very flattering start, but he kept pegging away and McCredie continued to have faith in him. One day the big pitcher was sent into the game against the Oaks at San Francisco in the first inning with the bases full and none out and he succeeded in whitewashing the Wolverines, which served to start a change in his luck. Since that time "Speck" has pitched five games and only four runs have been registered against him.

He is the original "comeback" of the bunch, and now is as dependable a pitcher as there is in the league, most of the knockers are trying to persuade their auditors that they are in the "I-told-you-so" class.

Harkness "Native Son."

Fred H. Harkness is a native of California, and for years made his home at Arroyo Grande, 16 miles from San Luis Obispo. Of athletic tendency while a lad, the youngster naturally took to baseball playing. He learned the rudiments of pitching in the California bushes, and made such a fine showing that he was signed by John J. McCloskey for the Butte team of the Northwestern League in 1908.

McCredie kept tab on young Harkness while he was with Butte, for he had been tipped to this twirler by California friends, and when the open season for drafting from class B clubs arrived, the Portland team selected and was awarded Harkness of Butte. McCredie drafted Carson from the Tacoma club the same season. Both these twirlers became Beavers in 1909.

While wearing a Portland uniform that year, Harkness made such a good showing that he was purchased by the Cleveland American League club for 1910. "Speck" reported to the Cleveland team last year and made good. He was signed again this season and pitched for Cleveland until the latter part of July, when he was returned to the Portland club by the American League team.

Heavy Hitters Beat "Speck."

The Philadelphia Athletics were responsible for "Speck's" return to Portland by the severe lacing they gave him when he attempted to deceive their heavy gunning. Any one who wants an argument can get it by asserting, in the presence of Harkness, that Connie Mack's team is a weak-hitting aggregation. "Speck" asserts that the Athletics are the hardest hitters ever gathered on one club, and he is banking on them to defeat the New York Giants in the coming championship series.

Harkness asserts that he is not through with the big leagues, for he claims that he will get another chance yet, and that the next time he goes up he will stick longer than he remained in a Cleveland uniform. He is ambitious and his present form would indicate that he will undoubtedly accomplish his ambition to gain another chance in fast company.

THE Beavers and the Seals will occupy special cars leaving Portland tonight at 6 o'clock, and will arrive in San Francisco tomorrow night at 9 o'clock. The Beavers will remain at San Francisco Monday night and will leave there Tuesday morning for Los Angeles, where they open with Vernon on Wednesday.

Benny Henderson has volunteered to pitch three games against Vernon next week, and his wish will no doubt be granted by McCredie, though Elmer Koestner is equally as eager to hurl against the Hooligan band. Koestner thinks he can beat that team any time he starts against them.

Yesterday's victory over the Seals gives Portland four out of five games with the Frisky ones. The Seals have always been troublesome contenders, and have, previous to this series, been hard nuts for the Beavers to crack, except on their last previous trip to Portland. At that time Portland took five out of six and sent them on the toboggan.

A San Francisco writer asserts that the results of the games of the past few weeks show Vernon to have the best club, as he says that Portland is simply showing the advantage of being at home. If the other clubs would play as hard against Vernon as they seem to do against Portland the Vernon club would not win so many decisive battles. When Vernoon faces good pitching that club does not hit so strongly, as was demonstrated when Hogan was in Portland.

According to a San Francisco exchange, Patsy O'Rourke is to handle the Sacramento club again next season, for the scrappy little Irishman has made a hit in the California state capital. O'Rourke is a good leader and if the Senatorial owners will get him a ball club he will make the other fellows hustle some next season.

The effervescent J. Cal Ewing, rated as one of the keenest and brainiest baseball Solomons of the West, declares Bill Steen will have to change his box delivery when he goes to Cleveland next season.

"Steen balks dozens of times in every game," declared Cal on Thursday, calling attention at numerous intervals to the so-called balk delivery.

"See that peculiar twist of the shoulder? He's got all the base runners scared to death. That twist is a part of his delivery and legally he should never be allowed to throw to the bases with the same feint motion that he uses in feeding the ball to the batter."

YACHTS MAY COMPETE TODAY

If Weather Is Balmy Sailers Will Race to Milwaukie.

Weather permitting the yachts will line up at the Oregon Yacht Club this afternoon for the races to Milwaukie and return. The championship for 1911 will be decided and several other prizes will be competed for. Much interest has been shown and a large number of boats are expected to enter.

Two additions to the houseboats were made last week with the arrival of R. Warriner's houseboat from Rock Island and one belonging to Hahn, built on a pontoon. It has sprung a leak and one side is under water, awaiting the discovery of the trouble.

William Racer and A. Sholin are planning a dance for the near future and the date will be announced in a few days.

Several yachts including the Swallow and Terrior, Fore-an'-Aft, Sparrow and Spendthrift, sailed to Rooster Rock last Sunday. The Swallow and Terrior had left the day before for the mouth of the river and remained there over night. Every yacht has a new crew. The day was ideal for yachting and after enjoying the Columbia until late in the afternoon, the boats turned homeward and arrived at the clubhouse at 8 o'clock.

The Buccaneer will be drawn for this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Vice-Commodore Mendenhall has all the tickets disposed of and considerable interest is manifested in the drawing.

ROADSTERS SWAT BUSH HURLER HARD

18 Hits Gathered Off Spokane City Leaguer Tried Out in Box by Indians.

SEASON IS ENDED TODAY

Though Tonneson Is Pounded, Good Fielding Gives Him Long End of 10-to-3 Score—Two Games to Wind Up Play for Year.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Kelly, another City League recruit, was tendered a smarting reception when he essayed his league debut at Recreation Park today, the Portland Roadsters amassing 18 hits, including two doubles, three triples and a home run. The score was 10 to 3.

Tonneson was no puzzle to the Spokane batsmen, either, but Kelly's support was indifferent and the Roadsters took chances on the bases. Portland got a hit in every inning except one, and every man in the Portland lineup got at least one hit. Kelly was constantly in a hole.

Tomorrow will wind up the season here and two games will be played. Spokane will have its strongest lineup in the field, for Nick Williams is playing the string out as if the pennant was depending upon it.

He probably will pitch Henkle and Jensen against Schwenk and O'Loughlin for Spokane. The score:
