Artistic Temperaments Clash With Commonplace Struggle for Living, Just as Friends Predicted They Would.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—As was expected by friends who know what the "artistic temperament" does in households where one of the "temperaments" is interested in hustling for bread and cheese, the Willard M. Beam has separated and will be divorced. Mrs. Beam was formerly Mary Adele Case, a contralto singer whose success as a choir singer encouraged her to go to Paris to cultivate her voice. When abroad she met the young San Francisco millionaire and announced her engagement to him. He, being a gallant youth, could not deny it, but his mother died in Europe and brought her son home forthwith. Nothing daunted, Miss Case went to her parents' home in Oregon and shortly afterward announced her engagement to Willard M. Beam, nephew of Victor H. Metcalf, of Oakland, and son of the late I. Willard Beam, whose widow was married two weeks ago to Charles Arthur Kelley.

humble the monarchists and deprive them of the means for financing another rising. All absentee monarchist landowners or other Portuguese residing abroad for political reasons must return to the country within a term to be named in the law or their property will be forfeited to the state. The property of those conspiring will be confiscated immediately.

This decision to seize the property of those taking an active part in treason against the present administration will include the deposed King Manuel, who, according to evidence in the hands of the government, sent his uncle, the Duke of Oporto, to represent him in the recent uprising.

Political prisoners of the lower classes probably will be exiled to Portuguese African colonies. They will, it is considered likely, be advanced certain sums to start them as colonists.

The captured monarchist leaders will

WEST MAY GET CARDINAL

QUIGLEY'S NAME IS CONSIDERED BY POPE.

Ireland's Chance Believed to Have Been Diminished by Bellamy Storer Controversy.

ROME, Nov. 11.—The appointment of a fourth American cardinal, who shall represent the West, is said to be under consideration at the Vatican, those in a position to know declaring that the additional cardinal will be James Edward Quigley, archbishop of Chicago. The three men recently chosen by the Pope are all from the East.

When the announcement was made a few days ago there was great surprise that the West was not represented, especially as Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, has been a candidate for the cardinalate for many years. Archbishop Ireland might have been chosen if he had not been handicapped by the endorsement of Theodore Roosevelt. It was over his ambition that the Bellamy Storer controversy developed in the Roosevelt administration. Afterward Mr. Roosevelt visited on his visit to Rome antagonized the Vatican.

BELLS TOLL FOR LORIMER

Editor Tells How Churches Voiced Protest at Election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—How the bells of a nearby church were made to toll 46 times to indicate the number of votes cast in favor of Senator William Lorimer's retention of his seat in the United States Senate and how badges of black were distributed to those present and the meeting was referred to as "Lorimer's funeral," was related before the Senatorial investigating committee today by Fred E. Sterling, editor of a newspaper at Rockford, Ill.

Sterling said that the meeting, held at Rockford, Ill., after the Senate, following the first Lorimer investigation, had voted to sustain the Senator in his seat, was one of a series of anti-Lorimer meetings at which both Lorimer and Senator Shelby M. Cullom were denounced.

Senator Cullom, the witness said, was criticized because of his support of Lorimer.
