

VIDA REED SIGNS WITH BIG K. & E. ATTRACTION

Portland Girl to Appear With Charlotte Walker in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

MISS VIDA REED.

A PORTLAND girl who is gaining metropolitan recognition in the very early days of her career is Vida Reed, the only daughter of Mrs. Rose Courson Reed. She has just signed a contract with the big theatrical firm of Klaw & Erlanger to appear with Charlotte Walker in Eugene Walker's dramatization of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Miss Reed's position is further made important by the fact that she is to be also understudy for Miss Walker, and of two other roles in the play. She was engaged about 15 days ago for the place after one hour's rehearsal, and left New York immediately for Philadelphia, where the company is playing.

Miss Reed is a graduate of the Sargent-Freeman Dramatic School, and has had special training in stage dancing as well. In fact, so talented is she in this particular field that Marvin, the New York producer, offered in two years to make her a second lead.

But Miss Reed is intensely ambitious in the work of drama and has devoted her attention to it. She has as well a splendid musical knowledge, and is gifted as a vocalist. When she lived in Portland she was a participant in local theatrical events of an amateur nature, and is especially remembered for her beautiful dancing in the first Kirmess held here. Miss Reed is a graduate of Portland Academy and a former St. Helen's Hall girl. She speaks several languages fluently, and is a student of literature. Miss Reed's friends in Portland are legion, and they learn of her rapid advancement in her chosen career with delight and gratification.

carrying cargo loaded here for a Coast harbor. A similar situation confronted Puget Sound shippers a few years ago and steps were taken to change the law so that it is no longer necessary to file manifests at Port Townsend when bound to points beyond or after loading in the same districts.

The association will endeavor to introduce an amendment to the statutes in Congress and to that end have asked Portland interests to co-operate that the Oregon delegation may lend its support. The Port of Portland commission favors the change, but the commissioners feel that it is a question that should be dealt with by the Chamber of Commerce. Steamers arriving from the South and departing with cargo taken on here are subject to delays at Astoria that mariners regard as unnecessary.

WEATHER COLD; MEN GOOD

Police Experience One of Quietest Days in Months.

The cold weather is exerting a restraining influence upon evildoers, if the number of cases in the Police Court and the number of arrests at the station yesterday is any criterion. Both in the court and at the station yesterday was one of the quietest experienced in many months. In the court there were but 12 city cases, and 13 state cases.

Between midnight Friday and 8 P. M. yesterday there were but 14 arrests, nine of these being of persons who had attempted to fortify themselves against the cold weather with a brace or two. Of the other five arrests, two were charged with vagrancy, one with being out after hours, one with disorderly conduct, and one with begging.

SCHOOL STRIKE BREWS

MOTHER OF GIRL WHIPPED TELLS OF THREAT.

Woman Says Pleasant Home Pupils Will Walk Out if Teacher is Not Indicted.

If an indictment is not returned against Miss Mabel Stevens, the pupils of the Pleasant Home school, (Seaham, where she presides as teacher, will strike, declares the mother of Rose Tannier, aged 15, whom Miss Stevens is accused of whipping. The strike threats were made in the grand jury witness room yesterday while the case was under consideration.

Mrs. Tannier also announced that she takes exception to the alleged assertion of one of the school directors that she would bury the "kids" as fast as Miss Stevens saw fit to kill them. This man believes the teacher should be hanged and is said to have the support of another of the directors, making two out of three of the Board in favor of Miss Stevens.

Pleasant Home is divided over the controversy. Some are in favor of discharging Miss Stevens while others believe her to be in the right and are determined that she shall not meet the fate of her three predecessors, who are reported to have been driven from the school by the rowdism and "independence" of some of the pupils.

Miss Stevens has announced her determination not to give in.

About a week ago Miss Stevens considered it necessary to discipline the Tannier girl by keeping her after school. The girl is alleged to have disrupted the teacher's class and to have attempted to leave the room after announcing that her father had instructed her not to remain after school hours. Whipping of the pupil by the teacher is said to have ensued. A warrant was issued for the teacher's arrest but she came to Portland and gave herself into the custody of Constable Weinberger. The charge against her was dismissed in the Justice Court on motion of the District Attorney.
