MORE ARRESTS TO COME, SAYS BURNS

Kaplan and Schmidt in Middle West.

EARLY CAPTURE IS PROMISED

Future Prosecutions May Depend on Fredericks.

NEW DISCLOSURES HINTED

Detective Declares Trail "Goes Beyond Indianapolis," and Intimates Men Wanted Are Not on Pacific Coast.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Detective Burns, who gathered the evidence against the McNamara brothers in connection with the Los Angeles dynamiting, announced tonight that the arrests of Milton A. Schmidt and David M. Kaplan, alleged accomplices of J. B. McNamara, would be made not long after a forthcoming visit to Los Angeles.

He added that sensational disclosures undoubtedly would follow this visit, which he would make in about a week, or after he had made a trip to New York on another case. Just what future prosecutions or additional cases will be made he declined to intimate, but he would not deny that the trail "went beyond Indianapolis."

Early Arrests Promised.

Where Kaplan and Schmidt are is not known. Burns says that the McNamara brothers where the two were living and adding:

"You won't have to wait long now, before they are taken in."

He added that inasmuch as Chicago newspapers covered the territory between the Rockies and the Appalachian Ranges, the Chicago papers probably would be first to print the news. This is his first intimation that the men were not, as first reported, under surveillance by his operatives on the Pacific Coast.

Thanks Sent to Roosevelt.

Mr. Burns answered a telegram he received from Theodore Roosevelt with the following message:

"Please accept my sincere thanks. It is the words of encouragement from men of your sterling character that urge us in the faithful and vigorous performance of our plain duty."

Mr. Burns said he would leave tomorrow or Monday for New York, return here in three or four days, and go immediately to Los Angeles. The future of the dynamiting cases, he said, hung on the desire of District Attorney Fredericks, after the detective had summed up the outstanding evidence to him.

"HIGHER UP" NOW CAUGHT

Steel Work Builders Expect Greater Exposures to Follow.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The fight has only just begun. This is only the first chapter. What we want to find out now is who were the men behind the McNamara, and this we purpose doing.

This statement was made today by Walter Drew, chief counsel for the National Erectors' Association, which employed William J. Burns and his detectives to investigate the Los Angeles dynamiting case.

"The McNamara, in pleading guilty, have said that they were sent out there and acted for a principle," Mr. Drew continued, "it is obvious that the men representing this 'principle' have kept them well supplied with money. It is to find out who these men are that we are now working."

LOCOMOTIVES KILL GIRL, 3, AND BOY, 7

NORTH BANK BRIDGE AND FULTON FATALITY SCENES.

Backing Engine Crushes Out Life of One and Other Is Run Down by Passenger Train.

Two young lives were crushed out by railroad engines yesterday afternoon, at opposite extremes of the city. One victim was a little girl of 3 years, the other a boy of 7. Both mangled little bodies are in the custody of the coroner and inquests will be held to disclose the accountability.

While playing about the station-house at Fulton, on the Oswego-Yamhill line of the Southern Pacific, Avis Jones, 3 years old, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon by the Oswego local train, which was running backward at the time. The train was in charge of Engineer L. G. Williams, G. Helbeck, fireman, and J. Bell, conductor, but none of them, according to the coroner's information, saw the child until it was too late.

M. Young, 214 Columbia street, was the only witness discovered. He says the child was running and playing about the station, when the train, making very little noise, ran close to her, just as she started to run across the track.

The child's father is Frank Jones, who could not be found by the police last night. The little girl was living with Mrs. C. Finney, at 1620 Macadam street.

Scarcely had this case been disposed of when the coroner's men were called to the northern extreme of the city, at the foot of the North Bank bridge over the Willamette, where George Rice, 7 years old, was run down and killed by Northern Pacific passenger train No. 307. The train was in charge of Abraham Geary, engineer, and M. E. McNichol, conductor.

NEW YORK 'BAD MAN' SHOT

Apache Hero of Five-Score Gun Fights Felled in Dance Hall.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Julian Morrell, who, according to the police, is the city's worst "bad man," lies at the point of death in Bellevue Hospital, from seven pistol-shot wounds, received in a second avenue dance hall, which he went to "smoke out" tonight as a herald sent before him announced. Morrell refused to tell who shot him.

Morrell was notorious for his savage courage and fought bullfights as well as men. For years he had a standing offer to fight any bull in the city with his bare hands.

That he participated in five score "gun fights" is a conservative estimate, the police say.

KING AND QUEEN GREETED

Vast Crowd Welcomes British Rulers on Arrival in India.

BOMBAY, Dec. 2.—"King-Emperor" George and "Queen-Empress" Mary, as they are officially styled since their arrival in India, landed at 4 o'clock today from the steamer Medina. They were met by the Governor of Bombay and a large gathering of high officials of the civil and military service and proceeded to a huge amphitheater which had been erected opposite the landing stage, which was filled to its utmost capacity with many thousands who had come to welcome their majesties.

Addresses of welcome were presented by the municipality and other bodies, to which his majesty replied.

REPLY TO ULTIMATUM CALM

W. Morgan Shuster Answers Charge That He Is Seeking to Anglicize Service by Dismissing British Employees.

TEHERAN, Dec. 2.—Persia is in a ferment over the warlike action of Russia, and the excitement in the capital today was intense at the news of the Russian advance. Placards proclaiming "Death or independence" were posted both on the walls of the city and on the legations. Thousands of persons formed in procession and marched past the legations.

To add to the excitement two prominent politicians were assassinated. Hadji Mohammad Tagi, a prominent revolutionary, was killed in the capital. Prince Firman Firman, at one time Minister of Justice and subsequently Governor of the province of Azerbaijan, was assassinated at Kasbin, 80 miles northwest of Teheran.

Persia's reply to Russia's ultimatum is calm. It gives the reasons for the rejection of Russia's demands and invites the Russian government to examine into the facts more closely and then reformulate her demands.

Russian Goods Boycotted. Messages from the provinces assure the Persian government of unlimited support. A general boycott on Russian goods has been begun and the people are preventing the use of the Russian railway. M. McCaffrey, whose appointment was used as an argument against W. Morgan Shuster, the American Treasurer-General, was not appointed by Mr. Shuster, but has been in the Persian Northern Service for two years. Mr. Shuster merely transferred him to a new post at Tabriz.

British Employees Dismissed.

The Treasurer-General has decided to dispense with the services of British officials appointed by him in Northern Persia, with the exception of one man, who has a contract approved by the National Council. This is Mr. Shuster's reply to the charge that he is trying to Anglicize the service. In an interview today he said:

"Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, accuses me of endeavoring to Anglicize the Persian service. This is absolutely false. It is true that I am seeking here for employees familiar with modern accounting and with a knowledge of the Persian language and customs. I have found several Britishers who were available, and also two Belgians now in the service. Had any Russians possessing the necessary qualifications presented themselves, I would gladly have engaged them."

A temporary bridge has been constructed over the Assiniboine River, but a new steel bridge will be constructed in the Spring. The Great Northern spent $4,000,000 for this entrance into Winnipeg.

LONE SOCIALIST ACTIVE

Tariff and Corporation Legislation Lead on Programme, Which Promises to Be Busy One. Tariff Bills Many.

BY SUMNER CURTIS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The second session of the Sixty-second Congress will open on Monday. Having perfected its organization when it met in extraordinary session at the call of the President last Spring, Congress will be ready to go right ahead with the work it is paid to perform. The question, however, is: Will it be a doing nothing or a do-something session?

Representative Mann, minority leader in the House, has expressed the opinion that it will be a do-nothing Congress.

Congress is ready to proceed with its work, but the statement ought to be qualified a little. The Senate is confronted with a reopening of the President pro tempore fight and this is likely to afford considerable excitement at the outset. It may be a prolonged contest, but it need not interfere greatly with the regular routine business. The Senate can worry along without a President pro tempore, whereas the House cannot do more than mark time without a Speaker.

Socialist Will Be Active. The Socialist party in Congress, consisting of Representative Victor Berger, of Milwaukee, promises to attract attention, at least during the Winter. The prospectus of Socialist activity, embodying the measures Mr. Berger will present, was made public today.

It is declared his bills will "touch the economic problem and not play with the surface."

Mr. Berger will offer the Socialist remedy for the trust situation by introducing a bill providing for the nationalization of all combinations having more than 40 per cent monopoly of their respective industries, and for the repeal of the Sherman anti-trust act. He will also introduce bills providing for the nationalization of railways with express companies, coal mines, telegraphs, and telephones. TAFT CONSIDERS BORAH FOR HONOR

APPOINTMENT TO HARLAN'S PLACE IS URGED.

Idahoan Not Candidate and Views as to Acceptance Are Not Known in Washington.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 2.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, is among the men the President is seriously considering for the appointment to Supreme bench to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Harlan. Senator Borah, it is known, is not a candidate for this appointment. Many prominent Senators and Representatives, regardless of party, have been urging upon the President his qualifications for this high judicial office. Whether he would accept if the office were tendered is not known here.

The Washington Star tonight prints following names of those looming up strongest at this time for Associate Justice, in the order of their strength: Secretary Nagel, Senator Borah, of Idaho; Senator Sutherland, of Utah; Solicitor Lehman, of the Department of Justice; Judge Hook, of United States Circuit Court of Kansas.

Of course, the men mentioned are not candidates, but their names and qualifications have been suggested by others. As to Senator Borah, it is worthy of note that able lawyers of the Senate, both Democrats and Republicans, have placed his name before the President. In the Senate he is generally regarded as having one of the ablest judicial minds ever in that body.

Senator Borah is taking no public stand against President Taft's nomination, but he is not working for the President. He and Mr. Taft have not always agreed upon extensive questions, but the President has always regarded him as an able man.

6 HELD FOR "JOKE" DEATH

Prominent New Yorkers Charged With Giving Girl Carbolic.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Six men were arrested late tonight for complicity in the death of Alice Tristram, the singer, who died in the Van Cortlandt Golf Clubhouse of carbolic acid poisoning last Sunday night. The coroner charged that she had met death as the victim of a practical joke.

Thomas J. Totten, a real estate dealer, was charged with homicide, and those charged with being accessories are: John J. McCarthy, a police lieutenant; Percy Totten, brother of Thomas; Edward Gallagher; Joseph E. Crippens, and William Lappe.

Thomas J. Totten was released on bail of $5000 and the other prisoners were released on bail of $2500.

BUTTONS LITTER STREETS

Harriman Emblems Cast Off by Wearers in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Ten thousand Harriman buttons were swept up in the city today by the street-cleaners. This is considered significant in view of the fact that it comes immediately upon the McNamara plot of guilt.

The assumption is that the Harriman buttons are being discarded by former supporters of the Socialist candidate, who made a statement that he would have fought to the bitter end for his clients.

GIRL WIFE IS SET FREE

Prosecutor Says Mrs. Langley Could Not Have Been Convicted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Anna Gaffney Langley, the girl wife who shot and killed her husband several months ago, alleging that he squandered her earnings for liquor, was discharged from custody today by Superior Judge Cabaniss.

She was to have been tried for murder today, but the District Attorney's office assured the court that there was no possibility of securing a conviction.

LONG LOST TEES FOUND; ALL SAVED

Rations Cut Short When Boat Hits Rocks.

HIGH CLIFFS HALT WIRELESS

Officers and Four of Crew, in Lifeboat, Lose Way in Fog.

FIVE FOUND NEAR COLLAPSE

Passengers on Hilted Craft, Lost for Nearly 70 Hours, Are Transferred and Now on Way to Victoria.

VICTORIA, Dec. 2.—Lost for nearly 70 hours, following going on the rocks in Kyquoot Sound, the Canadian Pacific steamer Tees, for which grave fears had been entertained since Wednesday morning, when she sent out distress calls, is afloat and all aboard are safe.

The Canadian fisheries tug William Joffile picked up a lifeboat today from the Tees, in which were Chief Officer Thompson and four of the steamer's crew.

The men piloted the Joffile to the distressed steamer and three boats are now standing by, expecting to tow her to Victoria tomorrow.

The Tees came off the rocks safely and was anchored to await the arrival of relief. Not knowing when assistance could be expected, Captain Gilliam placed all hands on short rations, two meals a day being served.

Concerts were arranged by the steward and while the rescue steamer were hurrying through the fog and fighting the heavy seas, trying to enter the sound to lend aid, those aboard the vessel kept good cheer and whiled away the time merrily. There were 31 first cabin and seven second cabin passengers.

The wireless operator worked his key constantly, but the interference of the high cliffs surrounding the helpless craft prevented communication, and, except for two distress calls, picked up Wednesday morning and one last night, no news of the plight of the Tees was available until the Joffile found Chief Officer Thompson and his men today.

Thompson and his men left the Tees three days ago to row to Estevan to report the plight of the steamer. The men were lost in the fog and had gone without food since leaving the vessel.

The Tees, according to wireless reports received tonight, is not in a dangerous position. When she left the straits near the entrance to Kyquoot Sound early Wednesday morning, she struck a submerged rock, breaking her propeller blade and bending her rudder post, leaving her helpless.

After the first distress calls were sent out the wireless would not work and the crew was sent for assistance.

When the lifeboat was picked up the five men were in a state of collapse. Their boat required constant bailing and they were worn out by the work and lack of food.

The passengers have been transferred to the steamer Salvor and probably will arrive here tomorrow.
