

NANKING SUBSIDES INTO NORMAL AGAIN

Rebels Restore Order in Chinese City and Station Police Patrols.

GENERAL CHANG ESCAPES

Departure of Royalist Leader and Picked Troops Is Thought to Have Been With Connivance of the Revolutionists.

NANKING, Dec. 2.—(3:30 A. M.)—Conditions in Nanking now are almost normal. The revolutionaries have placed police patrols throughout the city and they have restored order. General Chang, the imperial commander, escaped across the river to Pu-kow the night before the revolutionary forces entered the city, it is believed, with the consent and connivance of the rebel commanders.

From Pu-kow General Chang, accompanied by 1000 picked troops from the garrison of that town, proceeded northward. It is thought he will attempt to join the Northern army through Shantung.

The foreign warships have returned to their anchorage opposite Shai Kwan. Trains have begun to run into Nanking.

Reports from Sze-chue province are not reassuring. Many foreigners are unable to leave because the governors find protection from having foreigners within the various towns, which guarantees against attack.

It has been suggested that the foreign governments request Premier Yuan Shih Kai to ask General Li, the revolutionary commander, to furnish an escort for isolated foreigners to places of safety.

INTERVENTION HAS PERILS

Danger to Foreigners Seen if Nations Land Troops.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—That the greatest peril threatening the foreigners in China at present is from their own friends, and the first move towards intervention between the warring factions would lead to the instant fusion of the discordant elements and a combined attack upon all foreigners, is the substance of a mail report to the War Department from one of its agents in China.

Information of the same tenor coming to the State Department from American Minister Calhoun at Peking is probably what has restrained the Government from giving the word for the landing of American troops, as was at first intended.

It is also believed that the Department has exerted its influence upon the other powers interested in China to prevent the dispatch of anything more than a mere fragment of military force to fill up the quota of the legation guards called for in the treaty which terminated the rebellion.

WHITE SALMON MAN SHOT

Burglar Gets Drop on Night Watchman and Makes Escape.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—H. S. Hall, night watchman, was shot by a burglar early today. Hall discovered his man coming out of the back of Hoeman Bros. store with two gunny sacks filled with goods and carrying a revolver. He ordered him to throw up his hands and prodding him in the back with his rifle, he called to Gilbert Knutson for aid. Knutson poked his head out of the window and asked what was wrong. Hall and Knutson suddenly turned his head and slightly dropped his gun arm, the burglar suddenly dropped his right hand, jammed the muzzle of his revolver hard against the breast of the watchman, with "Damn you, I've got you," fired and fled. Hall brought his 45 into play, but his would-be murderer dodged around a building and made his escape. Hall suffered only a flesh wound, however.
